News From Denmark

Denmark, June 5.—Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Dukes were Mrs. B. H. Weathers and children of Charleston and their son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Dukes, Jr., of Washington, D. C. Mrs. Weathers is a sister of Mrs. Dukes, Sr. On their return to Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Dukes were accompanied by the Misses Nathaline and Elizabeth Dukes, who will be gone several weeks.

Mrs. Paul Neeley entertained with a picnic at Holman's bridge Wednesday afternoon complimentary to the senior class of the high school of which her daughter, Miss Catherine, is a member. In serving an excellent picnic lunch, the hostess was assisted by Mrs. William Shillito and Mrs. Robert Easterling.

Shortly after reaching home from Rock Hill, Miss Mary Haine Walker left for Charleston, where she attended the senior hop at the Citadel.

Members of the country club enjoyed a "fish" supper there Wednesday evening minus the fish, as the finny tribe had apparently gotten wind of the event and refused to be caught. Following the supper, a business meeting was held. It was decided to have a basket picnic on the Fourth of July on which occasion the club grounds are to be thrown open to the public. The Fourth of July picnic has become a tradition and is practically the only occasion when the whole community gets together.

Miss Rachel Fanning, of Neeses returned home after a visit of a week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Fanning.

Miss Katharine Turner, of Haine City, Fla., is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Edward Brodie.

On their return from Rock Hill, Mr. and Mrs. George Turner, John Turner and Miss Helen Turner stopped over for a brief visit in the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Holman at Creston. Mrs. Holman accompanied Mrs. Turner home for a stay of several days and will on her return to Creston early in the week be accompanied by Mrs. W. D. Mayfield and children.

The Misses Maud and Edna Creech are at home for vacation. They teach in Abbeville.

Mrs. J. B. Lyles and daughter, Lyda Mildred, are spending the week with relatives in Hartsville.

The Misses Mamie and Miriam Turner and Helen Brooker, Coker college students, are at home for their vacation.

Miss Emma Gaston of Aiken is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Gordon Steadman.

Mrs. Heineman and children, John and Clara Bell, left Sunday for Andrews, where they will spend their vacation.

The members of the high school graduating class are as follows: Della Brickle, J. Z. Brocker, Jr., Winnie Cox, Dorothy Crum, Esther Riley, Joe Wyman, Clyde Gillam, Irene Gillam, G. W. Goolsby, Jr., Jessie Mae Hair, Minnie Davis Robinson, Govan Zeigler, Dorothy Hightower, Kathleen Hightower, Virginia Hightower, Catherine Neely, Jean Shillito, Haggood Zorn and Nathaniel Dukes.

Springfield Social News.

Springfield, June 5.—The Springfield chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, was entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. G. Foy. Joint hostesses were Mrs. Sully Fulmer, Mrs. L. C. White, Mrs. D. V. Phillips, Mrs. C. E. Tyler, Mrs. Frank White and Mrs. Elnor Douglass. Baskets of pink oleanders lent summer fragrance to the parlors. The president, Mrs. B. C. Boland presided over the program centering on the historical import of the Jefferson-Davis highway. Vocal and piano music was rendered by Misses Wilma Fulmer and Frances Smith, articles being given by Mrs. W. H. Wilson and Miss Marie Fulmer. This was the final meeting for the season, the chapter being disbanded during the summer months. Six books of historical importance were presented to the public school library. An ice course was enjoyed.

The Woman's Missionary society of the Methodist church enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. D. V. Phillips' home at their June meeting Thursday afternoon. A wealth of summer flowers added to the attractiveness of Mrs. Phillips' parlors. Mrs. J. H.

Fanning presided over the meeting. Music and refreshments were enjoyed during the social hour.

Mrs. F. R. Fanning gave a party to about 30 children Monday afternoon in celebration of the eighth birthday of her daughter, Caroline. Games were played on the lawn, at the conclusion of which pineapple ice cream cones and cake were served. The winner of the contest, Herman Corley received a box of candy. The young hostess was the recipient of many lovely and useful gifts, which were arranged on a table centered by a snowy cake in fancy designs, with eight yellow candles in rosebuds. Mrs. Fanning was assisted by Mrs. P. W. Fanning, Mrs. J. C. Porter and Miss Blanche Gleaton.

Misses Sara Hayne and Ora Jumper have returned from a visit to Mrs. Harold Boozer in Denmark.

Mrs. Claude Parnelle and baby of Estill are with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Givens.

Mrs. Clara Miller of Mobile, Ala., was called here last week by the illness and death of her sister, Mrs. M. E. Boylston.

Mrs. Cary Bosharter of Shelby, N. C., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Porter.

Misses Eva Porter and Catherine Bean are at home from Columbia college; Misses Wilma Fulmer Thelma Cooper, Pansy Cooper, Margie Bridgeers and Pauline Harley, from Chicora, and Lester Porter from Clemson where he was graduated at the recent commencement.

Misses Elouise Boylston and Louise Givens are here for vacation from Winthrop college.

Oakley Gossett and Olin Burgdorf are at home from Furman university.
