Good Business
The children were on their way back from school, and were discussing the jobs which their respective parents did.
"My father's a butcher," said the first proudly.
"And mine's a jeweler," replied the second haughtily.
They turned to the third.
"What do your people do?" they asked.
"They're in the iron and steel trade," came the answer. "Mother irons and father steals."—Answers Magazine.

Reasonable
"Have you anything to say before I pass sentence on you?"
"Yes, your honor, I should like you to have your lunch first."—Farm & Ranch.

Gourmand
Miss Sweet—But, Tom, he says I look good enough to eat.
Tom—You just ought to see the things he eats at the lunch counters.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Catch Up on Chic

IF YOU'RE a bit behind in the thrilling game of Sew-Your-Own, Milady, why not take advantage of the holiday season and catch up? Today's trio is especially right for "vacation sewing" because it consists of simple practical pieces that require little time and trouble. Make all three and you'll have gone a long way toward putting the old punch back in the game.

Streamlined Styling.
The slip at the left is all you could wish for from the standpoint of styling. It offers superb lines from the moderately low cut V neck, through the dart-fitted waist right down to the very hem. The clever overlapping back is light proof and provides an action pleat so necessary for complete satisfaction. Important, too, is the fact that you may choose the material you wish in your own color. Better make it in duplicate for many meticulous months ahead.

Pretty in Sheer Wool.
The two-piece in the center is, like the slip, heavy on style. The defined waist is effectively young as is the flowing skirt and little round collar. It is just the frock to give one lots of git-up-and-git for the second semester, or "to break the ice" whenever one is anxious about one's appearance. It can be the height of chic in sheer wool—very pretty in flat crepe.

Modera Home Dress.
When it's home you're thinking of you naturally turn to a frock like the third member of the trio at the right. This button-all-the-way model is different enough to delight you and simple enough to set you sewing at sight. It is cut for comfort but with an ever watchful eye on that elusive little thing called chic. Crisp contrast may be had in the collar and cuffs and in that trim row of buttons that march down the line—and then back again. Look fresh in your version in pretty percale.

The Patterns.
Pattern 1946 is designed for sizes 14 to 20 (32 to 44 bust). Size 16 requires 3 1/2 yards of 36 inch fabric. One yard of ribbon is required for shoulder straps.
Pattern 1404 is designed for sizes 12 to 20 (30 to 38 bust). Size 14 requires 4 1/2 yards of 36 inch material.
Pattern 1390 is designed for sizes 34 to 48. Size 36 requires 4 1/2 yards of 35 inch material. The collar and cuffs in contrast require 1 1/2 yards material.

Uncle Phil Says:

Respect Due Precedent
Respect for precedent has a solid basis. Don't be contemptuous of precedent, but study its claims to authority.
Gossip thrives less among men particularly because it means a black eye if not worse.
It is nonsense to say that no one is interested in the troubles of others. We're not all inhuman.
Men have had but one burst of extravagance in clothing in the last 30 years. It was when they paid $8 for a silk shirt.
But Is He?
By his reason a man endeavors to prove that he is rid of some of his primitive instincts.
There is always a welcome place in the world for the young woman who is determined to be a lady.
Women often say it is hard to please men by the way they dress; but let a man pick out a woman's sartorial outfit and she'd be a fright.
Or Lacks So in Curiosity?
A phone won't bother you if you calmly go on writing and let it ring; but who has a seraphic temper like that?
If you want to enjoy retrospection, recall your happiness, not your sorrows.
It is hard to conceal contempt. Something besides words gives you away.
Human conscience began to function thousands of years ago. There is a lot of it in the Bible.
