

THE CZAR IN GAY PAREE

His Majesty Given an Enthusiastic Reception.

ACCOMPANIED BY THE CZARINA

The Royal Couple Went at Once to the Russian Embassy, Where They Will Remain During Their Stay at the French Capital—Welcomed by President Faure and Other Notables.

PARIS, Oct. 6.—The czar and czarina arrived here safely from Cherbourg at 10 a. m. The weather was fine and the countless decorations showed up splendidly in the sunlight. Their majesties were accorded a most rapturous reception and reached the Russian embassy, where they will reside during their visit to this city, at 11 o'clock. The crowds began gathering along the route of the procession shortly after daylight, and by 8 a. m. the neighborhood of the Avenue du Bois de Boulogne, the Place de l'Etoile, the Avenue des Champs Elysees, the Place de la Concorde, the Pont de la Concorde, the Boulevard Saint Germaine, the Rue Saint Simon and the Rue de Grammont, on which the Russian embassy is situated, were thronged with an enthusiastic people.

A double line of troops held from the railroad depot to the embassy from shortly after 7 o'clock, and the soldiers were reinforced by lines of gendarmes, sergents-de-ville and detectives, the latter including a number of agents of the Russian secret police and picked men from the nihilist detective corps.

The decorations eclipsed anything seen in the French capital. Russian and French flags, floating side by side, predominated, but the trees, balconies, lamps, and anything and almost everything was utilized. The trees, bereft of their natural foliage by the autumnal blasts, were thickly covered by artificial leaves and flowers, representing peach, almond and other blossoms.

Special Train Reaches Versailles. The special train of the czar with the president of the senate, M. Loubet, the president of the chamber of deputies, M. Brisson, the premier, M. Meline, and the cabinet ministers, and others on board, arrived at Versailles at 9:30 a. m., the special train following closely. The czar and czarina were received at Versailles by M. Faure, after which their majesties entered the president's train, the Russian train being too heavy for the light rails of the circular railroad, and the party started for the Banquet station of Paris proper, where they arrived at 10 o'clock. At Ranelagh, the czar and czarina were welcomed by the presidents of the senate and chamber of deputies, all the cabinet ministers, General Sausser, the military governor of Paris, Cardinal Richard, archbishop of Paris, the civil and municipal authorities and the high officials.

The arrival of the distinguished travelers was signalled to the expectant throngs by the fanfare of trumpets, after which there was a long roll by the drum corps, the guard of honor presented arms and the troops were called to attention from one end of the route to the other, causing the great crowds to begin cheering from the depot to the embassy. The air was rent with shouts of "vive le czar," "vive le empereur," "vive la republique," etc. Hats, sticks, handkerchiefs, etc., were waved wildly in the air.

President Faure, in saluting the imperial couple, removed his hat, and at the same moment a battery at Mont Verlain fired the first shot of an imperial salute of 101 guns.

The State Entry Into Paris. The usual formal presentations then took place in a magnificent salon, constructed expressly for that purpose, after which President Faure offered his arm to the czarina, and with the czar on his right, returned to the platform of the railroad station. The czar then reviewed the detachment of the Garde Republique, on duty. When this ceremony was concluded, their majesties and President Faure took their seats in the gorgeous state carriages in waiting, and the state entry into Paris was begun.

The czar and czarina occupied a Berlin painted dark blue and lighted with red-encrusted work and brass mountings, and having large silver lamps at each corner. It was driven by a coachman in a long blue coat with brass buttons, red waistcoat, powdered wig and a high hat. Three brilliantly livered footmen occupied the back of the imperial carriage. The vehicles in which President Faure and snites, etc., were seated, presented an almost equally attractive appearance. The scenes outside the depot were of frenzied enthusiasm. Shouts after shout, roar after roar, arose from the multitude gathered to welcome the Russian travelers.

There were 15 carriages in all in the procession, and they were escorted by detachments from the crack, picture-escpecially attired French African cavalry regiments, the famous Spahis, with their turbans and long, white cloaks, or burnous, lined with red or blue, and the gallant Chasseurs d'Afrique, whose light blue uniforms, baggy red trousers and splendid Arabian horses were much admired by all. In addition, the dashing Cuira-siers, with glittering steel breastplates and helmets, longtrailing horsehair plumes, strong, prancing horses, furnished a detachment to the escort, thereby adding considerably to the grandeur of the military pageant, and the picture was completed by the presence in the procession of a detachment of the Garde Republique, the fine cavalry of the Republican guard.

A NOTED OUTLAW KILLED.

Barnum Jones, Moonshiner and Murderer Shot to Death by a posse.

RALEIGH, Oct. 6.—The official report of the killing of Barnum Jones, outlaw, murderer and moonshiner, has been received by Revenue Collector Simmons.

Jones was killed in Bladen county by a posse of six. The chief of police of Florence, S. C., and Deputy Sheriff Parish of Robertson county, N. C., crept up to within 17 yards of him intending to capture him. He was several yards from his shotgun when he discovered the officers, but sprang to it and shot them both.

Then he ran, and loading as he went, fired again. The posse fired at him and four bullets struck him. He fell, but reloaded and rose and fired, but missed. Then he was shot and fell, but as he went down fired both barrels at the posse again. The third volley killed him, one bullet piercing his brain, another his heart and the third his abdomen.

The verdict at the inquest at Lumberton is that the killing of Jones was justifiable. There is some doubt that Jones murdered men in Alabama and Texas. He had twice recently made attempts to kill people in Baden. Revenue officers had run after him for four years.

THE ARMENIAN QUESTION.

A Zone to be Established in Turkey That May Become a New State.

LONDON, Oct. 6.—The Vienna correspondent of the Daily Mail declares that the agreement of the powers for the settlement of the Turkish problem, which this correspondent announced last week, he had good authority for publishing, includes the formation of an Armenian zone in the Turkish empire, on the basis of the Jewish pale in Russia, the powers guaranteeing the safety of the Armenians therein with the idea that the zone would become the germ of a new Armenian state.

The active operations," this correspondent proceeds by saying, "will be undertaken by England, France and Russia, while Italy will co-operate if necessary. As far as England is concerned, the harbor of Smyrna will play an important part in the final settlement.

The Constantinople correspondent of the Chronicle says that the Ottoman bank and the credit of the Lyonnais are sending large quantities of securities to Paris for safety. He says that the American and English ladies in Constantinople are helping the women and children in the suburbs, and hundreds attend the American mission-house, where each receives four francs and a bundle of apparel.

WANTED TO BE LYNCHED.

Murderer Moore Confronted With That In View, but Was Disappointed.

NAPA, Cal., Oct. 6.—William Moore, the self confessed murderer of Mrs. John Q. Greenwood, in this city in 1891, told a remarkable story at the preliminary examination.

Since Moore's surrender to the authorities it has been doubted by many that his confession was authentic, and his identity as the assassin was not clearly established. In his statement in court he said that on account of reverses and sickness he had become despondent and had for a long time contemplated suicide, but was deterred by religious scruples. Then he decided to make a confession in the hope that he would be lynched as soon as he was brought to Napa.

"It is true," he said, "that I gave myself up in San Fernando, that I signed a confession of killing Mrs. Greenwood, and that I made no attempt to disguise myself. I wanted everybody to understand that I was the party that committed the deed, and I pictured myself as black as possible, supposing that when I got here they would lynch me."

Barbers Meet at Evansville.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Oct. 6.—The first biennial convention of the International Barber's union was called to order at 9 o'clock in Central Labor Union hall, and the delegates were welcomed by Mayor Hawkins. Heretofore the meetings have been held annually, the one last year being the seventh annual and which was held in St. Paul. Thirty-eight states were represented at the meeting. The chief question of interest at this convention will be the agitation in favor of licensing barbers. San Francisco, Washington, D. C., and Memphis have strong delegations working for the next meeting.

SOUTH CAROLINA NEWS

A Week's Happenings Gathered From All Parts of the State.

MANY ITEMS OF IMPORTANCE

The Port Royal and Augusta Railroad Out of Receiver's Hands—Fifteen Thousand Bales of Cotton Destroyed by the Storm in Charleston County—Sylvester Bleckley Dead—Other Notes.

COLOMBIA, S. C., Oct. 2.—The last opportunity to register before the November elections was given would-be voters of South Carolina this week. Under the constitution adopted last year the applicant for registration must be able to read understandingly or explain to the satisfaction of the managers any section of the constitution read to him by them, and he must also present a receipt for his poll tax.

Registration under this condition will proceed until Jan. 1, 1897, when the applicant of registration must be able to both read and write any section of the constitution, or must present his receipt for taxes upon at least $300 worth of property. But those who are now of age and do not register will not be permitted to do so after next year.

The result of the registration this year shows that unless an attempt now being made by Republicans to get the election laws overturned, as contrary to the section of the constitution of the United States, allowing this state, Georgia and Florida representation in congress, the negroes will not be a factor in politics here until those now being educated become of age and comply with the educational requirements.

Of the 130,000 negro adults in the state, not exceeding 5,500 will be able to vote in the November election—only about that number having been registered. About 50,000 whites have certificates. This cuts off Republicans from sending a congressman from the First district, now represented by George W. Murray, and nullifies their fighting chance in the Seventh, from which Dr. Stokes (Dem.) was recently unseated.

STAYED BY JUSTICE POPE.

Townsend's Decree Will Not Be Enforced Until Appeal Is Heard.

GREENVILLE, S. C., Oct. 1.—The railroad case of James T. Williams, owner of the Carolina, Knoxville and Western, has taken a new turn. Judge Townsend ordered Mr. Williams to start up the road "forthwith." J. A. McCullough, attorney for Mr. Williams, has returned from Newberry with the following order from Judge Pope:

"Upon hearing the petition of James T. Williams, appellant, in this entitled cause, and upon receipt of a telegram from U. R. Brooks, clerk of the supreme court, that the return in said cause has been filed in his office, on motion of J. A. McCullough, attorney for said defendant, it is ordered that all proceedings to enforce the order or decree of his honor, Judge D. A. Townsend, dated Sept. 25, 1896, now appealed from, shall be stayed, until the hearing and determination of said appeal, upon the expressed condition that the respondent, James T. Williams, do forthwith enter into a written stipulation before the clerk of the circuit court for Greenville county to be lodged immediately thereafter in the office of U. R. Brooks, clerk of the supreme court of South Carolina, that he, his assigns and his servants will not interfere with the said railroad property by removing any of the same until the further order of the court herein."

Thousands of Bales of Cotton Destroyed.

COLOMBIA, S. C., Oct. 6.—Ex-Governor Richardson has just returned from his plantation in Clarendon county, which was in the storm belt. He says the cotton has been whipped out and the fields look as if covered with snow. It is estimated 13,000 to 15,000 bales were destroyed, a loss of about $500,000.

Indianapolis Firemen Injured.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 6.—Fire in the basement of the Circle Park hotel, in Monument Place, was extinguished with small loss. Fire Chief J. H. Webster and Fireman Buck Stahler, who were the first to enter the basement, were seriously injured by an explosion caused by a melted natural gas pipe. The right side of Webster's head was badly burned to a blister and his hair badly off. Both will recover. There was some excitement among the guests, but no one was injured. A serious conflagration was averted by the stoppage of the draft through the elevator shaft.

Republicans and Populists Have Fused on the Legislative and County Officers in Fifty Counties—Nominee Guthrie Speaks at Durham—A National Flower Congress to Be Held at Asheville.

RALEIGH, Oct. 6.—The official report of the killing of Barnum Jones, outlaw, murderer and moonshiner, has been received by Revenue Collector Simmons.

Jones was killed in Bladen county by a posse of six. The chief of police of Florence, S. C., and Deputy Sheriff Parish of Robertson county, N. SEWALL INDORSES FUSION.

The Maine Man Thinks North Carolina Democrats Acted Wisely.

RALEIGH, Oct. 2.—Democratic State Chairman Manly, in an interview, said: "The action of our state committee in arranging the electoral ticket with the Populists was the logical and intelligent action of different political parties who have, on the great principle of the restoration of silver, which they hold in common, nominated a mutual candidate to carry that principle into effect."

"I have been surprised and grieved that some Democrats did not seem to understand our position and did not know the committee was acting with the highest sanction and approval of those who have the national light in charge, and that our action was in no way disloyal to our candidate for vice president. I have received the following letter from Mr. Sewall:

"I have the honor of acknowledging the receipt of your favor of Sept. 27, informing me of the basis of fusion in North Carolina and asking whether it meets my approval. I believe the friends of bimetalism ought to vote for an electoral ticket that will elect Bryan to the presidency, and I thoroughly approve of the policy which unites the supporters of free silver in your state and every other. It is the people's cause against monopolies, and no local differences or personal aspiration ought to prevent union."

NORTH CAROLINA POLITICS.

Populists and Republicans Have Fused In About Fifty Counties.

RALEIGH, Oct. 3.—Populists and Republicans have fused on county officers and the legislature in about 50 counties, while the Populists and Democrats have fused in seven counties.

The latter sort of fusion has occurred in Durham county. It is interesting because of the presence of W. A. Guthrie, Populist nominee for governor, who made a speech in which he declared for a policy exactly opposed to that of Senator Butler's paper. He congratulated the Populists on thus fusing with Democrats and declared both parties are for free silver.

He spoke to the negroes present and told them they intended to vote for Russell, Republican nominee for governor, who had been trying to array the blacks against the whites and who would be willing to plunge North Carolina in blood to get elected. Guthrie concluded by saying his own election was a matter of small consequence, the great matter being Bryan's election.

WAS VERY ANXIOUS TO WED.

A North Carolinian Stole an Ox In Order to Procure a Marriage License.

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., Oct. 5.—A. F. Jackson, a young man living near Fayetteville, was married to Miss Hall, a beautiful girl. Just as the ceremony, performed by a magistrate, ended, the groom was arrested charged with stealing an ox from his brother, taking it to Fayetteville, selling it and with the money procuring a marriage license and some clothing.

The groom was at once arraigned for theft before the same magistrate who had just performed the ceremony. The counsel for the groom, in addressing the court, said:

"I would rather lose an ox than thus cause the arrest of my brother. The attorney for the prosecution quickly replied:

"I had rather lose my head than steal an ox from my brother." The case was continued until Monday for more evidence.

Work of the Storm In North Carolina.

RALEIGH, Oct. 2.—During Tuesday night's hurricane a tree was blown upon a house, instantly killing Mrs. Trice, her husband and two children escaped. The storm was more severe at Durham than at any other point yet heard from. F. T. Garrison's tobacco house, in which are 450,000 pounds of tobacco, was entirely wrecked. He estimates his loss at over $50,000. Cotton left unpicked was damaged by both wind and rain.

For a National Flower Congress.

RALEIGH, Oct. 3.—Governor Carr has received letters from ten governors expressing interest in the national flower congress to be held at Asheville Oct. 21, to select a national flower. The various governors are appointing delegates.

PROGRESS OF THE SOUTH.

Many New Industries Reported In Dixie During the Past Week.

CHATTANOOGA, Oct. 6.—The Tradesman is in close touch with all legitimate industrial interests of the south and special reports received indicate a much better feeling among manufacturers. The movement in cotton and wheat continues active.

Confidence in the iron and steel market continues strong. The demand for pig iron increases and at some points, where investments in southern pig have been so extensive, a speculative feeling is visible. Advances in southern pig are being firmly maintained. The final test of the Hawkins process of steelmaking from Alabama iron has been made at the plant of the Jefferson Steel Manufacturing company, at North Birmingham, and was entirely satisfactory. The result will be the changing of the Jefferson company's plant into a steel mill at no distant date. Thirteen furnaces are in blast in the Birmingham district and large sales of iron are reported, the demand fully equaling the output. Iron men believe the upward movement in the market has come to stay.

The lumber market shows very little change. At some points business is increasing, while at others it is reported only fair for the season. The export trade is all that could be desired, the mills having all the work they can do. The textile industries are characterized by increasing activity, and but few idle spindles are reported in the south. Work is progressing favorably on mills in course of construction, and several large plants will be ready to begin business before the first of the year.

Among the most important new industries for the week are the following: A $50,000 distillery, at Louisville, Ky.; a $15,000 rice factory, at Fayetteville, Ark.; the City Ice company, capital $50,000, organized at Hot Springs, Ark.; a $300,000 cotton mill, at Douglasville, Ga.; the Monroe Cigar company, capital $25,000, chartered at Tampa, Fla.; the Snyder Pump and Well company, capital $15,000, at Richmond, Va.; and the Bryan Water, Ice, Light and Power company, capital $20,000, at Bryan, Tex.

BATTEY BUCK BOUND OVER.

The Bond of William Shinnall's Stayor Fixed at Five Hundred Dollars.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Oct. 6.—The story of the deadly duel on Sept. 11, when William Shinnall returned home unexpectedly and surprised his clerk, Battey Buck, in the room of his wife, is still remembered. In the dimly lighted bedroom the two men emptied their pistols into each other in the presence of the terrified wife. Shinnall died in a few minutes from the wounds he received, but Buck made his way home, though shot three times. He has since recovered from his wounds and was arraigned before Magistrate Leon for a preliminary hearing.

Two witnesses were sworn, but the effect of their testimony was simply to prove that Battey Buck fired the shots resulting in Shinnall's death. Two witnesses swore that Shinnall said before he died that Buck had killed him. Willie Shinnall, Jr., 9 years old, swore that he was in the room with his mother and saw Buck shoot his father. He swore that Buck fired first and that during the shooting his mother grabbed him up and ran out of the room.

The boy cried when he told of the killing of his father and Buck was visibly affected. There was an effort to show that Willie's grandfather had instructed him what to say, but he claimed that his grandfather had promised to give him 10 cents if he would go there and tell the truth.

DOCKERY OUT FOR BRYAN.

Attacks the Republican Platform—Democratic State Committee to Meet.

RALEIGH, Oct. 6.—O. H. Dockery, Populist nominee for lieutenant governor, publishes in Senator Butler's paper an address to voters in which he says he is a free silver Republican and is therefore constrained to vote for Bryan. He attacks Senator Price Pritchard, charges him with great inconsistency on the silver question and says the North Carolina Republican platform is a creation of Pritchard under inspiration from Ohio.

The Democratic state committee is called to meet here next Thursday. There are many conjectures as to what it will do. There are intimations that the Populist committee will meet at the same time. Republicans are deeply interested in these meetings and express the belief that some sort of a trial will be made. The Populists are certainly greatly divided. A Populist committeeman says that the Democratic committee will receive a message from William J. Bryan stating what he desires done, and will fill his wishes. Populist State Chairman Ayer says that the Populists have accepted every Democratic offer.

Prominent Missouri Politician Dead.

PASADENA, Cal., Oct. 6.—N. O. Hopkins, formerly prominent in Missouri politics, where he represented Atchison county in the state legislature for three terms, died here at the age of 72. Mr. Hopkins' death was partly due to fracturing of the thighbone in a fall from a street car about a week ago.

Looks Like "Breck" Will Win.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 6.—Judge G. Denny, Jr., who announced himself a Republican candidate in the Seventh district, has made public a card withdrawing from the contest. This leaves Breckinridge a clean field with the support of the gold standard voters of both parties.

Receiver For a New York Bank.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—The comptroller of the currency has appointed William A. Douglass of Buffalo, N. Y., receiver of the First National Bank of Springdale, N. Y.

BIG REPUBLICAN GAINS

The Democrats Lose Ground In Connecticut.

RESULT OF THE TOWN ELECTIONS

Republicans Are Jubilant, Declaring That the Victory in the Coming State Shows Which Way the Political Wind Is Blowing—Expect to Roll Up a Majority of Twenty Five Thousand Next Month.

HARTFORD, Oct. 6.—There is great jubilation at the headquarters of the Republican state central committee in this city as a result of the "little town" elections held throughout Connecticut. Thus far the committee has heard from 125 towns. From these towns a large Republican gain is shown and 12 towns are gained outright. The comparisons are with two years ago, when the Republicans benefited by the political landslide.

Samuel S. Eddy, secretary of the committee, said:

"We did not expect so great a victory. We naturally look upon it as something of a straw. Two years ago we reached what we thought to be our zenith when we carried the state by 17,000. If we base our predictions upon yesterday's results we should expect a much greater majority on Nov. 3. Of course, in many of the towns local issues complicated the election greatly, but making allowances for all such complications, and taking into consideration everything, the committee expects Connecticut to roll up a majority of not less than 25,000."

TOM WATSON TO BUTLER.

The Georgian Accepts the Populist Nomination For the Vice Presidency.

CHICAGO, Oct. 6.—A special to The Tribune from Atlanta says: Tom Watson has declined a letter accepting the Populist nomination for vice president. It is addressed to Chairman Butler and is a vigorous, incisive document. Mr. Watson will make the letter public probably on Wednesday.

In his letter of acceptance the Populist leader calls attention to the almost forgotten fact that, during the St. Louis convention a caucus of "middle-of-the-road" delegates, representing 21 states, was held. At this caucus the delegates agreed to nominate Norton of Illinois for president and Burke of Mississippi for vice president. This ticket would have made Bryan's defeat absolutely certain. But Watson telegraphed a message saying he was willing to accept second place on the ticket with Bryan. The "middle-of-the-road" men, believing the Democratic managers would support the Democratic ticket in good faith, withdrew their opposition to Mr. Bryan.

Mr. Watson's letter is principally devoted to a demonstration that the Populist candidate for vice president deserves the support of all who favor Bryan's election.

KOLB REPUDIATED BY POPS.

The Campaign Committee Charges Him With Betraying the Party.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Oct. 6.—R. F. Kolb and P. G. Bowman, former Populist leaders in this state, recently announced that they had abandoned Watson and would stump the country for Bryan and Sewall, and Democratic congressmen. The People's Tribune of Birmingham followed them and hoisted the Bryan and Sewall ticket.

The campaign committee of the People's party for the state has just had a meeting at Calera and announced to all parties concerned that they repudiated the paper as any longer their organ, charged Kolb with basely betraying the party, being an emissary of the enemy and working for the election of the down-east monopolist, Sewall, and recommended that he be deposed from the state executive committee.

Bryan Speaks at Jeffersonville, Ind.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 6.—Mr. Bryan arrived in Louisville shortly after 7 o'clock on a special train from Nashville. No stops were made in the night run and the candidate managed to secure a good night's rest. He breakfasted at the Louisville hotel and was met by Governor Matthews and the Indiana reception committee. At the station at Fourteenth and Main streets a small crowd gathered, but Mr. Bryan did not show himself. National Committeeman Woodson of Kentucky accompanied Mr. Bryan on the night trip through Kentucky and also accompanied him when he crossed into Indiana at 7:30 o'clock, arriving in Jeffersonville in time to fill his speaking appointment.

Graham and addressed by Major McKinley from his front porch.
