But it Took an Aggregation From Three Different Clubs.

Last Friday afternoon THE LEDGER teams and an aggregation composed of the Dupre's, Burnett's and Cor-Some Short, Some Shorter and all Too inth nines met on the diamond at Limestone. At first it looked like a walk-over for THE LEDGER boys but about the third inning the tide changed and THE LEDGER man got his face so crooked trying to smile when he couldn't that he has not been able to get it straight since. The game was tame, at least to us, and the playing not up to the usual. The work of Gleen and Brown was good, W. D. Archer, Gaffney's tonsorial but their support poor at critical artisit, is making an addition to his points, while Lipscomb and Humhome. The Monazite Problem.

In speaking of the monazite business to The Ledger yesterday, Mr. L. Campbell requested us to quote him as follows:

Monazite mining in the Southern States was first brought to note and commercial value through L. A. Gettys, of Duncan, Rutherford County, N. C., through his connection with the Welsback Light Co., of Gloucester City, N. J. He, beyond question of all doubt, is the father of this industry, and to him the laboring public' and owners of lands on which monazite has been found owe many thanks. He has paid to them in wages and royality many thousands of dollars. for which the country in the neighborhood of his operations have recived a great benefit.
