Memorial Day Exercises.

Memorial day was observed in Gaffney last Saturday under the auspices of the Ladies' Memorial Association. Quite a number of citizens, a strong squad of veterans, a small army of little girls and boys and a detachment of the Gaffney Light Infantry, under Capt. J. A. Bell, the whole commanded by Col. J. G. Wardlaw, composed the line. The procession was formed at the Gaffney Male and Female Seminary and moved to the cemetery, where a stand for the occasion had been erected. Arriving at the cemetery the Gaffney Light Infantry opened ranks and presented arms and the veterans passed through with heads uncovered. The veterans were followed by the children and they by the ladies of the Memorial Association. Arriving at the stand a patriotic song was rendered by a choir selected for the occasion. This was followed by a prayer by the Rev. C. E. Robertson, chaplain of the Gaffney Light Infantry, after which an address was delivered by Prof. W. S. Hall. This was followed by an address by Capt. H. P. Griffith. Rev. T. M. Dent then offered prayer. The crowd then dispersed to scatter flowers on the graves of the departed loved ones. On reassembling Rev. B. P. Robertson read a tribute of respect prepared by Miss Lila C. Budd for the Ladies Memorial Association in memory of Mrs. W. F. Marthur. Mrs. J. J. Brown and Mrs. E. O. Sams, members of the Memorial Association. This ended the exercises and the participants repaired to their respective homes, all feeling better for the part each took in the occasion.

Fun for the Crowd.

A fistfight between Jim Gaffney and another gentleman of color Tuesday afternoon created a good deal of amusement for the on-lookers. The match was pretty near even, but when the crowd began to gather and attract the attention of the police Jim's opponent broke and ran. Alderman R. M. Wilkins and a number of others gave chase. The alderman proved that he could run in a foot race as fast as he could in a city election, and soon overtook the fleeing son of Ham. Jim put up $5 for his appearance before Mayor Littlejohn yesterday morning while his opponent was conducted to the city hotel by officer Hamrick.

When arraigned before his honor, Mayor Littlejohn, yesterday morning Jim was fined $5 for his fun, while Charley Ballinger, his opponent, was fined $1 for the part he took in the affair.

Cooper-Limestone Commencement.

The following is the programme for the annual commencement of Cooper-Limestone Institute which takes place in June:
Sunday, June 5th, 11 a. m.—Baccalaureate sermon, Rev. E. E. Bomar, Aiken, S. C.
Monday, June 6th, from 10 a. m. to 6 p. m.—Art exhibit.
Monday evening, June 6th, 8:30—Reading and scenes from David Copperfield—Elocution class.
Tuesday evening, June 7th, 8:30—Graduating exercises—Address by President F. W. Boatwright, Richmond College, Va.
The public is cordially invited to attend these exercises.

Attention Citizens!

Tomorrow night a meeting will be held in the city hall in the interest of a Fourth of July celebration. Every man in Gaffney is invited to be present and take part in the deliberations. So far every man spoken to on the subject has expressed himself as willing and ready to push the celebration forward. With a little self-denial and a little patriotic work on the part of all we can have a creditable celebration at little expense. So let everybody interested in the progress of Gaffney and the profitable advertising of the town come to the front and put his shoulder to the wheel and shove the old chariot of enterprise forward.

Remember Our Offer.

Don't forget that we are going to give away ten dollars to persons answering advertisements of merchants in this paper. Would you not like to win one of these prizes? Of course you would, then why not go to work and try for it? It is no trouble for you to tell a merchant that you saw his advertisement and put your name on his register, and when you consider that a merchant appreciates your reading his ad you will readily see that he will take pains to show you that what he said in that ad was true, and in doing so will give you better bargains than you would get if you had not told him you saw it.

The Site Changed.

The site for the carpet mill has been changed on account of the water supply, and the mill will be erected on the lot embracing Col. Samuel Jefferies' fish pond and contains thirty and one-half acres. Lumber and material has been placed on the new site and building operations will be begun at once.

A Pleasant Evening.

A few of Miss Forts friends, were entertained in a most delightful manner on Monday evening last. Only too soon was it over, and the guests departed, with appreciative thoughts of their charming hostess.

Mecklenburg's Gala Day.

Gaffney was well represented at the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence celebration on the 20th of May. The success of the celebration was all that could be desired. J. Q. Little came near being the victim of the board of petty thieves and pick-pockets that infested the Queen City on that occasion. While in a crowd on Tryon street looking at the procession, a thief attempted to steal a valuable diamond from his shirt front, but J. Q. was too alert for the wily thief and caught him in the act. The culprit was promptly handed over to the police. The next morning he was bound over to the Criminal court in the sum of $200. He promptly put up the money and left the city on the next train.

It Failed for Lack of Support.

THE LEDGER is very sorry that the merchants of this place are not willing to unite on the early closing movement. A list for signers to this movement was circulated last week and at one time it began to look as if there would be no trouble to get every merchant in the city to sign, but finally the solicitors came across one merchant who disagreed and then another and it was not a great while before enough had refused to compel those who were inclined to enter the early closing movement to withdraw, hence the effort was a failure. Suppose you try it again, boys. You may have better success next time.

Social Gayeties.

To be entertaining when one ought to be asleep. To eat sweets and salads when the stomach craves the simplest food or none at all. To laugh when one wants to cry. All this and much more society demands of her followers. What a strain on the nerves of delicate women!

Is it any wonder that they break down?
The dreadful headaches. The crushing pains in the back and loins. The blues. All such symptoms indicate serious derangements of the delicate female organism, and must be overcome at once. Remove the cause. Strengthen exhausted nature.

The Funeral of Mr. Spencer.

The funeral of the late J. G. Spencer took place last Thursday at Corinth church in the presence of a large concourse of friends and relatives. The service was conducted by Rev. B. P. Robertson, of this city. After the service by Mr. Robertson the Masonic Order took charge of the remains and buried their lamented brother with Masonic honors. The funeral cortege was perhaps the longest that ever went out from Gaffney. It seemed that everybody in the place and surrounding country who could possibly do so was present to attest their love and friendship for the deceased.

An Acknowledgement.

Through Mr. Eison, we have received a most welcome box of goods, calico, percale, sheeting, bleached goods, etc., made up by Mr. E. J. Barnett and the weavers of the Gaffney cotton mill. It is with grateful joy that this evidence of love for our orphans is acknowledged.
