PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

People You Know and People You Don't Know

J. C. Ratliff, of The Battery, returned from the Northern markets Wednesday after purchasing a mammoth stock of "ammunition" for his big guns. He expects to sweep Cherokee county with spring and summer bargains.

Capt. J. T. Thackston went to Greens yesterday to spend a few days with one of his sons.

Mrs. Sumter Littlejohn returned to the city the first of the week from a visit to relatives in Spartanburg.

Junius Robbs, of Grassy Pond, was in the city yesterday.

W. H. Carroll, a prominent citizen and farmer of Cherokee township, came over to the city Tuesday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Wilson, from beyond the Broad, were in the city Tuesday and Wednesday on a visit to their son, "Billy Wilson," on Grand street.

Prater Smith, a progressive Blue Branch farmer, came up to the city yesterday.

W. C. Whitesides, of Hickory Grove, spent some time in the city Tuesday.

D. C. Painter spent a short time in the city Wednesday. He is a wheat grower and all-around good farmer, but is not pleased with his present wheat prospects.

S. Gallman, of Love's Springs, spent some time in the city yesterday.

L. D. Bonner, of Goucher, favored The Ledger with a call Tuesday.

Mrs. Frank Laney of Monroe, N. C., is in the city visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Gaffney, on Grand street.

C. E. Smith, a merchant and farmer of Goucher, was in the city Wednesday.

B. F. Bonner, a prominent planter of Goucher, was in the city Wednesday.

C. T. Mabry, of Grindal, came in to see us yesterday, and subscribe.

Miss Florence Byars returned home Monday from Blackburg, after spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Sumter Pool.

A. B. Brannon, the popular boss weaver at the Gaffney mill, returned from Forest City, N. C. Monday.

Mr. James Jones, a prominent citizen of Richmond, Ky., and long and well known in this State, is in the city on a visit to his daughter, Mrs. Wm. R. Porter on Jeffries street.

Miss Dovie Smith returned home from Spartanburg Sunday.

J. J. McCraw, a prosperous farmer of State Line, spent some time in the city yesterday and paid The Ledger an appreciated visit.

Mack Byers, from across the Broad, was a city visitor yesterday.

Wofford Price, of Ezells, came to see us yesterday and now there is another Ledger going to his section.

Our Merchants.
Gaffney merchants, always up-to-date, are now receiving large stocks of spring goods for their trade and are making the most attractive window and scenic displays of them that we remember ever seeing in Gaffney.

All are astir in our business houses. The energetic and polite salesmen and ladies appreciate the value, beauty and splendor of their stocks, and are making the most of the opportunities their constant crowds of customers are affording.

The Exposition.
The South Carolina Inter-State and West India Exposition is in full blast now and is being visited by thousands from all over the country every day. All are delighted with it and speak of it only in praise. While it was not intended to be a money maker, it has paid running expenses from the start and has up to the present retired about one-eighth of the bonded indebtedness of the company, and the period of greatest patronage has just begun.

Mayor's Court.
Mayor Little's judicial work is a light job these mornings. Only one long-legged fellow had to answer Tuesday morning and he was only required to contribute five days work to street improvements. He is contributing.

Wednesday and yesterday morning the mayor, clerk and police force were all present. There were no cases on the docket and the whole push seemed at peace with all mankind.

Confederate Reunion.
Gen. C. I. Walker has selected Greenville as the next place of meeting for the State reunion of the United Confederate Veterans. Greenville did herself grand when she entertained the veterans before, and the "old boys" will look forward to the coming reunion with a great deal of pleasure and will enjoy it huge y.

They know Greenville.

SHORT LOCAL TEMS.

Gaffney has as good a telephone system as there is in the State.

The recent rains have filled the wells with plenty of surplus water.

We are glad to see Miss Mamie Gaffney out after a few days illness.

Limestone wagons are on the move these days—a sure sign of progress.

The Ledger is the paper of the Piedmont. Take it twice-a-week for $1.00.

We hear that a man has been found dead in a road near Grover, but can get no particulars. Coroner Vinesett has gone to the scene.

A. L. Hallman has had charge of the street force this week and has been doing some good work.

J. H. Curry is moving his brick plant to a place near the oil mill and will in a short time begin making brick on a big scale.

Emmett Plaxico, of King's Creek, has been drawn to serve as a juror at the April term of the United States court in Charleston.

Services were conducted at the Cherokee Avenue Baptist church Sunday, both morning and evening, by the pastor, Rev. J. B. Bozeman.

While wheat is reported to be thin, it is beginning to show up some, which increases the hopes of the farmers. Wheat can do as much in a short time as any crop.

Prof. Shuford, of Graded School No. 2, is manifesting great interest in his school. He not only works for the advancement of his pupils, but is all he can to secure a full and regular attendance.

W. W. Gaffney's new dwelling on Logan street is nearing completion. It will be supplied with all modern conveniences. It is on one of the most handsome sites in the city and is a handsome building.

Messrs. Carr, J. Carpenter & Byers request us to announce that in account of the delay in receiving their largest and best pattern hats their opening will continue throughout this week and part of next.

Hay Black, a negro who was raised in Gaffney but who has been away for two or three years, returned to the city a few days ago and has since his arrival been trying to paint the town red. He has, up to this time, evaded arrest.

Yesterday was bright and clear. The sun shone warmly but there was a light breeze coming in with still a tinge of winter in it. The ground must have been too wet to plough, but the farmers were mostly on their farms and had a small delegation in the city.

The Moses Wood Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy, met at the residence of Dr. W. B. DuPre Thursday afternoon. The meeting was well attended and much business was transacted. After the meeting adjourned Mrs. DuPre served refreshments and otherwise delightfully entertained the daughters.

FEMININE FASHIONS.

A Bewildering Display of Spring Millinery Novelties at Carroll, Carpenter & Byers.

One of the prettiest places in the city for the female portion of Gaffney's residents to visit just now, is the millinery parlors of Carroll, Carpenter & Byers, it being the occasion of their spring millinery and dress goods opening. Their parlors certainly present a scene of dazzling beauty which it would be impossible to accurately describe, and they are thronged from morning till night with "moving pictures" in female form no less beautiful than the artificial loveliness by which they are surrounded, all eager to catch a glimpse of the coming styles.

The front windows of the establishment first attract the attention and the admiration of the visitors. They are filled with dainty laces, ribbons, flowers, costly silks and numerous other fabrics, all displayed in a tempting and ingenious manner, while in the heart of this elaboration nestles a handsome female figure upon which many an admiring glance has been cast from eyes not altogether feminine. Inside is merely a continuation on a larger scale of the richness and dainty loveliness displayed in the windows. The long table, fairly staggered beneath a profusion of finery and a wilderness of flowers that inspire admiration and wonder at the inventive genius of the designer and cause the hearts of the women to bubble over with rapture. A creature of the masculine gender who happens to "stray off" into this labyrinth of beautiful goods and lovely women feels that he has wandered into some sacred haunt of the muses and that he is "treading upon forbidden ground."

More pattern hats for the firm have just come in and are ready for inspection today (Friday).

The McKinney Memorial Association of the state of New York has raised $70,000.

There will be three new stars for the flag next year—New Mexico, Arizona and Oklahoma.

—Don't forego the pleasure of perfectly flavored desserts by using cheap extracts, get Blue Ribbon lemon and vanilla. They flavor perfectly.

—Blue Ribbon lemon and vanilla extracts are sold by all the best grocers. Two sizes, 10 and 25 cents.

—Blue Ribbon lemon and vanilla extracts flavor perfectly and go further than any other kind.

The Chiquito Club.

The Chiquito Club, composed of Col. J. J. Dargan and his accomplished daughters, gave an entertainment in the auditorium at Limestone College Wednesday night to a good audience. The whole programme was well rendered. The songs and recitations were along the lines of Col. Dargan's lecture, which was on the careless and indifferent manner in which we treated South Carolina and general Southern history. He showed how our negligence had allowed other people to write what they called our history, always superficial and generally inaccurate and which often presents us in an unenviable position when the facts if permitted, would show us to the world in the grand historical position that the works of our men and women entitle us to.

Col. Dargan is a polished gentleman, a good speaker, possessed of a wonderful store of information which he lucidly imparts to his audiences, and we trust he will infuse his love of country and her history into our people, and that his labors may result in a true history of our State and the South generally, in such a form that it will be acceptable to the masses.

A Big Day at Goucher.

The fifth Sunday in this month will be a big day at Goucher church. Quite a large number of distinguished preachers are expected and a large crowd generally. There will be two services, morning and afternoon, with dinner on the grounds. The good people of Goucher earnestly desire the public to be present. The new church is nearing completion.

—No better flavoring extracts can be made than Blue Ribbon lemon and vanilla.

PERFUMES.

It has always been our endeavor to cater to the users of Good Perfume. There is no branch of our business that we take more pride in and which we take more care in buying than that of Perfumery. After years of experience we have found no line of Perfumes quite equal to those of Adolph Spielher's and G. W. Co's.

They are pleasing, lasting and true to the flower.

We carry a complete line of these goods and buy them Fresh from The Laboratory. We also have the special odors of a number of other reliable manufacturers of perfumes.

When you wish the best perfumes the market affords, at reasonable prices, come to us.
