

THE LEDGER.

PUBLISHED TUESDAY AND FRIDAY.

ED. H. DeCAMP.

THE LEDGER is not responsible for the views of correspondents.

Correspondents who do not contribute regular news letters must furnish their name, not for publication, but for identification.

Write short letters and to the point to insure publication; also endeavor to get them to the office by Monday and Thursday mornings.

Obituaries will be published at five cents a line.

Cards of thanks will be published at one cent a word.

Reading notices will be published at ten cents a line each insertion.

All correspondence should be addressed to Ed. H. DeCamp, Manager.

SOME DON'TS.

Don't make it a habit to borrow your neighbor's paper. The paper is too cheap to do that.

Don't make it a habit to lend your paper. You might want it some time when it's away from home.

Don't ask us to credit you. We don't want to hurt your feelings by refusing.

Don't be a clam, but take your county paper like a good, industrious citizen and keep posted on the happenings of your section.

SUCCESSFUL FARMING.

The farmers of no county in the State know their business better or know better how to take care of themselves generally, than do the farmers of Cherokee county and newspaper suggestions here, as in other counties, and often properly, fall flat before them. We, however, think that a few from us will not be considered impertinent for we will not suggest a mode of planting or culture. We know they all know how to do that much better than we do. But there are a few things about farming that we do know. We know the farmers who have made provision crops their principal crop, and who have made their own supplies of corn, wheat, oats, long forage and meat at home, and then made as much cotton as they could are the farmers who are ahead of the game in farming. We know they are the farmers who pay cash for their purchases, who own cotton mill and bank stock and who have money to loan less prudent brothers.

With the above facts before us, will it not be well this year for all of our farmers to adopt the provision idea of farming which has been worked so successfully by others and quit buying food stuff, the products of other farms, which are no better suited to their production than are their own.

Cherokee lands make average crops of all the cereals, grasses and root crops and our fine climate and fertile soil combine to make our county an ideal one for stock raising. With these local advantages and the plans and prudent methods of our provision makers adopted, Cherokee will bloom like a rose, and peace, plenty and happiness will dwell in all our homes, and fat lambs and cattle will roam our hills. Besides, our children will have the social and intellectual advantages incident to happy and unstinted homes.

A community prospers in things material in proportion to the workers that abide in it. People who do nothing are worth nothing to themselves, their family or their community. It were better to not exist than to be a drone. So get busy, and then you will be worth something.

Gaffney extends a warm welcome to the State B. Y. P. U. convention. The young people are a thrice welcome and we trust when they return to their homes in different sections of the State that they will take with them nothing but pleasant recollections of the few days they spend in our midst.

Crumpacker's resolution in Congress to investigate the election laws of some Southern States with a view to reducing their representation in Congress may serve him and his party some ulterior end. But it will hardly be passed by Congress. If, however, it is passed it would be well for him and his kith to take notice at once, that white men are in the saddle in the Southern States now, and that they intend to stay there, and have their rights at home and in Washington.

WOMEN AND SOCIETY.

[All communications to this column should be addressed to P. O. Box 153.]

The first thing to be thought of in making your spring and summer outfit, is to have your garments cling to the figure. You must look as slim as possible about the hips and as far down as the knees, where your skirt may begin to flare. Skirts must lay on the ground one inch in front, three on the sides and six on the back. The only exceptions to this rule are the business and acting skirts, which must be short all around. Shoulders must be broad and drooping.

Paris says that all, or at least many, of the spring and summer gowns will be made with sashes instead of belts, and accordingly ribbons are shown in sash width.

Thort sleeves are bringing in a revival of mitts.

Mrs. Francis Montgomery has gone to Columbia to spend a few days.

Mrs. J. D. Holler, of Rock Hill, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Poag, in this city.

Mrs. Gayden, of Blacksburg, was in the city this week.

Miss Helen Brohaun, of Baltimore, arrived in the city this week and is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. F. Garrett.

Mrs. Maxwell, of Blacksburg, was in town Wednesday shopping.

Mrs. Caldwell, of Blacksburg, was in Gaffney Monday shopping.

Miss Idel Brown, of Spartanburg, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. C. Carpenter, on Limestone street.

Mrs. E. K. Belue, of Blacksburg, is visiting friends in the city.

He Loves The Ledger.

(Correspondence of The Ledger.)

EZELL, April 2.—Dear Ledger: I thought I would drop you a line as I love you so much. Wife says she believes I read every word in The Ledger, advertisements and all. Well, I don't care if I do, it is good reading to me.

What in the world is the matter with our Buffalo "Bachelor"? He talks like he is coming out against some of our candidates with full-fledged horns on him. Why, our free schools have been progressing nicely since Prof. McArthur has been superintending them. We did not know him personally before he was elected superintendent of education, but he certainly has made us a fine officer for the last four years, and I think some of these high kickers had better look for the mare in their own eyes. The good Book says do good for evil.

Let all the candidates come out for office who want to, especially the old veterans who faced the bullets for us.

THE FIFTH REGIMENT.

Roll of Company Formed at "Gaffney's Old Field" to Fight for Their Country.

GAFFNEY, S. C., March 25, 1902.

Mr. Ed. H. DeCamp:

SIR:—I notice in your paper you have given space to the names of some of the companies who volunteered and served in the Confederate service from within the bounds of Cherokee county. It has put me to ruminating and scratching my head to communicate, and I have thought it might interest some of the living veterans and the children and grandchildren of those who lost their lives in the Confederate service, to know something about Co. I, 5th Regt. S. C. V.

This company was organized at Gaffney's old field on 7th day of July, 1861, and was presented with a fine silken banner with the Palmetto tree and other suitable emblems upon it. On receiving the flag, each member pledged his sacred honor to defend it and to defend the fair donors, which pledge was carried out to the letter. Said banner, after we went into service in Virginia, was adopted as the regimental flag and was carried till the regiment could see the spires of the buildings in Washington city, and was used as a battle flag until the stars were adopted as our guidon, and it was unfurled in sight of the enemy and was never trailed in the dust of humiliation or dishonor. Though we lost our cause, we have never been convinced that we were fighting for an unjust cause. The following is a list of the company at first and those who joined later:

COMPANY I, 5th REGIMENT S. C. V.

W. P. Camp, captain.
J. P. Petty, 1st lieutenant.

Jonesville Jottings.

(Correspondence of The Ledger.)

JONESVILLE, March 29.—Our people are all attired for court next week. It seems that the Floyd and Vaughn case will take all the people out of this neighborhood for witnesses and jury.

Farmers are getting along all right. Wheat is looking well, also fall oats. Jonesville is working in earnest for a graded school.

Farmers should take advantage of this fine season to plant early corn. Fertilize it well to bring it in early. S. P. Thackston was in Jonesville today.

J. P. Elson spent a few hours in town today.

Paul Kennett is spending a week's vacation at home from the Union graded school.

Only Child Taken.

Miss Annie Turner, the only child of Mr. Sam B. Turner, died at the home of her father in this city Wednesday night at 11 o'clock in the fifteenth year of her age. She had been sick several months and was carried to her father's farm in North Carolina, hoping that she would improve; but she failed to do so and was brought to her home in the city a short time ago and continued to grow worse until the end came and relieved her of suffering.

Annie was a most exemplary child and was the idol of her home, but the fell destroyer came and claimed her as a victim. This was a severe blow to Mr. and Mrs. Turner who, we trust, will be comforted.

The remains were carried to Patterson Springs, N. C., yesterday and buried in the family lot, beside loved ones who have gone before her.

KICK A DOG

Kick a dog and he bites you. He bites you and you kick him.

The more you kick the more he bites and the more he bites the more you kick. Each makes the other worse.

A thin body makes thin blood. Thin blood makes a thin body. Each makes the other worse. If there is going to be a change the help must come from outside.

Scott's Emulsion is the right help. It breaks up such a combination. First it sets the stomach right. Then it enriches the blood. That strengthens the body and it begins to grow new flesh.

A strong body makes rich blood and rich blood makes a strong body. Each makes the other better. This is the way Scott's Emulsion puts the thin body on its feet. Now it can get along by itself. No need of medicine. This picture represents the Trade Mark of Scott's Emulsion and is on the wrapper of every bottle. Send for free sample. SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl St., New York. 50c. and $1. all druggists.

We believe thoroughly in advertising. To prove it we are going to use this space for our own purposes. We have advertising space to sell, and we know it will pay a good return upon the price we charge for it if it is properly used. Our paper goes into the best homes in this community. It has been going week after week and year after year until each issue is welcomed as an old friend of the family.

The news it brings is news of neighbors, of personal affairs in which all have more or less of a common interest. If one of our readers called upon you, a merchant, you would do the best you could to convince him that what you had for sale was the best he could buy. You would show him the new things you had got in recently. You would tell him why he should have them and why they were better than he could procure elsewhere. You probably would make a sale.

Your effort, however, would be confined to one person.

You could tell the same story just as effectively to every reader of this paper in each issue.

You do not believe it would have the same effect?

If you told the story in the same way it would. We are ready to do our part to prove it. Do you care to try it?
