

Mrs. Elizabeth H. Thompson, of Lillydale, N. Y., Grand Worthy Wise Templar, and Member of W. C. T. U., tells how she recovered from a serious illness by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I am one of the many of your grateful friends who have been cured through the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and who can today thank you for the fine health I enjoy. When I was thirty-five years old, I suffered severe backache and frequent bearing-down pains; in fact, I had womb trouble. I was very anxious to get well, and reading of the cures your Compound had made, I decided to try it. I took only six bottles, but it built me up and cured me entirely of all my troubles. "My family and relatives were naturally as gratified as I was. My niece had heart trouble and nervous prostration, and was considered incurable. She took your Vegetable Compound and it cured her in a short time, and she became well and strong, and her home to her great joy and her husband's delight was blessed with a baby. I know of a number of others who have been cured of different kinds of female trouble, and am satisfied that your Compound is the best medicine for sick women."—MRS. ELIZABETH H. THOMPSON, Box 105, Lillydale, N. Y.

Thousands upon thousands of women throughout this country are not only expressing such sentiments as the above to their friends, but are continually writing letters of gratitude to Mrs. Pinkham, until she has hundreds of thousands of letters from women in all classes of society who have been restored to health by her advice and medicine after all other means had failed.

Here is another letter which proves conclusively that there is no other medicine to equal Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I suffered with poor health for over seven years, not sick enough to stay in bed, and not well enough to enjoy life and attend to my daily duties properly. I was growing thin, my complexion was sallow, and I was easily upset and irritable. "One of my neighbors advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I procured a bottle. A great change for the better took place within a week, and I decided to keep up the treatment. "Within two months I was like a changed woman, my health good, my step light, my eyes bright, my complexion vastly improved, and I felt once more like a young girl. I wonder now how I ever endured the misery. I would not spend another year like it for a fortune. "I appreciate my good health, and give you credit for it."—MRS. SAVANNAH, GA.

WOMEN AND SOCIETY.

(All Communications to this column should be addressed to P. O. Box 304.)

There has been a determined effort on the part of women to whom pure white is not particularly becoming to find something that is white and yet not white.

To please these fanciful fair ones manufacturers have sent from abroad some of the daintiest of stuffs in oyster white and ivory and cream and other shades of white, which few save young girls can wear successfully.

Even the brides have caught the fancy for off shades of white, and in one of the smartest spring weddings in New York the bride's dress will be a pearly white chiffon, in whose mesh appear to float pale sweet peas in all the tints known to these flowers of spring. The sweet peas are made as nearly like those of nature as art can manage it. The petals of chiffon are natural in size as well as color, and the embroidery is done in chiffon and fine chenille. Whole wedding dresses are being made of narrow folds of chiffon in scroll and flower patterns held together with loose lace and feather and picot stitches. The cobweb effect is produced in some cases in real imitation of the web of a spider in shimmering threads of glossy silk.

Mrs. R. S. Lipscomb and Sadie have gone on a visit to relatives in Shelby.

Mrs. Fletcher Smith has returned from Asbury where she attended the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. T. D. Littlejohn.

Mrs. Frank Laney and children have returned to their home in Munroe.

Mrs. Martin Bryan, of Yorkville, is the guest of Capt. and Mrs. Bell.

Miss Mattie Knox, of Blacksburg, spent Tuesday in the city with relatives.

Mrs. W. B. Lipscomb has returned from a month's stay in Charleston.

Three Useful Citizens Called from Their Earthly Labors.

Mrs. Rachel Littlejohn, wife of Mr. T. D. Littlejohn, and one of Cherokee's most highly respected and best loved old women, died at her home near Grindal on the 15th inst. Mrs. Littlejohn was in her 69th year. Interment took place at the Littlejohn graveyard on the 17th in the presence of a large gathering of her bereaved relatives and friends. The funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. J. B. Wilson.

Mrs. Littlejohn was a consistent member of the Methodist church and throughout her long life displayed an example of her comforting faith. She leaves her devoted husband and several children, among whom are Mr. Sumter Littlejohn, Mr. James S. Littlejohn and Mrs. R. A. Jones, of this city, who have the sympathy of their large circle of friends in their bereavement.

Mr. Junius H. Gaffney, a prominent man of Blacksburg, died at his home in that city Wednesday in his 58th year, after an illness of only a few hours. Mr. Gaffney was the third son of the late Wm. G. Gaffney and a brother-in-law of Mr. I. W. Moore, who married his sister, a notice of whose death appears in this issue of The Ledger.

Mr. Gaffney was a member of the large family of Gaffneys that has been prominent in this section for the past century. He was a quiet, orderly and industrious man and as evidence of his industry and worth he has been regularly employed for the last seventeen years as section master of the Blacksburg section of the Southern Railroad.

He leaves his aged mother, his devoted wife, five children and several brothers and sisters who mourn, because he is not. Peace to his ashes and sympathy for the bereaved.

The remains will be buried at Blacksburg today at the same time that those of his brother-in-law, Mr. I. W. Moore, are buried.

The many friends in Cherokee of Mr. Isaac W. Moore are pained to learn of his death which occurred at his home in Lancaster on the morning of the 17th inst., as announced by a telegram received in Gaffney Wednesday afternoon. His remains will be buried at Blacksburg today.

Mr. Moore was of a prominent family of the York portion of this county and was about sixty years old. Since his early manhood he was, most of his time, engaged in railroad work and has held important positions on several Southern railroads.

Mr. Moore married a Miss Gaffney near Gaffney's ferry in this county, who, with a son, survives him.

Mr. Moore was a man of more than ordinary sense. Was a warm friend, and genial and affable with his fellows. May he rest in peace.

Capt. Hayden L. Coe died at his home in Asheville, N. C., Wednesday after a long illness, and will be buried today at Blacksburg, which was once his home.

Capt. Coe was once supervisor of the Atlanta and Charlotte division of the Southern Railway and was a most efficient officer. He had many friends in Gaffney and this section of the State who unite in sympathy for the family.

Another Case of Rheumatism Cured by Chamberlain's Pain Balm.

The efficacy of Chamberlain's Pain Balm in the relief of rheumatism is being demonstrated daily. ## HAPPY AND HEALTHY.

A Beautiful Canadian Girl Saved From Catarrh of the Lungs by Pe-ru-na.

MISS FLORENCE KENAH.

Miss Florence E. Kenah, 434 Maria street, Ottawa, Ont., writes:

"A few months ago I caught a severe cold, which settled on my lungs and remained there so persistently that I became alarmed. I took medicine without benefit, until my digestive organs became upset, and my head and back began to ache severely and frequently. "I was advised to try Peruna, and although I had little faith I felt so sick that I was ready to try anything. It brought me blessed relief at once, and I felt that I had the right medicine at last. Within three weeks I was completely restored and have enjoyed perfect health since."

"I now have the greatest faith in Peruna." F. E. KENAH.

WOMEN should beware of contracting catarrh. The cold wind and rain, slush and mud of winter are especially conducive to catarrhal derangements. Few women escape.

Upon the first symptoms of catching cold Peruna should be taken. It fortifies the system against colds and catarrh.

The following letter gives one young woman's experience with Peruna:

Miss Rose Gerbing is a popular society woman of Crown Point, Ind., and she writes the following:

"Recently I took a long drive in the country, and being too thinly clad I caught a bad cold which settled on my lungs, and which I could not seem to shake off. I had heard a great deal of Peruna for colds and catarrh and I bought a bottle to try. I am pleased that I did, for it brought speedy relief. It only took about two bottles, and I considered this money well spent."

"You have a firm friend in me, and I not only advise its use to my friends, but have purchased several bottles to give to those without the means to buy, and have noticed without exception that it has brought about a speedy cure wherever it has been used."—Miss Rose Gerbing.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.
