

"I Consider Pe-ru-na
The Finest Remedy
On The Market
And Worthy Of The Confidence
Of All
Good
People."

Mrs. Celeste
Covell.

Recommending Pe-ru-na to Her Friends.

Mrs. Celeste Covell, formerly President of the Betsy Ross Educational and Benevolent Society, writes from 182 Harrison street, Chicago, Ill.:

"Only those who have suffered with indigestion and have been cured can appreciate how grateful I feel that such a splendid medicine as Pe-ru-na has been placed at the door of every man and woman. I only wish that all knew of its fine qualities."

"In cases of catarrh of the stomach and head I have seen some remarkable cures through its use. I consider your Pe-ru-na the finest remedy on the market and worthy of the confidence of all good people."

Recommends Pe-ru-na.

Mrs. Alice J. Borden, 1311 Maple Ave., Harrisburg, Pa., writes:

"I have found a cure in Pe-ru-na. I cannot recommend Pe-ru-na enough. I also thank you for your kind attention to me. I am as well as could be ever since I began taking Pe-ru-na."

A Letter to the Public.

Mr. Tefft Johnson, 1929 85th street, Bath Beach, Brooklyn, N. Y., writes:

"In all my experiments with medicines in the effort to improve a condition impaired by overwork, I have found nothing that has done so much good as Pe-ru-na. As a tonic it is grand."

"I take pleasure in recommending it to professional people and to the public in general."

Praise For Pe-ru-na.

Miss Ella L. Matthews, box 111, Hill City, Tenn., writes:

"From experience I have decided that there could be no greater medicine in the world than Pe-ru-na. I am ready to praise Pe-ru-na to my friends."

MODERN GEOGRAPHY

In Which the Answers Are Shaped to Accommodate Present Ideas.

Of what is the surface of the earth composed?

Of corned lots, mighty poor roads, railroad tracks, base ball grounds, cricket fields and skating rinks.

What portion of the globe is water?

About three-fourths. Some times they add a little gin and nutmeg to it.

What is a town?

A town is a considerable collection of houses and inhabitants, with four or five men who "run the party" and lend money on 15 per cent. interest.

What is a city?

A city is an incorporated town, with a mayor, who believes the whole world shakes when he happens to fall flat on a cross walk.

What is commerce?

Borrowing $5 for a day or two, and adding the lender for a year or two. Name the different races.

Horse race, boat race, bicycle race and racing around to find a man to endorse your note.

Into how many classes is mankind divided?

Six—being enlightened, civilized, half civilized, savage, too utter, not worth a cent and Indian agents.

What nations are called enlightened?

Those which have the most wars and the worst laws, and produce the most criminals.

How many nations has the earth?

That's according to how you mix your drinks and which way you go home.

What is the earth's axis?

The lines passing between New York and San Francisco.

What causes day and night?

Day is caused by night getting tired out.

Night is caused by everybody taking the street cars and going home to supper.

What is a map?

A map is a drawing to show the jury where Smith stood when Jones gave him one under the eye.

What is a mariner's compass?

A jug holding four gallons.

Cherokee Falls.

Letter to J. J. Scruggs, Gaffney, S. C.

Dear Sir: Take a two-story house and reckon the costs with different paints; you will be surprised. Say the house has a total of 3210 square feet.

Divide by 300; you buy 11 gallons. That's the rule; but it never comes out so.

Buy any other paint than Devco, you will have to buy more, up to possibly 22 gallons. Paint Devco, and you'll have a gallon or two to return. Here are some experiences.

N. R. Watkins, Lott, Texas, used 13 gallons on his house before; bought 13 gallons Devco for same house and had 6 left.

O. B. Edwards, of Edwards & Brough, printers, Raleigh, N. C. used 30 gallons paste paint on his house; bought 30 gallons Devco for same house and had 16 left. Go by the gallons.

Yours truly

F. W. DEVCO & CO

P. S. Wilkins-Watson Hardware Company sell our paint.

—Pearl or Cat Tail and German Millet, at the Seed Store—Gaffney Drug Co.

—One 50c bottle Nature's Cough Remedy will put an end to that cough—no cure, no pay. Gaffney Drug Co.

CHRISTENSEN DENIES REPORT.

Says Use of His Name by The Record is Preposterous.

Columbia, Feb. 23.—Several days ago the Columbia Record, which is the chief mourner at the funeral of the State dispensary, published a local article and also an editorial, intimating that Governor Ansel would appoint and should appoint a dispensary auditor, under the Carey-Cothran Act. Senator Niels Christensen, Jr. of Beaufort, who was one of the hardest workers for the Carey-Cothran bill and one of the most determined opponents of the State dispensary system, one who has done as much as any one else to bring about its downfall.

The friends of Senator Christensen were very much surprised by these articles, and none more so than Governor Ansel. The first suggestion of Mr. Christensen in this connection, which had been made to the Governor, was the query of the Record that the articles were published. This correspondent wired Senator Christensen for his reply to the articles and the following has been received:

Senator Christensen's Letter.

Beaufort, S. C., Feb. 23, 1907.

The use of my name by the Record in connection with the dispensary auditorship is unauthorized, unwarranted and preposterous. I have not had training as an auditor.

It has been permitted to me by an overruling Providence to be one of the instruments in the overturning of the former State dispensary, for which I am deeply grateful, but the satisfaction in the task springs largely from the fact that it was undertaken and finished at a personal sacrifice and without hope of reward.

For two years I have given most of my time and energy to the investigation of the former State dispensary. The compensation allowed was $4 per day and five cents per mileage, all of which barely covered travelling and living expenses. Moreover, the appropriations made by the Legislature to carry on these investigations were so inadequate that they would have failed, in very large measures, if I had not guaranteed, over the signature of the firm of which I am a member, to be responsible for the payment of bills aggregating several thousands of dollars.

I cannot bring myself now to accept any office that might be constructed to be a reward. If I were peculiarly fitted for this work and the situation seemed to demand my services, as another situation plainly demanded the services of my co-worker, I would accept despite the fact that it is distasteful. There are many skilled auditors in this State, and not one.

Worked Unselfishly.

Mr. Christensen is a member of the firm of Niels Christensen & Sons, of Beaufort, who are among the largest concerns in that portion of the State, and Mr. Christensen neglected his personal business to spend a large portion of his time on the work of the investigating committee. Not only that, but he obligated himself and his firm for the payment of the bills of the Pinkerton detective agency for service rendered to the committee and a sworn statement to this effect appears in the report to the Legislature. Mr. Christensen has good nerve, as was shown in his work on that committee, and his friends remarked on it again when he was told one night a few weeks ago that his firm had lost about $30,000 in the big fire at Beaufort, and he never changed countenance; he kept at his work in the Senate and did not go home until the Legislature had adjourned, after killing the dispensary. He is not a job hunter and does not need to be.

Guaranteed Detective's Fees.

In the report of the investigating committee to the Legislature the following affidavit is published:

State of Ohio.

County of Hamilton.

B. L. Crowe, being duly sworn, states that he is the superintendent in charge of the office of Pinkerton's National Detective Agency in Cincinnati, Ohio, through which office the said agency rendered services to the State of Carolina by direction and authority of Niels Christensen, Jr. of Beaufort, S. C., in the matter of investigation of the State dispensary board.

That the said Niels Christensen, Jr. gave a written guarantee, binding himself and the firm of Niels Christensen & Sons, of Beaufort, S. C., as surety for the payment of our bills for services to the State of South Carolina.

That bills for said services were rendered from time to time, as shown by statement hereto attached, marked Exhibit A, and that said bills have been paid in full, as shown on said Exhibit A, and on statement hereto attached, marked Exhibit B.

That the item on Exhibit A, under date of December 13, "By cash on account—credited on bill No. 2,146—$100; and the item on Exhibit B, under date of October 13, "By cash on account, $227.23," were paid, as affiant is informed and believes, by said Niels Christensen, Jr., out of his personal funds; that all other payments or credits mentioned in said Exhibit B were paid, as affiant is informed and believes, out of funds provided for that purpose by the State of South Carolina.

B. L. Crowe.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 14th day of December, 1906.

Frank H. Freericks, Notary Public, Hamilton County, O.

RAVENNA READING.

Local Items and Personals of General Interest.

Ravenna, Feb. 26.—Mr. Lyman Love of the Love Springs section, spent a few hours here last Monday. He gave your correspondent a call which we appreciated very much. He was accompanied by one of his friends.

Mr. L. D. Bonner was a Gaffney visitor last Wednesday.

Mr. "Quit" Wilkins, of Goucher, is not any better, but from reports, we learn he is suffering with rheumatism.

Miss Mary Handcock, of Gaffney, was the guest of Misses Eva and Pearl Burress last week.

Mr. M. W. Brown went down to Asbury last Wednesday morning to attend the marriage of Miss Lena Lipscomb and Mr. Johnson.

Mr. G. E. Brown, of Jonesville, was here last Monday evening buying hogs for his meat market.

Mrs. Lillian Payne and children, of Paolet, spent a few days here last week with their grandmother, Mrs. C. E. Kitchens.

Misses Edna and Minnie Brown and Rennie Wadson, of Gaffney, have returned after spending a few days here with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Brown and family.

Mr. J. B. Pettit and sister, Mrs. Clara, of Gaffney, have been visiting their sister, Miss Vennie Pettit, who has a serious attack of pneumonia. We all hope for her a most speedy recovery. Her condition this morning is unchanged.

Mr. Charles Pettit, a student of Furman University, Greenville, is spending a few days by the bedside of his sister Miss Vennie Pettit.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Bonner and Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Hammett, all of Paolet, visited Miss Vennie Pettit last week.

Miss Fannie Smith, of Goucher, spent last Tuesday night with Miss Mary Lou Chalk.

Little Charles Hickson Goforth, the infant of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. L. Goforth, has been quite ill for several days but is better now.

Part of the railroad squad that had been camping near Gowdeville for some time past, passed here Sunday for Davidson, N. C., from which point they got to Virginia. They say the death of Mr. McGhee was the saddest thing that had ever taken place in their camp.

This is the way Miss Mary Chalk lost 10c: Two of her tiniest scholars, Pearl Goforth and Virgie Bonner who are very timid told her if she would give them 5 cents apiece, they would get up and sing "Yes Jesus Loves Me," and to her amazement, she lost her ten cents, after telling them if they would sing it she would pay each five cents apiece. Miss Addie Brown, the principal of the school, requested us to use the above joke in our letter this week.

Mr. L. D. Goforth, of Jonesville, has resigned his position with Brown and Southard and returned here, where he will "fill the soil."

Mr. Tom Wilkins, of Paolet, spent last Sabbath here, with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Wilkins.

Mr. "Whip" J. Brown, of Goucher, made a business trip to White Stone last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ostern left last Thursday for Newman, Ga., where they will make their future home.

Mr. H. D. Mathis, who operates the saw mill here, did some good sawing last Monday and Tuesday, cleaning up the yard.

Dr. H. B. Tate, our excellent physician, is rushed with his work, as our section has so much sickness just now.

Miss Mammie Mathis has just recovered from a spell of grip.

Mr. H. C. Goforth was a Gaffney visitor yesterday.

Mr. M. H. Brown, our hustling merchant, spent a few hours in Gaffney last Friday.

Friday, last being Washington's birthday, our R. F. D. carriers had a holiday. We do not believe it is right

For Emergencies at Home
For the Stock on the Farm

Sloan's Liniment

Is a whole medicine chest

Price 25c 50c & $1.00

Send for Free Booklet on Horses, Cattle, Hogs & Poultry.

Address Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Subscribe for The Ledger, $1.00 a year for Uncle Sam's riders to have this day for a holiday, for Washington's birthday is no more than any other man's birthday.

Some of our letter was cut out last week, so, for fear of making this one too long, we will cut this one short ourselves.

"Don't Overlook the South."

Under the above heading the American Advertiser, of New York, says "the development of the South in the past few years has been marvellous. Its farming interests are in better shape than since the war, and in manufacturing the strides have been tremendous. The fact that there are more than 300 cotton mills alone within 100 miles of Charlotte, N. C., will give some idea of the progress made. With the water power already developed, and contemplated, in that section it is hard to prophesy the progress that will be made in the next ten years. There is no need of waiting for the South to progress. It now offers a remarkable field for advertisers. The amount of Northern capital already in all parts of the South and more of it still going into various forms of investments is evidence of what the shrewdest financiers of the country think of the possibilities of that section. Good crops, increased industries, diversified products, go to make the South a great commercial region and, no advertiser should 'pass' up on it lightly."

Under the above heading the American Advertiser, of New York, says "the development of the South in the past few years has been marvellous. Its farming interests are in better shape than since the war, and in manufacturing the strides have been tremendous. The fact that there are more than 300 cotton mills alone within 100 miles of Charlotte, N. C., will give some idea of the progress made. With the water power already developed, and contemplated, in that section it is hard to prophesy the progress that will be made in the next ten years. There is no need of waiting for the South to progress. It now offers a remarkable field for advertisers. The amount of Northern capital already in all parts of the South and more of it still going into various forms of investments is evidence of what the shrewdest financiers of the country think of the possibilities of that section. Good crops, increased industries, diversified products, go to make the South a great commercial region and, no advertiser should 'pass' up on it lightly."

Under the above heading the American Advertiser, of New York, says "the development of the South in the past few years has been marvellous. Its farming interests are in better shape than since the war, and in manufacturing the strides have been tremendous. The fact that there are more than 300 cotton mills alone within 100 miles of Charlotte, N. C., will give some idea of the progress made. With the water power already developed, and contemplated, in that section it is hard to prophesy the progress that will be made in the next ten years. There is no need of waiting for the South to progress. It now offers a remarkable field for advertisers. The amount of Northern capital already in all parts of the South and more of it still going into various forms of investments is evidence of what the shrewdest financiers of the country think of the possibilities of that section. Good crops, increased industries, diversified products, go to make the South a great commercial region and, no advertiser should 'pass' up on it lightly."

Under the above heading the American Advertiser, of New York, says "the development of the South in the past few years has been marvellous. Its farming interests are in better shape than since the war, and in manufacturing the strides have been tremendous. The fact that there are more than 300 cotton mills alone within 100 miles of Charlotte, N. C., will give some idea of the progress made. With the water power already developed, and contemplated, in that section it is hard to prophesy the progress that will be made in the next ten years. There is no need of waiting for the South to progress. It now offers a remarkable field for advertisers. The amount of Northern capital already in all parts of the South and more of it still going into various forms of investments is evidence of what the shrewdest financiers of the country think of the possibilities of that section. Good crops, increased industries, diversified products, go to make the South a great commercial region and, no advertiser should 'pass' up on it lightly."

Under the above heading the American Advertiser, of New York, says "the development of the South in the past few years has been marvellous. Its farming interests are in better shape than since the war, and in manufacturing the strides have been tremendous. The fact that there are more than 300 cotton mills alone within 100 miles of Charlotte, N. C., will give some idea of the progress made. With the water power already developed, and contemplated, in that section it is hard to prophesy the progress that will be made in the next ten years. There is no need of waiting for the South to progress. It now offers a remarkable field for advertisers. The amount of Northern capital already in all parts of the South and more of it still going into various forms of investments is evidence of what the shrewdest financiers of the country think of the possibilities of that section. Good crops, increased industries, diversified products, go to make the South a great commercial region and, no advertiser should 'pass' up on it lightly."

Under the above heading the American Advertiser, of New York, says "the development of the South in the past few years has been marvellous. Its farming interests are in better shape than since the war, and in manufacturing the strides have been tremendous. The fact that there are more than 300 cotton mills alone within 100 miles of Charlotte, N. C., will give some idea of the progress made. With the water power already developed, and contemplated, in that section it is hard to prophesy the progress that will be made in the next ten years. There is no need of waiting for the South to progress. It now offers a remarkable field for advertisers. The amount of Northern capital already in all parts of the South and more of it still going into various forms of investments is evidence of what the shrewdest financiers of the country think of the possibilities of that section. Good crops, increased industries, diversified products, go to make the South a great commercial region and, no advertiser should 'pass' up on it lightly."

Under the above heading the American Advertiser, of New York, says "the development of the South in the past few years has been marvellous. Its farming interests are in better shape than since the war, and in manufacturing the strides have been tremendous. The fact that there are more than 300 cotton mills alone within 100 miles of Charlotte, N. C., will give some idea of the progress made. With the water power already developed, and contemplated, in that section it is hard to prophesy the progress that will be made in the next ten years. There is no need of waiting for the South to progress. It now offers a remarkable field for advertisers. The amount of Northern capital already in all parts of the South and more of it still going into various forms of investments is evidence of what the shrewdest financiers of the country think of the possibilities of that section. Good crops, increased industries, diversified products, go to make the South a great commercial region and, no advertiser should 'pass' up on it lightly."

Under the above heading the American Advertiser, of New York, says "the development of the South in the past few years has been marvellous. Its farming interests are in better shape than since the war, and in manufacturing the strides have been tremendous. The fact that there are more than 300 cotton mills alone within 100 miles of Charlotte, N. C., will give some idea of the progress made. With the water power already developed, and contemplated, in that section it is hard to prophesy the progress that will be made in the next ten years. There is no need of waiting for the South to progress. It now offers a remarkable field for advertisers. The amount of Northern capital already in all parts of the South and more of it still going into various forms of investments is evidence of what the shrewdest financiers of the country think of the possibilities of that section. Good crops, increased industries, diversified products, go to make the South a great commercial region and, no advertiser should 'pass' up on it lightly."

Under the above heading the American Advertiser, of New York, says "the development of the South in the past few years has been marvellous. Its farming interests are in better shape than since the war, and in manufacturing the strides have been tremendous. The fact that there are more than 300 cotton mills alone within 100 miles of Charlotte, N. C., will give some idea of the progress made. With the water power already developed, and contemplated, in that section it is hard to prophesy the progress that will be made in the next ten years. There is no need of waiting for the South to progress. It now offers a remarkable field for advertisers. The amount of Northern capital already in all parts of the South and more of it still going into various forms of investments is evidence of what the shrewdest financiers of the country think of the possibilities of that section. Good crops, increased industries, diversified products, go to make the South a great commercial region and, no advertiser should 'pass' up on it lightly."

Under the above heading the American Advertiser, of New York, says "the development of the South in the past few years has been marvellous. Its farming interests are in better shape than since the war, and in manufacturing the strides have been tremendous. The fact that there are more than 300 cotton mills alone within 100 miles of Charlotte, N. C., will give some idea of the progress made. With the water power already developed, and contemplated, in that section it is hard to prophesy the progress that will be made in the next ten years. There is no need of waiting for the South to progress. It now offers a remarkable field for advertisers. The amount of Northern capital already in all parts of the South and more of it still going into various forms of investments is evidence of what the shrewdest financiers of the country think of the possibilities of that section. Good crops, increased industries, diversified products, go to make the South a great commercial region and, no advertiser should 'pass' up on it lightly."

Under the above heading the American Advertiser, of New York, says "the development of the South in the past few years has been marvellous. Its farming interests are in better shape than since the war, and in manufacturing the strides have been tremendous. The fact that there are more than 300 cotton mills alone within 100 miles of Charlotte, N. C., will give some idea of the progress made. With the water power already developed, and contemplated, in that section it is hard to prophesy the progress that will be made in the next ten years. There is no need of waiting for the South to progress. It now offers a remarkable field for advertisers. The amount of Northern capital already in all parts of the South and more of it still going into various forms of investments is evidence of what the shrewdest financiers of the country think of the possibilities of that section. Good crops, increased industries, diversified products, go to make the South a great commercial region and, no advertiser should 'pass' up on it lightly."

Under the above heading the American Advertiser, of New York, says "the development of the South in the past few years has been marvellous. Its farming interests are in better shape than since the war, and in manufacturing the strides have been tremendous. The fact that there are more than 300 cotton mills alone within 100 miles of Charlotte, N. C., will give some idea of the progress made. With the water power already developed, and contemplated, in that section it is hard to prophesy the progress that will be made in the next ten years. There is no need of waiting for the South to progress. It now offers a remarkable field for advertisers. The amount of Northern capital already in all parts of the South and more of it still going into various forms of investments is evidence of what the shrewdest financiers of the country think of the possibilities of that section. Good crops, increased industries, diversified products, go to make the South a great commercial region and, no advertiser should 'pass' up on it lightly."

Under the above heading the American Advertiser, of New York, says "the development of the South in the past few years has been marvellous. Its farming interests are in better shape than since the war, and in manufacturing the strides have been tremendous. The fact that there are more than 300 cotton mills alone within 100 miles of Charlotte, N. C., will give some idea of the progress made. With the water power already developed, and contemplated, in that section it is hard to prophesy the progress that will be made in the next ten years. There is no need of waiting for the South to progress. It now offers a remarkable field for advertisers. The amount of Northern capital already in all parts of the South and more of it still going into various forms of investments is evidence of what the shrewdest financiers of the country think of the possibilities of that section. Good crops, increased industries, diversified products, go to make the South a great commercial region and, no advertiser should 'pass' up on it lightly."

Under the above heading the American Advertiser, of New York, says "the development of the South in the past few years has been marvellous. Its farming interests are in better shape than since the war, and in manufacturing the strides have been tremendous. The fact that there are more than 300 cotton mills alone within 100 miles of Charlotte, N. C., will give some idea of the progress made. With the water power already developed, and contemplated, in that section it is hard to prophesy the progress that will be made in the next ten years. There is no need of waiting for the South to progress. It now offers a remarkable field for advertisers. The amount of Northern capital already in all parts of the South and more of it still going into various forms of investments is evidence of what the shrewdest financiers of the country think of the possibilities of that section. Good crops, increased industries, diversified products, go to make the South a great commercial region and, no advertiser should 'pass' up on it lightly."

Under the above heading the American Advertiser, of New York, says "the development of the South in the past few years has been marvellous. Its farming interests are in better shape than since the war, and in manufacturing the strides have been tremendous. The fact that there are more than 300 cotton mills alone within 100 miles of Charlotte, N. C., will give some idea of the progress made. With the water power already developed, and contemplated, in that section it is hard to prophesy the progress that will be made in the next ten years. There is no need of waiting for the South to progress. It now offers a remarkable field for advertisers. The amount of Northern capital already in all parts of the South and more of it still going into various forms of investments is evidence of what the shrewdest financiers of the country think of the possibilities of that section. Good crops, increased industries, diversified products, go to make the South a great commercial region and, no advertiser should 'pass' up on it lightly."

Under the above heading the American Advertiser, of New York, says "the development of the South in the past few years has been marvellous. Its farming interests are in better shape than since the war, and in manufacturing the strides have been tremendous. The fact that there are more than 300 cotton mills alone within 100 miles of Charlotte, N. C., will give some idea of the progress made. With the water power already developed, and contemplated, in that section it is hard to prophesy the progress that will be made in the next ten years. There is no need of waiting for the South to progress. It now offers a remarkable field for advertisers. The amount of Northern capital already in all parts of the South and more of it still going into various forms of investments is evidence of what the shrewdest financiers of the country think of the possibilities of that section. Good crops, increased industries, diversified products, go to make the South a great commercial region and, no advertiser should 'pass' up on it lightly."

Under the above heading the American Advertiser, of New York, says "the development of the South in the past few years has been marvellous. Its farming interests are in better shape than since the war, and in manufacturing the strides have been tremendous. The fact that there are more than 300 cotton mills alone within 100 miles of Charlotte, N. C., will give some idea of the progress made. With the water power already developed, and contemplated, in that section it is hard to prophesy the progress that will be made in the next ten years. There is no need of waiting for the South to progress. It now offers a remarkable field for advertisers. The amount of Northern capital already in all parts of the South and more of it still going into various forms of investments is evidence of what the shrewdest financiers of the country think of the possibilities of that section. Good crops, increased industries, diversified products, go to make the South a great commercial region and, no advertiser should 'pass' up on it lightly."

Under the above heading the American Advertiser, of New York, says "the development of the South in the past few years has been marvellous. Its farming interests are in better shape than since the war, and in manufacturing the strides have been tremendous. The fact that there are more than 300 cotton mills alone within 100 miles of Charlotte, N. C., will give some idea of the progress made. With the water power already developed, and contemplated, in that section it is hard to prophesy the progress that will be made in the next ten years. There is no need of waiting for the South to progress. It now offers a remarkable field for advertisers. The amount of Northern capital already in all parts of the South and more of it still going into various forms of investments is evidence of what the shrewdest financiers of the country think of the possibilities of that section. Good crops, increased industries, diversified products, go to make the South a great commercial region and, no advertiser should 'pass' up on it lightly."

Under the above heading the American Advertiser, of New York, says "the development of the South in the past few years has been marvellous. Its farming interests are in better shape than since the war, and in manufacturing the strides have been tremendous. The fact that there are more than 300 cotton mills alone within 100 miles of Charlotte, N. C., will give some idea of the progress made. With the water power already developed, and contemplated, in that section it is hard to prophesy the progress that will be made in the next ten years. There is no need of waiting for the South to progress. It now offers a remarkable field for advertisers. The amount of Northern capital already in all parts of the South and more of it still going into various forms of investments is evidence of what the shrewdest financiers of the country think of the possibilities of that section. Good crops, increased industries, diversified products, go to make the South a great commercial region and, no advertiser should 'pass' up on it lightly."

Under the above heading the American Advertiser, of New York, says "the development of the South in the past few years has been marvellous. Its farming interests are in better shape than since the war, and in manufacturing the strides have been tremendous. The fact that there are more than 300 cotton mills alone within 100 miles of Charlotte, N. C., will give some idea of the progress made. With the water power already developed, and contemplated, in that section it is hard to prophesy the progress that will be made in the next ten years. There is no need of waiting for the South to progress. It now offers a remarkable field for advertisers. The amount of Northern capital