WINNSBORO, S. C.

Saturday, March 17, 1877.

R. MANS DAVIDS, Editor,
JNO. S. REYNOLDS, Associate Editor.

Evon Wallace opposes Patterson's scheme of a new election.

Some one has discovered that J. Madison Wells, of Louisiana, is a poor-foot fraud. That's the sort of poor he is.

The Louisiana Congressmen do not all favor a new election in that State. Nobody whose opinion is worth anything favors such a thing for South Carolina.

Judge Reed is kind. He has decided to give Hampton an equal chance with Chamberlain. Sheriff Bowen has been ordered to receive prisoners committed by the trial justices appointed by either. This is pretty good for Reed.

We would like some astute lawyer among the Radicals to say by what constitutional authority the President of the United States, or any body else, has the right to order or even suggest a new election for the sovereign people of South Carolina.

Washington specials to New York say that it has been determined to withdraw the troops from the State House in Columbia and New Orleans as soon as the senate adjourns. The President has assurances from Conservatives in both States that peace will be maintained.

Postmaster General Key, in answering applications for office, says: "The new election scheme is abandoned by all parties this morning. The best opinion is that Chamberlain and Packard must yield to the pressure."

The police of Washington made a raid, recently, on one of the gambling saloons of that city. Among the prisoners who spent the night at the station house were a judge, a congressman and two ex congressmen of South Carolina. It is reported that Judge Carpenter, of the fifth circuit, was the representative of our judiciary on this festive occasion. Wright was bull-dozing elsewhere.

President Hayes has promised Congress Luttrell, of California, to call a special session of Congress between the first and fifteenth of May. Why Mr. Hayes should make this "promise" is not stated; but the report is deemed authentic nevertheless. Randall will re-elected Speaker, it is said, though the Radicals hope to capture a sufficient number of Democrats to elect Banks. Best Butler is also an aspirant.

Mr. Hayes has renominated Wm. Stone as District Attorney for South Carolina, in deference to his predecessor, ex-President Grant. This is a lame pretext. Stone is unfit, mentally and morally, for the position, and he should not receive the appointment even though a dozen "predecessors" had recommended him. He is largely responsible for the present condition of affairs, and his proper place now is in the county jail of Richland.

The National Intelligencer, the Washington organ, argues now that if the people of a State recognize any one as governor, even if he were not really elected, the general government has no right to interfere. It must recognize the de facto State government. This argument is advanced to controvert the position of Blaine that Hayes must stand or fall with Packard. The Intelligencer has put up a man of straw; for Packard was neither elected nor renominated.

New Hampshire held her State election on Tuesday. The Republicans elected their governor by about 3500 majority, and carried two of the three Congressional districts, Jones (Democrat) being re-elected in the first. This is a Republican gain of one Congressman over the present delegation, which was elected in the tidal wave year. The result was as expected. The Democrats will have six majority in the new House, Hon. H. P. Bell, Democrat, being chosen in Georgia to succeed Ben Hill

Honest John Patterson's Scheme.

Honest John Patterson has brought his subtle intellect to bear upon the Southern problem. The result is the evolution of a magnificent scheme of compromise based upon a new election. This proposition would be perfectly agreeable to Mr. Patterson and others of that kidney, who have nothing to lose and a bare possibility of gaining by such an expedient. But it is intolerable to any one having the least interest in either the political or the material welfare of the State.

No sound arguments can be advanced in support of this proposition. The objections are insuperable. To go no further, Governor Hampton was elected in November, and it would be an idle compliment to elect him again. The constitution moreover provides for State elections but once in two years, and the material interests of the State demand that they should not be held at shorter intervals. A political contest at this time, heated as it would be, would plunge the State into inextricable confusion and bankruptcy. Times are hard enough now, and the wolf can be kept from our doors only by unremitting attention to private business.

Mr. Patterson's scheme will not work. It is so absurd as to require no serious thought. The only redeeming feature about it is the indubitable evidence it furnishes that the carpet-bagger's day in South Carolina is gone, and that Chamberlain and Patterson, like drowning men, are clutching desperately at straws.

THE MISTAKEN BOY.—Little Sandy, the boot black, was skipping down Griswold street yesterday when a policeman asked him if anything was up.

"Guess Jim Blaine is up there in the insurance office," replied Sandy.

"Jim Blaine? Why, he isn't in town."

"Well, it's a fellow who is throwing his arms around, hepping up and down, and yelling out: 'I won't be quiet! I can't be put down! I hanker for blood! You le—you lie!' You'd better go up there, for they are fixing to put a head on him, whether he's Jim Blaine or not.—Detroit Free Press.

A hunter in Cumberland, Md., tells the following as a true story: "He was in a tree waiting for a deer to pass; raised his gun to fire at one, but just then he saw a panther above him in the tree. He dropped from the tree, falling on the deer, breaking its back. He then saw a bear near by, and was about to fire at him, when the panther sprang upon the bear and mortally wounded it. Just then he fired at the panther, killing it, and thus secured the panther, deer and bear."

Danbury News: "Put a peck of Jersey mosquitoes under blue glass and in two days you will have spring chickens large enough for the New York York boarding houses."

Publishers and Printers

Can buy direct of the Manufacturer on favorable terms. "THE ASSON HARDY CUTTING MACHINES are the best, and cheapest low priced machine made, and have a national reputation for utility and durability."—The Electrician, Chicago.

THE ASSON HARDY PAPER CUTTER is by far the best machine which can be obtained for a less price than one hundred dollars. It is of great strength. These machines have always taken the highest stand. It is the only machine to which is applied the Patent Movable Cutting Board. This device has a reputation of itself; by it, the cutting board can be instantly and accurately moved, so that a perfect cut is insured. This is a very important point in the machine, and one that is possessed by no other. It greatly reduces the labor of preparation in working the paper backward and forward. We cannot too strongly recommend the advantages of this patent movable board. It is worth the price of this machine, and purchasers should fully understand how highly it is to be valued."—Geo. P. Rowell & Co.'s Newspaper Reporter and Printer's Gazette.

THE LATEST IMPROVED HARDY CARD CUTTER is pronounced the most desirable Card Cutter in the market, for the general uses of a printing office.

The well known RUGGLES CARD CUTTER, with my latest improvements, is still preferred by many printers, and holds its favoritism over other machines.

None genuine but those having my full address lettered in the casting. Newspaper in want of advertising from first parties should send for my circular.
