PERSONAL.—The following from the Union Times will be read with pleasure by the many friends of Col. Jas. H. Rion:

We have, unintentionally, neglected to notice the new law firm lately formed by Hon. J. H. Rion, of Winnsboro, and Col. I. G. McKissick, of this town, whose advertisement has been in our columns the past three weeks. It is one of the very strongest law firms in the State. Mr. Rion, it is acknowledged, has no superior at the South Carolina bar. Probably no man in the country is so entirely devoted to his profession as Mr. Rion, and but few are as successful in the results of causes entrusted to them. An untiring student and deep thinker, he is a sound counsellor; while his indomitable zeal and energy in any cause he undertakes, together with his convincing powers before a jury, have given him a State reputation inferior to no man at the bar, and commended for him a most extensive practice, particularly in important and intricate law cases. He will be found a worthy successor to Judge Wallace, and we congratulate Colonel McKissick upon being associated with so good and able a man.

MY customers know that I have heretofore led the FURNITURE trade of the South, in style, quality and prices.

Two time has come when these goods can be purchased as cheap from me as in the North and West.

I respectfully invite you to call and examine my stock and prices before purchasing elsewhere.

Orders by mail will receive as much attention as if given in person.

It would make the list too large to describe and copy all the different prices of Parlor Suits, Dining Room, Office, Standing, Parlor and Ladies' Desks, Secretaries, Dwarf Libraries, and Book Cases, manufactured by me.
