The Colletion "Idea" Stands.

Tillman had said that any man, who opposed the Colleton plan after it had been adopted by the Reform Execu ive Committee, was a traitor to Reform. The plan, however, is so unpopular with the great mass of Reformers that Chairman Sligh called a meeting of his committee to reconsider the matter. This meeting was held last Tuesday their feir princes > some shad. night, and after a long debate the committee refused to change its orders. It seems that the Evans men are there is no big ime, with no fears of great friends of the plan, and the being heard. This is and is a very at-Ellerbe, Tindal and Pope men are strongly against it; and we believe that the people are against any such scheme to defeat the popular will. Twenty-nine members of the committee were present and this small number of men practically dictate how the not know what effect this scheme to force a nominee upon the Democratic party may have upon the Reformers themselves, but as for the 32,000 Conforman's appared. This specks well for the fertility of the soil, which will dealerst a superior the soil which will dealerst a superior that there was some of the party in the soil which will be superior the soil which we have the superior that there was some of the party in the soil which we have the superior that there was some of the party in the superior that the superior that the party in the superior that the party in the superior that the superior that the superior that servatives in the State, we believe that doubtless commend it to real estate they will have nothing whatever to do ageu's, and may be the many of a with the primaries this year. The hand of a kind Providenc : has been raised over our land and our people are promised to be rewarded ten fold for their toil. A'll over this land, where the devastating effects of the many disasters of last year were felt, the farmers sorely passed through experiences, it would seem, sufficiently appalling to paralyze the energies and crush the spirits of the most hopeful, yet the watch cry scems to have been, ever upward and onward, just over vonder there is an abundant harvest. and unless there comes some unlooked for damage on the promising fields, "there shall come a rejoicing, bringing ing; will advise m fr and to use it." in the sheaves."

With an appreciative zest, all seem to feel a living reality of their sur-roundings, and manifest them by an almost unbroken chain of social indulgence seemingly with that feeling of "peace and good will toward a'l men" and it is a scene calculated to arrouse the cheerless soul from its gloom and in, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy from one place of enjoyment to another with the merry, cheerful and gists in every part of the world. Twentyhappy faces of the preity girls as d gallant young men. The young I sople "Mrs. Winslow's feel a deep sense of obligation to those take no other kind." "who have passed beyond the vale?" for their services in promoting their pleasures, most prominent of whom are Mrs. N. A. Peay and Mrs. James Pickett. What treasures to the young people are such ladies as Mrs. Peay and Mrs. Picketi. The home of the latter presented a picture on the evening of the first inst. that we shall attempt to paint from memory, but feel sure that there will be nothing overdrawn since there were many attractions that would have escaped the eyes of a much more observant one than the writer. We arrived late in the evening, after the guests had all come, and found after contributing our share | Office : No. 9 Washington Street, 3 Doors to the number that the place was fully alive with the presence of the young folks, chatting merrily away, and find- day ing after an investigation that the f. ic sex was largely in excess, so vastly so, that there was only room for a few others, and we were soon rejoicing in the reality of being one of the others, when we found ourself in the mid-t of the smiles of several young ladies, when we became lost in their presence to all things else, and will leave the picture unfinished; but memory as it dwells on things of the past, will pause to linger here. The next day found the party on the banks of the Calawba $3.00 at the Pagan Island where they went prepared and equipped to (vjoy a pic-nic and fish fry. The gentleme i med on the grounds early to catch fish for the dinner, and soon the supply was sufficient to meet the wra's of the crowd, when it was decided that the entire party should be ! an ferred to Joseph Boody, Pierroat, N.Y., writes: "Three years ago I began to have distantly in breathing, palpitation of the heart set in. I my limbs and ankles were badly swiden. This cians said I could not live a week. I began using Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, the first bottle greatly relieved me, and, although 78 years of age, the several bottles I took altogether so immensely benefited me that I am a new man. I cheerfully recommend this remedy ""While suffering from a severe attack of heart disease, and expecting to die, physicians having afforded me no relief, I was induced to buy some of Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure. Every dose lifted me right up, and it seems as though it would almost raise the dead. I would willingly fill the New Heart Cure bottles with gold for the magnificent remedy they contain, if I could not get them on other terms."—S. A. Hull, Franklin, N. Y.

"For 20 years I was seriously troubled with heart disease and nervous prostration, the latter affecting the sciatic nerve of my left side. During that time I was treated by many prominent physicians, and sent hundreds of dollars away for medicines, all of which failed. Recently I began using Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, and am George J.
