

CHESTER A. ARTHUR DEAD.

A STROKE OF APOPLEXY TERMINATES THE EX-PRESIDENT'S LIFE.

Stricken in His Sleep—He Passes Away Peacefully and Painlessly, Unconscious of His Surroundings—Expressions of Sorrow on All Sides—President Cleveland Sends a Personal Commemorative to Mrs. McKinley Public Buildings Draped in Mourning.

New York, November 18.—Ex-President Chester A. Arthur died at 5 o'clock this morning at his residence, No. 123 Lexington avenue. He had been ailing for some time from a complication of diseases, principally kidney affection.

As soon as the news of Mr. Arthur's death was made public many flags on public and private buildings were placed at half-mast.

Mr. Arthur had lived at No. 123 Lexington avenue for twenty years. A stroke of cerebral apoplexy suddenly, but not wholly unexpected by the attending physician, terminated his life.

It was after midnight when his attendant left him alone in his bedroom, and nothing was heard of him during the early morning hours.

He was not disturbed until his attendant entered his room at 8 o'clock yesterday morning. He found Mr. Arthur lying on his side, breathing heavily and could not rouse him.

Dr. Kimball, Director of the Mint, stated in relation to the present great demand for pennies and five-cent pieces, that the coinage plant at Philadelphia, Pa., was suspended on February 16, 1884, by order of Secretary McCulloch on the ground that the amount outstanding was redundant.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE DEATH OF THE EX-PRESIDENT TO THE SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES.

President Cleveland and several members of the Cabinet will leave here Friday night for New York to attend the funeral of ex-President Arthur. Senator Sherman will appoint a committee of Senators to attend the funeral.

In perfecting the arrangements for the funeral of ex-President Arthur, it has been determined to change the date of the ceremony until the morning of Monday, November 22, in order to allow time for the arrival of several of the members of his Cabinet and other persons of distinction.

A BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH. Chester Allan Arthur was born in Fairfield, Franklin County, Vermont, on October 7, 1830. He was the son of the Rev. Wm. Arthur, a Baptist clergyman, who came to America at the age of 18 from the County Antrim, Ireland.

Mr. Arthur's early education was acquired in the schools of Vermont, and he finished his education at Union College, Schenectady, from which he was graduated in 1849, taking a prominent position in his class.

Mr. Arthur's early life was spent in teaching school for a few years he studied law, and having been admitted to the bar he formed a copartnership with Henry D. Gardner, which was eminently successful. Ex-President Arthur was associated with Mr. William M. Everts in the celebrated Jonathan Lemmons case in 1852, in which the liberation of eight fugitive slaves was sustained by the Supreme Court of the United States.

Mr. Arthur's political career began in 1857 when he was elected to the State Legislature. He was re-elected in 1858 and 1859, and in 1860 he was elected to the United States House of Representatives.
