The Knights of the Golden Chain now meet in the Knights of Pythias Hall, over Davis, Roper & Co's. There will be a basket picnic on the third Saturday in July at Old Eden. The public are invited.

The Industrial School Commission will have to-day or to-morrow. So writes Chairman Johnson. Our Monthly hopes that Clinton will have street cars and electric lights in ten years. So do we, so do we.

Our canning factory is going right ahead in a huge hurry, canning everything that comes in canning distance. Attention is called to the advertisement of J. O. C. Fleming & Co., which appears in another column.

Alliance Notice. Centerville Alliance 619 will meet Saturday before the third Sunday in July at 9 o'clock A. M. A full attendance is requested to be present as business of importance will be transacted. JOHN R. BOYD, Sec'y.

The Batesburg Graded School. BATESBURG, S. C., June 29.—Prof. G. Wright Nash has been elected principal of the Batesburg graded school for the ensuing year. He is from Clinton and a graduate of Wofford College. He will have the sympathy and support of all the patrons, and it is anticipated that a very successful year is before this school.—The State.

There is a Good Time Coming. It will be at Harris Lithia Springs on the 16th of July (next Thursday week). Laurens and Greenville will play a game of ball, which we take the liberty of predicting will result in victory, after a hard fought battle, for Laurens. Then there will be a barbecue and at night a grand ball. All the young people from Laurens and Greenville and other parts of the State must go and none of the old people will be unwelcome.

The Canning Factory. The following are the prices which the Laurens Canning Factory will this season pay for Fruits and Vegetables: Best quality Tomatoes, Per Bushel, .35. Okra, .50. Beans, .50. Apples, .40. Peaches, .50. Blackberries, .50. Grapes, on stem, $1.00. Cherries, $1.00 to $1.25.

Congress: G. W. Shiel, Dr. J. R. Smith, Messrs. James Cannon, Robert Abercrombie, James M. Hudgens and Dr. E. M. Caino are invited to be present and deliver addresses.

The Jury. The following petit jurors were drawn yesterday to serve at the term of Court, which convenes on the third Monday in the present month, to-wit: J. B. Barksdale, James T. Machen, A. D. Garlington, Jeff D. Seaton, John C. Sims, P. Butler Smith, Abner Mitchell, J. W. C. Bell, C. W. Duval, J. William Goodwin, J. C. Wasson, J. Y. Gary, J. T. Robertson, Joe E. Patterson, Alex. T. Simpson, Wade H. Henderson, Simon E. Gentry, J. H. Phinney, S. A. Phelan, J. H. Balentine, W. P. Cooley, Joseph T. Brownlow, L. M. Linslow, Andrew Phillips, Lucian R. Babb, A. J. Hollingsworth, T. H. Carter, S. W. Dean, M. T. Simpson, Abner Babb, J. W. Baldwin, Jr., W. A. Nichols, W. W. Walker, J. H. Garrison, R. H. Fleming, H. P. Garrett.

The Princeton High School. Friday, the third of July, was the day of the closing exercises of the Princeton "High School," which has been successfully taught for the past year by Prof. J. P. Young. In the morning addresses were delivered by J. A. McCollough, W. R. Ball and Rev. J. A. Gilchrist. In the afternoon Prof. Bell, who was formerly principal of the school, and Major Jno. G. Capers spoke. At midday a basket picnic was served. The writer will remember the kind hospitality of the Princeton people with pleasure. If outward appearances are anything Laurens has no more intelligent and progressive community than Princeton, and just as sure as fate the town will grow into considerable importance commercially. It is beautifully located in the center of a grand agricultural section, has fine church and school facilities, and above all is blessed with a more than fair share of the world's pretty girls.

The County Alliance and the McElroy Incident. The County Alliance met in the Court House last Friday. There was a full attendance. J. Andrew Jones was elected delegate to the State Convention. He is in favor of the Sub-treasury. During the meeting there was an altercation between Senator Irby and Prof. McElroy, the circumstances of which are about as follows, so far as we can gather: Col. Irby denied that he had inspired McElroy's anti-Haskell article, in the Herald. Prof. McElroy gave him the lie. Col. Irby advanced, so did McElroy. Penomenators got between and avoided a difficulty. No blows passed, and nobody was hurt. Both parties and a following, McElroy claims that Irby asked him to write the original article, saying that he was the brain of the party, would a facie pen, etc., and that he did so. On the evening of his trouble with Prof. Evans, he went to an office where Col. Irby was at the time and asked the loan of a pistol or of money to buy one and that Col. Irby refused, on the ground that it was none of his light.

This visit was made immediately subsequent to Evans' demand for a retraction in Cooper, Bros' store and the affair in Roland's store occurred just afterwards. Deafness Can't Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

JOHN M. HUDGENS, F. M. SETTLER, W. A. MCCLINTOCK, T. B. ANDERSON, C. W. TUNE, Executive Committee. Obituary. Died on Sunday, May 24th, Mrs. Susan T. Badgett, wife of Mr. Thos. L. Badgett, age 65 years. Her death brings a pang of regret to many a loving heart. Her gentle, quiet and Christian character won the hearts of all who knew her. Oh! what a shock her death was to all who knew her; but we hope to see her in the world to come. She joined the Presbyterian church in early life, of which she was a consistent member till her death, assisting her Christian profession. Her true character was chiefly illustrated in the faithful and loving discharge of the duties of a wife and mother; she was such a loving mother. Her aged companion will miss the gentle offices of love, so thoughtfully and considerately administered. Her children will cherish her memory with love and affection, as they learn with advancing years how much they have lost in a mother, who tenderly lived in and for her children. They can never forget her unselfish devotion for their welfare, her affectionate solicitude for their Christian character and usefulness, and her anxiety for their thorough education. Oh! how sad and heart-rending to give up a mother. Though she died without a word of parting to her loved ones, we can look back on her unspotted life so full of love and sympathy. She wept with those that wept and smiled with those that smiled. She was a kind and loving wife, a devoted and affectionate sister and a friend that you might trust.

How sad is the home from which she has been taken, and though she died so suddenly we think she was prepared. Only a few weeks before her death, she was conversing with one of her children on the subject of death, and it was her wish that when her heavenly Father called her home, she would die without any suffering, that she would fall asleep, and her wish was gratified. She leaves an aged husband and four children, many relatives and friends to mourn her loss. Though her death comes with a crushing weight to her loved ones, we must try to submit cheerfully to our heavenly Father's will, for blessed are they which die in the Lord. What would we do in this vale of tears, if there was no sympathizing Savior to whom we can go and tell our sorrows?

Asleep in Jesus, far from thee, Thy kindred and their graves may be, But there is still a blessed sleep, From which no one ever wakes.

When you go by Hill Hood's Sarsaparilla be sure to get it. Don't be put off with an inferior substitute. Insist upon Hood's. SCRIBE.

The Augusta Exposition. The Augusta Exposition will open with impressive ceremonies November 2, and continue until November 28. Each day will be made attractive and interesting with special programs. The Military prize drill and Sham battle together with a thorough portrayal of skill acquired in the school of the soldier, will be features of the Exposition never before in Georgia conducted on so grand a scale. August 1, it will be noticed, is offering very large individual premiums. The planter does not have to constitute himself a county to reap a satisfactory return for his efforts, should he carry off the honors. With a single exhibit the amounts repay the trouble. The thoughtful visitor will be interested in the displays of electrical machinery and appliances, and in the world's mechanism of to-day, as exemplified in Augustus' exposition. The other departments will be amused by special attractions, the races, the fire-works, the village of Nomads and the performances of musicians, and feats of legerdemain and illusion. The best in their lines have already been engaged.

The Agricultural displays, the Chrysanthemum show, the Art Department, the Cattle and Horse shows, and the other features afford material for an earnest study by visitors. The railroads have granted as cheap rates as have ever been offered to those who will visit Augusta during the season. The Exposition Buildings are only fifteen minutes' walk from Broad street. Two electric car lines and a branch of the Georgia railroad run to the lovely grounds at Druid Park. An idea of the immensity of this structure can be had when it is known to contain 200,000 square feet, and is 600 feet long. A restaurant, parcel room, ladies' room, post office, telephone exchange and express office insure every convenience to visitors. A committee on Public Comfort is diligently at work to afford every convenience to visitors.

August 1 does not have an Exposition every year. She has exhausted her resources for these occasions at intervals that permit of entirely new features arranged on new lines. She has the benefit of past experience, and backed by the reputation of always keeping good faith with her guest. She bids in advance to her friends welcome to the Exposition. CRADY GROVE, S. C., June 29, '91.

To the ADVERTISER: We of the Dark Corner would like to ask a few questions for information. First, what power have our constables and other law officers to stop a man who goes about with their hip pockets full of pop-guns, and a man runs or tries to get away, they go to shooting at him, no matter what his offence is. We want to know if they have the right to shoot a man under such circumstances. If it is not lawful, we propose to stop it, but if it is, we will grin and endure it. They seem to think all power on earth at least is given them. Please give us the law on it and oblige. DARK CORNER.

A constable, even with a warrant in his hands, has no right to assault a party unless to defend himself. In case of resistance of a lawful officer, the officer can use a necessary force—but not to shoot except to save his life, or to prevent a serious battery. A constable has no more authority than a private citizen except as derived from his warrant. As a rule however the law is tender towards its officers in the discharge of their duty. It is doubtful if we have any constables in this county—only special officers for the occasion.

Cross Hill Notes. The weather has been very favorable for the farmers for the past month. Crops are clean and in all healthy condition. Cotton is small as the world to come. She will continue there will be a full crop made. Corn is looking fine and we think the average is greater than last year. The crop of oats and wheat is light. The health of this section is now as good as usual for the season. There has been some sickness and some deaths among us. Our community was shocked and greatly pained at the condition of J. C. Cook, Esq., and we extend to his family our sympathy and trust that he will soon be restored to them in a perfectly cured condition. Mr. J. H. Miller is putting an addition to his already large store house. Mr. W. C. Raso is getting material together to build a large and commodious store. Mr. D. Burnside also contemplates enlarging his store.

We are informed that a furniture store will be opened here in a few days, and other improvements and additions will add much to the activity and business of our already thriving town. Mr. W. M. Miller is having improvements made on his residence, which when complete will make it a beautiful dwelling. The residence of Col. J. G. Williams is now finished and is a pretty place. He is said to be a very beautiful man, and we hope that Col. Williams will find this true in regard to his residence. Mr. Davenport has just finished painting his residence and it is a very lovely place. P. B. Smith and David Burnside have had their dwellings painted and much improved in appearance. This is the season of holidays of the schools and colleges and a number of our young people are now at home, resting and enjoying themselves after the hard and exacting duties of the school room. Children's day will be observed at Liberty Spring Church on the first Saturday in August. We anticipate a good time as a very interesting programme has been arranged. We extend to you Mr. Editor, a cordial invitation to be with us on that day. The protracted meeting at Liberty Spring church will begin on the first Sunday in August. That eloquent divine and Christian worker, Rev. N. J. Holmes will be the guest of the church. We trust that good may be done.

Highland Home. The weather is getting warm and we feel a desire to swim in hammocks and ply palm leaf fans, but however will try to brush away the indolent dreams which "fly time" brings and write a few briefs for the ADVERTISER. Miss Sallie Knight, who has been attending the Hollins, Va. Institute to complete her course in music, has returned. With her rare accomplishments we predict for her a large measure of success. Mrs. Bryna Mitchell lost a fine cow last week. It was run over by an extra train on the G. & L. road. We guess bacon will go up as Mr. J. W. Shockley has monopolized a whole ham in two weeks himself. He must get his meat through the Exchange. N. L. Barksdale says he can head corn growing and J. W. Shockley and W. A. Garrett agree with him while W. B. Putman and M. A. Knight say not. Two against the odds, my rules. There is a young man's prayer-meeting that meets every Wednesday night. BILLY BARLOW.

Until the blood cleansed of impurities, it is useless to attempt the cure of any disease. Rheumatism, which is traceable to an acid in the blood, has been cured in numerous cases, by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, external treatment being of no avail. No matter what may be the ills you fear from indigestion, a dose of Ayer's Cathartic Pills will ease you without question. Just try them once and be assured; they have much worse dyspeptics cured. You'll find them nice and amply worth the price. Mr. C. D. Payne, publisher of the Union Signal, Chicago, Ill., writes: I never saw anything that would cure headache like your Braxdyretine. Jas. P. Bean, private secretary to the Governor has resigned. D. H. Tompkins of Ninety Six succeeds him. Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Restorer restores the hair and its natural color. Dr. G. W. Earle, Pickens, S. C. writes: "I recommended B. B. B. to a man who had suffered for years with a malignant ulcer on his leg, that seemed to resist all other treatment. After using four five bottles the ulcer began to heal and his leg is now sound and well."

THEY ALL SAY That for purifying the blood, strengthening the appetite, removing that tired feeling, and building up the system, Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best. No other blood medicine is so rapid in its effects nor so permanent in its results. "I was a great sufferer from a low condition of the blood and general debility, becoming finally so reduced that I was unfit for work. Nothing that I did for the complaint helped me so much as Ayer's Sarsaparilla, a few bottles of which restored me to health and strength. I take every opportunity to recommend this medicine in similar cases."—C. Fryck, 14 East Main st., Chillicothe, Ohio. "I have suffered for years from a low condition of the blood and general debility, and have had such severe pains in my back and shoulders that it was impossible at times to do any work. I was greatly helped by a few bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and take every opportunity to speak of my cure to those who are afflicted with it."—William R. Stearns, 9 Free St., Portland, Me. "After a year ago I began using Ayer's Sarsaparilla as a remedy for debility and neuralgia resulting from malerial exposure in the army. I was in a very bad condition, but six bottles of the Sarsaparilla, with occasional doses of Ayer's Pills, have greatly improved my health. I am now able to work, and feel that I cannot say too much for your excellent remedies."—F. A. Finkham, South Moulton, Me. "I have suffered for years from a low condition of the blood and general debility, and have had such severe pains in my back and shoulders that it was impossible at times to do any work. I was greatly helped by a few bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and take every opportunity to speak of my cure to those who are afflicted with it."—William R. Stearns, 9 Free St., Portland, Me.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA Makes the Weak Strong. "My constitution is naturally delicate, but some time ago I became so weak and languid that I was unable to perform my work, which is mental. A fine eruption, which gave much trouble and distress, made its appearance on my skin. The physicians' prescriptions prescribed by me, and soon my strength returned and my skin resumed its natural appearance. For a tonic, blood-purifier and general health restorer, I can heartily recommend Ayer's Sarsaparilla."—Miss Magie O'Neill, Nodaway, Iowa. "I use Ayer's Sarsaparilla with great satisfaction in my family, and can recommend it to all who have the care of young and delicate children."—Mrs. Joseph McComber, Brooklyn, N. Y. "Ayer's Sarsaparilla, for building up the general health, stands at the head of the blood-purifiers."—Abram Livezey, M. D., Yardey, Pa.
