

A TILT IN THE HOUSE.

FIELD DAY ON THE INCOME TAX.

Northern Democrats Must Take Their Medicine—The Southern Democrats Are Demanding the Tax.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—The House very promptly went into committee of the whole to consider the tariff bill this morning, having disposed with the call of committees for reports.

The consideration of the income tax bill was resumed and Covert, (Dem.) of New York, took up the third of the bill, which was extremely sectional in its provisions and would bear with particular severity on the North and East.

Bartlett, (Dem.) of New York, in denouncing the bill, said it was proposed by a branch of the Democratic party which affiliated with the Populist party and demanded the free coinage of both gold and silver at the present ratio.

Mr. Pender of West Virginia, delivered an earnest appeal in the interest of harmony in the Democratic party. It is the duty of the Democratic party, he said, to stand shoulder to shoulder in support of the Wilson bill.

Mr. Johnson, of Ohio, declared himself in an elaboration of his free trade and single tax theories, the latter presenting, he said, the only solution to the labor question.

Mr. McKim, (Dem.) of New York, an opponent of the bill, was recognized. In anticipation of hearing Cochrane, crowds of people flocked to the House and the galleries were filled.

Mr. Cochrane, (Dem.) of New York, an opponent of the bill, was recognized. In anticipation of hearing Cochrane, crowds of people flocked to the House and the galleries were filled.

Mr. Cochrane, (Dem.) of New York, an opponent of the bill, was recognized. In anticipation of hearing Cochrane, crowds of people flocked to the House and the galleries were filled.

Mr. Cochrane, (Dem.) of New York, an opponent of the bill, was recognized. In anticipation of hearing Cochrane, crowds of people flocked to the House and the galleries were filled.

THE RICH IN PROPORTION TO THEIR MEANS.

The main objection which has been urged against the bill that it is inequitable. It is accused of being inquisitorial, but it is no more so than custom taxes, internal revenue taxes and State taxes.

There was a much larger attendance in the galleries of the House at the night session, and a score of members were on the floor.

Mr. Johnson, of Ohio, declared himself in an elaboration of his free trade and single tax theories, the latter presenting, he said, the only solution to the labor question.

Mr. McKim, (Dem.) of New York, an opponent of the bill, was recognized. In anticipation of hearing Cochrane, crowds of people flocked to the House and the galleries were filled.

Mr. Cochrane, (Dem.) of New York, an opponent of the bill, was recognized. In anticipation of hearing Cochrane, crowds of people flocked to the House and the galleries were filled.

Mr. Cochrane, (Dem.) of New York, an opponent of the bill, was recognized. In anticipation of hearing Cochrane, crowds of people flocked to the House and the galleries were filled.

Mr. Cochrane, (Dem.) of New York, an opponent of the bill, was recognized. In anticipation of hearing Cochrane, crowds of people flocked to the House and the galleries were filled.

Mr. Cochrane, (Dem.) of New York, an opponent of the bill, was recognized. In anticipation of hearing Cochrane, crowds of people flocked to the House and the galleries were filled.

Mr. Cochrane, (Dem.) of New York, an opponent of the bill, was recognized. In anticipation of hearing Cochrane, crowds of people flocked to the House and the galleries were filled.

THE BATTLE IS WON.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—The interest in the closing hours of the tariff debate was shown this morning in the attendance of the galleries.

At 10 o'clock the galleries were filled with spectators although the session did not begin until eleven, and it would be thirty minutes after that hour before the speaker could be heard.

It was a miscellaneous crowd in more senses than one, for it contained, in addition to the usual number of respectable sight-seers, certain representatives of the light-fingered gang.

Mr. Reed put in an appearance at a quarter to 11. As his portly figure entered the gallery, a crowd of people gathered about him.

Mr. Reed put in an appearance at a quarter to 11. As his portly figure entered the gallery, a crowd of people gathered about him.

Mr. Reed put in an appearance at a quarter to 11. As his portly figure entered the gallery, a crowd of people gathered about him.

Mr. Reed put in an appearance at a quarter to 11. As his portly figure entered the gallery, a crowd of people gathered about him.

Mr. Reed put in an appearance at a quarter to 11. As his portly figure entered the gallery, a crowd of people gathered about him.

Mr. Reed put in an appearance at a quarter to 11. As his portly figure entered the gallery, a crowd of people gathered about him.

WHY NEWMAN RESIGNED.

THE TROUBLE IN CLEMSON COLLEGE.

The Professor of Agriculture Tells the Story of His Departure—He Brings Charges Against Governor Tillman.

Atlanta, Ga., Feb. 6.—Professor J. S. Newman, a former resident of this city and one of the best known educators in the South, has resigned his position as professor of agriculture in Clemson College, S. C., and will again take up his residence in this city.

Clemson college is the outgrowth of the old Clemson estate. The plantation was donated to the State by the late Governor Tillman.

The circumstances of Professor Newman's resignation will be of interest. It appears that, on account of a lack of harmony on the part of the faculty in the selection of the president of the college, Newman was requested.

Acting on this information, and knowing that Professor Newman had just reached the city, a representative of the faculty called on him at his country home near Edgewood.

He was found in the neighborhood of the college, where he was superintending the adjustment of agricultural and agricultural implements.

It was an exciting occurrence, and happened in the neighborhood of the college, where he was superintending the adjustment of agricultural and agricultural implements.

It was an exciting occurrence, and happened in the neighborhood of the college, where he was superintending the adjustment of agricultural and agricultural implements.

It was an exciting occurrence, and happened in the neighborhood of the college, where he was superintending the adjustment of agricultural and agricultural implements.

It was an exciting occurrence, and happened in the neighborhood of the college, where he was superintending the adjustment of agricultural and agricultural implements.

THE TROUBLE IN CLEMSON COLLEGE.

The Professor of Agriculture Tells the Story of His Departure—He Brings Charges Against Governor Tillman.

Atlanta, Ga., Feb. 6.—Professor J. S. Newman, a former resident of this city and one of the best known educators in the South, has resigned his position as professor of agriculture in Clemson College, S. C., and will again take up his residence in this city.

Clemson college is the outgrowth of the old Clemson estate. The plantation was donated to the State by the late Governor Tillman.

The circumstances of Professor Newman's resignation will be of interest. It appears that, on account of a lack of harmony on the part of the faculty in the selection of the president of the college, Newman was requested.

Acting on this information, and knowing that Professor Newman had just reached the city, a representative of the faculty called on him at his country home near Edgewood.

He was found in the neighborhood of the college, where he was superintending the adjustment of agricultural and agricultural implements.

It was an exciting occurrence, and happened in the neighborhood of the college, where he was superintending the adjustment of agricultural and agricultural implements.

It was an exciting occurrence, and happened in the neighborhood of the college, where he was superintending the adjustment of agricultural and agricultural implements.

It was an exciting occurrence, and happened in the neighborhood of the college, where he was superintending the adjustment of agricultural and agricultural implements.

It was an exciting occurrence, and happened in the neighborhood of the college, where he was superintending the adjustment of agricultural and agricultural implements.

INCOME TAX IN GREAT BRITAIN.

How it Has Worked in That Country for a Century.

An income tax was established in Great Britain in 1798. The first tax fell upon incomes in proportion to their amount, but this was changed by the second act passed in 1804, and thereafter the tax fell upon the entire income, 200 being exempt, and reduced rates being charged on incomes ranging from 100 to 1,000.

The tax was repealed in 1816, but was revived in 1842 by Sir Robert Peel to meet a deficiency and to enable the government to make some needed reforms.

The tax was repealed in 1816, but was revived in 1842 by Sir Robert Peel to meet a deficiency and to enable the government to make some needed reforms.

The tax was repealed in 1816, but was revived in 1842 by Sir Robert Peel to meet a deficiency and to enable the government to make some needed reforms.

The tax was repealed in 1816, but was revived in 1842 by Sir Robert Peel to meet a deficiency and to enable the government to make some needed reforms.

The tax was repealed in 1816, but was revived in 1842 by Sir Robert Peel to meet a deficiency and to enable the government to make some needed reforms.

The tax was repealed in 1816, but was revived in 1842 by Sir Robert Peel to meet a deficiency and to enable the government to make some needed reforms.

The tax was repealed in 1816, but was revived in 1842 by Sir Robert Peel to meet a deficiency and to enable the government to make some needed reforms.

The tax was repealed in 1816, but was revived in 1842 by Sir Robert Peel to meet a deficiency and to enable the government to make some needed reforms.

THE ALLIANCE LEADERS UNBROKEN.

The People are Said to Favor an Early Movement—The Call Will Soon be Issued.

The Alliance faction of the Reform party has not abandoned its idea of abandoning their intention of holding an early convention to make nominations for State offices.

The following leading article along this line will appear to-day in the Charleston Post, the recognized organ of the Alliance Reform party.

The following leading article along this line will appear to-day in the Charleston Post, the recognized organ of the Alliance Reform party.

The following leading article along this line will appear to-day in the Charleston Post, the recognized organ of the Alliance Reform party.

The following leading article along this line will appear to-day in the Charleston Post, the recognized organ of the Alliance Reform party.

The following leading article along this line will appear to-day in the Charleston Post, the recognized organ of the Alliance Reform party.

The following leading article along this line will appear to-day in the Charleston Post, the recognized organ of the Alliance Reform party.

The following leading article along this line will appear to-day in the Charleston Post, the recognized organ of the Alliance Reform party.

The following leading article along this line will appear to-day in the Charleston Post, the recognized organ of the Alliance Reform party.

STATE NEWS FROM VA.

Interesting Notes from Various Sources.

The next session of the Legislature will open on the 15th of March. This is the usual time for the opening of the session.

The next session of the Legislature will open on the 15th of March. This is the usual time for the opening of the session.

The next session of the Legislature will open on the 15th of March. This is the usual time for the opening of the session.

The next session of the Legislature will open on the 15th of March. This is the usual time for the opening of the session.

The next session of the Legislature will open on the 15th of March. This is the usual time for the opening of the session.

The next session of the Legislature will open on the 15th of March. This is the usual time for the opening of the session.

The next session of the Legislature will open on the 15th of March. This is the usual time for the opening of the session.

The next session of the Legislature will open on the 15th of March. This is the usual time for the opening of the session.

The next session of the Legislature will open on the 15th of March. This is the usual time for the opening of the session.