LAURENS, S. C., Sept. 11, 1894.

There is no Democratic party in this State. We have a very radically republican party in South Carolina and to calls itself the democratic party. Tom Reid, the chieftain and grand tycoon of the republicans would reject it as too utterly utter radica! for his followers in the utterly utter down East. All the same, in South Carolina they pass for democrats; God save the mark. There has never in the history of manhood been such a fraud. "Am I a dog that I should do this thing.' How many democrats of the true faith, real democrats in South Carolina, have been kicked, cuffed, spat upon in the last four years, utterly ignored and told to git, go, stand aside as rotten and utterly unworthy, there is no knowing. At present they are counted with the Tillmanites who spurn them and whose shoes they are licking. They have been sent to the shambles. Will you stand it? How long are you to lick the hand of the master, as the "mongrel, puppy, whelp and hound and cur of low degree," fawns and whines around the whipperin? Answer upon your manhood, if any is left.

The popular party in this State has for four years denounced the democratic party and its leaders. Populism, agrarianism, socialism and every other ism foreign to democracy enters into the platform of the so-called democracy. There is a respectable minority of pure democrats in this State, who do not bow down nor propose to bow down and worship these strange gods. What are they to do? They have been told by the ruling majority -we will have nothing to do with you. Then let this minority go in peace; form their society and set up the God of their fathers, holding to the tabernacle, if there be but ten of them to save the city.

* * *
Senator Irby rallies to the defence of poor Gov. Tillman, who is unable to take care of himself. He says that Tillman is a simon pure Democrat and Cleveland's sort ought to leave the party, if anybody ought. There is an old precident of the members rebelling and the hands refusing to supply food to the stomach and the legs to carry the body. This is the first proposition recorded of the entire body rebelling against the head.

The conservatives are the authors, makers and finishers of the election laws of South Carolina which gave her without fraud a white man's government. And now by audacity and fraud the conservatives are robbed of any participation in the State Government or State affairs. And with reluctance we say that those who formed the Democratic State Executives Committee in 1888-90 are solely responsible for the fraudulent situation.

Gov. Tillman begins to see ADVERTISER was right some time ago in the position that light didn't come from the West. For the last four years he has had enacted in Columbia by his multifarious mongrel conventions a populistic platform. It seems now that he is troubled with something like the buck ague, and will sneak on to the Democratic Platform.

A movement of some sort is anticipated in opposition to the Ring which named Evans for Governor and in which movement the Conservatives were contemptuously excluded. Whatever is done will be done in the interest of true democracy and not in the interest of Gen. Butler or any one

Judge B. C. Pressley died at his residence at Summerville at an advanced age on last Wednesday. He was an able lawyer and upright man who stood to his convictions, as far removed from a time server as any man who has lived in the State, and was an honor to his

And the proposition is for "Reformers" to name the candidates for a great party and then denounce those who were excluded from participation as "Independents" and worse than radicals. Eh?

The Supreme Court orders an extra session for Wednesday the 12th to determine the constitutionality of the Dispensary Act of 1893. The decision of the question will likewise decide if the Supreme Court is supreme in this

In Arkansas the Democrats beat the Populists hollow. The trouble with the Populists lies in the fact that they are not sufficiently populous. Watch South Carolina, if you please.

John Gary Evans says if elected he will be Governor of the whole State. Tillman has given up Georgia and don't even help Tom Watson.

Judge Cobb, of Alabama, "Where am I at," is renominated for Congress, while Tom Watson pulls at the off wheel Populist wagon in Georgia.

We give large space to Col. L. W Youman's letter in this issue as it so apply expresses our view of the situation in South Carolina.

Senator Jones, of Nevada, Republican, believing in free silver and believing that he cannot serve two masters, goes over to the Populists.

Pray, how many populist conventions did Governor Tillman attend in the North-West?

"The Year of Jubilee."

The Charleston News and Courier The Charleston News and Courier publishes on the 5th inst an exhaustive Review of the Good Cities' work for the industrial year closing with the 31st of August, 1894. It includes also a review of the industrial conditions of the entire State, from mountains to sea. from sea to the Savannah. It shows the good old city with a harbor of 23 feet of water, a year of hopeful conditions, amid the depression which in all lands has characterized the last two years. The conditions are hopeful in the store room formerly occupied by T. B. Anderson & Co. Mr. Pyles has recently returned from the North where he purchased additional supplies of choice goods.

Messrs. Smith, Wharton, Cunningham and Washington have formed a co-partnership for the purpose of doing an extensive machinery business. They will have a new forty horse power engine in addition to their twenty horse power engine with which they will run four gins, a planing mill, saw mill and grist mill. They are building a cotton seed house near the railroad, and arrangements are being millipart to transcent the seed through the proposed to the seed through the purpose of doing an extensive machinery business. is also in pamphlet and should be on the desk of every business man in South Carolina.

The conservatives who have been as lumb as oysters for two years are told that they are persecuted because they are not democrats. If opposition to Tillman and his methods, his dispensary and spies and that sort of opposition indulged by sucking doves, puts them out of the fold, they are not democrats. So the wolf complained that he lamb muddied the water and the amb impudently answering that he is below the wolf in the stream, the wolf ate him for his supper. Thus the conservatives are warned that they must not organize and exercise the right of manhood and form a political association of their own.

Under the popular doctrine of evoluion or more strictly "selection," very small animal productions have resulted in a small State like South Carolina. Thus we have diminutive intellectual specimens developed. Liliputian politicians seem to think that Gen. Butler prefers his own interest to that of true lemocracy. Gen. Butler answers the picayune insinuation and says that his nterest must not be regarded when the interest of true democracy is involved. Gen. Butler is a product of the environment of the "wide, wide world and of no pent up Utica.

A Western North Carolina moonhiner struck Laurens a few days ago: then he struck a Democrat; then he struck a populist; then he struck a straightout; then he struck a Tillmanite; then he struck a Reformer. Says the Tarheel on meeting this last, and draining his keg: "See here, friend, can't you manage to reform your infernal universal political vocabulary, by the time I cross the line again.

The News and Courier takes a chrisian view of the situation. For four years they have argued, exhorted, begged, warned, entreated. And now that the white people manning the Ship of State are approaching Drunken Dick's Shoals, we will all go to the bowwows together. "Where thou diest will I die, and there will I be buried.

Peculiar to Itself.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is peculiar to itself, in a strictly medicinal sense, in three important particulars, viz: first in the combination of remedial agents used; second, in the proportion in which they are mixed; third, in the process by which the active curative properties of the preparation are secured. These three important points make Hood's Sarsaparilla peculiar in its medicinal merit, as it accomplishes cures hitherto unknown.

But it is not what we say but what Hood's Sarsaparilla does, that tells the story. What Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for others is reason for confidence that it is the medicine for you.
