"Stanley went home sick yester-day," he said "and his folks have just rent word that he's down with typhoid. Don't know what in the world we are going to do without him. Worst time in the whole year he could have taken to be off, and not another young fellow with a pleayune in this good-fornithing little town."
"That all?" asked Mr. Sherman.

That all?" asked Mr. Sherman, with a shrug of his shoulders. "Business is rather driving, I admit, but I bardly think the whole establishment will have to shut down because one of the junior clerks is off duty. We shall manage somehow, Ashton; we always have. Ah-good-morning!"

Some one else had appeared at the open door, a young man of perhaps thought your face seemed familiar, but twenty-two or three, though he might he could not recall any one by your reply, in an apathetic way, apparently not expecting a favorable answer.

"Are you a good accountant and penuan?" asked Mr Sherman.

"I write a plain hand, and I am said to be very quick at figures."

Some other questions were asked living relative, a maiden aunt had

"I write a plain hand, and I am said to be very quick at figures."

Some other questions were asked and answered satisfactorily.

"We have a temporary vacancy through the sickness of the junior clerk. You are probably looking for a more lucrative position," said Mr. Sherman, finally.

"I was from the country. My nearest living relative, a maiden aunt, had brought me up in the strictest way possible. It was hardly more than natural that, with none to restrict me, I should be disposed to taste some hitherto forbidden pleasures.

"I fell in with a rather fast set, and went often work," was the city life bewitched me. I went often Mr. Sherman.

he was busily Stanley's place.

Stanley's place.

"I cannot imagine what we should have done if Henderson had not come along," Ashton remarked to Mr. Sherman a week or two later. "And he is worth a dozen of Stanley. He's the best worker we have, and you can depend on him every time."

"We shall not be obliged to shut down, then on account of Stanley's sickness? I believe I told you we should probably manage in some way," I went through my mind, like a flash, if only that was mine, I could double it, treble it, perhaps, in one night! Then came the suggestion to borrow it; what harm could there be? I would ropay in the morning, and no should probably manage in some way," replied Mr. Snerman, with a smile. "As you say, Henderson is doing well. I am much pleased with him myself." Time passel swiftly, and the weeks grew into months.

grew into months.

Stanley was back again, but Henderson had made a place for himself.

"Worth more than all the rest put together," Ashton often said. "Never had auybody take hold so before and be so thoroughly reliable. But I'm free to confess I don't want anything to do with him out of business hours. It is well I don't for you can't act him.

He invited him to his home, and tried to have him become acquainted with some young people of his own age, but to all invitations Henderson replied politely, but firmly, in the

these found him utterly inaccessible leave you, but now that you know all save with regard to business matters. Mr. Sherman's only son, Roy, had taken an unaccountable fanc, to his father's grave clerk. Two people could hardly be more unlike than they. Roy was a pleasure-loving youth, with neither taste nor inclination for busi-

Bother it all, Henderson," he said here. frolic was refused, "you may be as son high and mighty as you please, but I N high and mighty as you please, but I will have my way yet. I never persisted in anything so before. The Pater is quite encouraged. He says I have got so he stamina, after all. Whether I have or not, I've taken a fancy to faithfully."

The stranger came hack before sight. Tm not going to give up until you go anywhere, and now that he is brightening up you are fretting on that. Do be satisfied for once, and not prognosticate evil."

Mr. Sherman was in his office look- familiar to me, yet I do not seem able Ah! I do not recollect anyone by that name; a mistaken resemblance probably. Good-morning!"

Mr. Sherman felt decidedly perplexed. He was convinced that it was not a mistaken resemblance; there had been not doubt on Henderson's face. He was thinking the matter over in a troubled way when Henderson came I have repented, oh, so bitterly! I bsck.

I should like a private conversation with you at once," he said, and Mr. Sherman was struck with the change in him. He seemed to have grown twenty years older in that brief half hour.

"Did the—gentleman who was here speak of me?" he queried anxiously.

"Only to say that at first he "Only to say that, at first, he thought your face seemed familiar, but even litteen years older, he looked so utterly worn and helpless.

"I just stepped in to inquire if you needed any help," he said.

Mr. Sherman and Ashton involuntarily exchanged glances, then looked."

"I prefer to tell you myself what he helped."

tarily exchanged glances, ther looked at the inquirer, who stood waiting a prayed that you need never know it," reply, in an apathetic way, apparently he said at length.

"I am looking for work," was the city life bewitched me. I went often by. "Half a loaf is better than no reply. "Half a loaf is better than no bread. If you will try me, I will do my best to satisfy you."

The result was that an hour later declared I must bave been bern under was busily at work in the sick a lucky star.

"I began to think that I could make

I would repay in the morning, and no one need ever know. "If you have never been tempted that way, you can know nothing about it. I 'borrowed' it, and lost every cent

I had that night.
"I cannot tell you how horrified I was. It seemed to me that I should lose my reason at first, but, thank God, I had manliness enough to con-

"I suppose that my employer was kind. He took no steps against me, to do with film of the states notes.

It is well I don't, for you can't get him to stir from that little 10x12 room at Mrs. Dole's on any pretext. Why on earth doesn't he go round and have a condition.

"Of course, I could not get work in D., so I went elsewhere. Twice they found and recognized me with no recommendation.

good time?"

Ashton fairly growled in his vexation. Mr. Sherman looked troubled. He, too, had tried to make it pleasant for Henderson. He had taken a strong me away, I think I should have given and gone to the doys. liking to him, and his faithfulness in business had won his respect. up and gone to the dogs. "But you took me, and I vowed to cent was paid, I fancied that I was free Five years passed, and, impossible as it may seem. Henderson had not an acquaintance in town, except those he had made at his boarding place and shadow me all my days. I cannot get he had made at his boarding place and among his business associates, and out from under it. I shall regret to stay."

Henderson ended with a dry sob, Two people more touching than a flood of tears, views as like than they. There was silence for several moments; question.

nest of any sort. One would never think of his caring to consort with one who seemed to have no other alm in life than business; but for once he strickly honest since you have been here. I have no reason to think you impatiently one day, when for the hundred the think invitation to join some say something to help you. Hender-

The stranger came back before night-fall. He had recalled Mr. Henderson, he sald, though he had known him

"I am your friend now," replied Henderson, with more feeling than he had ever shown before.

"Then come up to the house tonight, like a good fellow."

"I can't, Sherman, truly I can't, now, but perhaps I will sometime."

With that, which was more encouragement than he had ever had before. Roy was compelled to be content.

It was not long after this that a change the subject of the subject. The subject of the subject of the subject. The subject of the s

Mr. Sherman was kindness itself, but he felt that he did not quite like to have him at his house as before, and Henderson began to fancy that he kept a closer watch over every the county. It was not long after this that a change but he felt that he did not quite like to have him at his house as before.

Mr. Sherman made no reply.

Meanwhile Roy carse and went in his usual way, but outsiders were beginning to whisper that young Sherman was sowing a pientiful crop of wild cats.

It is marvelous, he says, to note the number of letters Tillman receives from all over the country, telling him how much he is admired. They are not confined to the West, but come from New York and other Electors.

An overflow meeting of almost equal to the service with money in the

"You take to it as naturally as a dick does to water," be whispered equipment of compend a letter, read it, looked over a carty has possessed you have some out of your shell we will do not put the letter again, to make a formit of yourself all these you have some out of your shell we will do not pest to make up for looked him had been been been as a concept of the many of the properties of plant of the properties of plant of the properties of plant attention whenever be will do not best to make up for looked him had been been as a concept of the plant of the properties of plant attention whenever be will go not best to make up for looked him had been been as a concept of the plant of the properties of plant attention whenever be will go not best to make up for looked him had been been not been a concept of the plant of the pl

Silently they made their way to the hotel, to the room Henderson had taken. Then Roy spoke. "I should like to know bow much derson spoke. He dropped his head on the table as he ended, and sobbed

I don't know what made me do it,

You have saved me. With God's

Should be Nominated for Presicity from New York and Washington, where he has been for the past week on official business. He was in good health and spirits and talked piessantly to a representative of The State on politics, State and national. On the table in his library lay a handsome gold-headed walking cane, with "John Gary Evans, April 24, 1896," engraved thereon. It was presented by an admirer of the governor.

When asked how he was pleased with the actions of the different county conventions, which were held on Monday, he answered that he was like a child.

work was ended.

dent.

Columbia State.

rain, Rey noticing for the first time that his companion was drenched with the rain, but partly from a sense of dread, and partly from vexation he made no comment.

LOOKOUT MOUNTAIN. Annual Meeting of the Convention and Auxiliary Bodies- Deficit in longer you are going to keep this up " he said. "I am about tired of your Mission Funds Funds and Discord Young People's Union.

he said. "I am about thred of your dogging my steps."
"I shall keep it up until I have saved you." was the reply. "Ou, Roy, think of your father, think of your God. Think of your life before you, and all its possibilities. Think what you can make it, and stop before it is too late! I was once just where you are now. I thought I could make my fortune without having to drudge for it. I sinned—just as you are tempted A dispatch from Chattanooga s ys: The city is in the hands of over 3,000 v.siting Baptists, present as delegates and spectators at the sessions of the Southern Baptist Convention. Chat-tanooga feels the mighty impulse that a great religious gathering imparts to community, and for the nonce the c ty is theirs. Hotels and hotel c rriders are thronged with visitors, while 1,000 and odd delegates are ocing entertained gratis in the hospitable homes of citizens. The convention's officers are all quartered at the Southern Hotel, which is the c. ntre of interest. to sin now—and it has ruined my life. I have repented, oh, so bitterly! I have done all in my power to make restitution, but I cannot remove the stain. My sin follows me. and will follew me to my grave. But if I can save you I will die content. Oh, Roy, I have loved you so! Be warned by me. Remember, you can repent, but you can never undo a sin, never. For your father's sake, your mother's your God's, I pray you stop where you are!" All the impatience, recklessness and hardness died out of Roy's face as Henderson spoke. He dropped his head tel, which is the contre of interest. The last of the auxiliary bodies that follow the lead of the big body finished its sessions today. At a largely attended meeting of the trustees of the Baptist Theological seminary located at Louisville, Joshua Levering a millionaire coffee dealer of Baltimore and president of the board, made the seminary a gift of $10,000 for a gymnasium to be erected at once.

Dr. J. B Cranfill, of Texas, vice presidential candidate on the Prohibition ticket in 1892, presided over the session of the Baptist editorial association, at which a number of learned and in-Henderson. I have been wretched ever since I took that cheque. I don't know how I got to this. I had lost heavily. I thought luck would turn. But, God helping me, I will be true as teresting papers were presented. The most trenchant discussion of any topic was upon a paper on "Baptist Academies" by F. W. Boatwrght, the young president of Richmond college.

The element of discord predicted at steel the rest of my days!"

"He will help you, and I shall die happy," said Henderson.

The exposure and strain had been the sessions of the Baptist Young People's Union, an auxiliary of the convention, by reason of violent op-position in the denomination to the existence of a Southern union apart from the Young People's Union of America, did not materialize, opposi-tion to the union coming from churches, and not from members of the auxiliary. Mr. Sherman.

"You have been more than faithful Representatives from the department of the green, the Southern wing of the —you shall be like my own son hence-forth," was the reply, "I can nover repay you for what you have done for Roy." international union, were present, but being visitors took no part in the proceedings.

The old corps of officers was elected blessing, I shall never forget your lessen, and I will try to help others who are tempted as you have helped me," whispered Roy, just at the last.

Henderson smiled gratefully, turned his face to the wall and slept. His by the union, to wit: L.O. Dawson of Tuscaloosa, Ala., president; W.W. Gaines of Atlanta, secretary; P. H.
Mell of Auburn, Ala., first vice president, and C. L. Laws of Bultimore, second vice president.
Mr. Laws resigned, however, giving as a reason that his State, Maryland, did not sympathize with the Southern HE HAS BEEN WITH TILLMAN. union movement, but would stay under the international banner. Birmingham was selected as head-quarters for the society and a board of Governor Evans on the Coming State Convention-He Thinks Tillman seven local managers was appointed.

J. W. Baily, chairman of the committee to select a special board of managers to co-operate with the local board, reported in favor of one mem-Governor Evans has returned to the ber from each State in the convention and a general board of seven named from Alabama.
The Southern Baptist Convention,

the great centre of interest, met at 10 o'clock this morning in the First Baptist church. Amid an impressive silence, President Jonathan Haralson, associate justice of the supreme court of Alabama, opened the session. Dr. S. H. Ford of St. Louis invokel the Divine blessing on the work of the body. The roll call showed 767 acbody. The roll call showed 767 ac-redited delegates present out of a possible 1,422 entitled to seats. Judge Jonathan Haralson of Alabama more than satisfied with the result. When the State convention met on the was re-elected president without a dissenting voice and Dr. Lansing Bur-20th inst., he said, Tillman would be present with a strong majority of the delegates thinking as he does, and ready to act with him. There was no doubt in his mind about Tillman being sent at the head of the delegation for rows of Augusta, Ga., and Rev. O. F. Gregory of Baltimore were elected ready to act with him. There was no doubt in his mind about Tillman being sent at the head of the delegation from this State to Chicago. The delegates would probably go uninstructed, but with a firm determination to nominate a man as candidate fer Fresident who stood for sliver at 76 to 1.

As to bolting, he hardly thought the delegation would find it necessary, for there would be a majority at the Chicago convention holding the same views as they did on the monetary againas secretaries. The president ap views as they did on the monetary iews as they did on the molecury the address of welcome on behalf of the city. Dr. R B, Garrett, paster of the First Baptist church, welcomed the fied with the results in Charleston, convention in the name of the Baptists Greenville and Laurens. One-half of Chattanooga. An eloquent rethe Charleston delegation, he said, sponse to the words of welcome was were stalwart administration men, who were stalwart administration men, who could be relied on. In Laurens Irby barely got in by the 14 Anti delegates in the convention supporting him. He would come to Columbia, but as a member of the State convention, would, to use a slang expression, "not cut any ice."

Trby's inconsistency is being brought out forcibly; he thinks, for last year

J. Northen of Georgia. The reports of Ford of St. Louis, and ex-Governor W. rby's inconsistency is being brought out forcibly; he thinks, for last year the Senator would not hear of a divis-J. Northen of Georgia. The reports of ion of delegates with the Antis, while in turn. Treasurer John C. Williams now it looks as if he is trying hard to the several boards were then submitted now it looks as if no is trying nard to get their support since he is about to lose his seat in the Senate.

The Governor is of the opinion that he is the man who is about to unscat Irby in the Senate. Everything is moving smoothly to that end, so he says, and he entertains no fears of the says, and he entertains no feurs of the has a serious financial problem to meet, which means for the present a When Greenville was mentioned, standing still in the field work. Governor Evans could not repress a smile. "Yes," he said. "Gray and Donaldson have been given back seats." report of the home mission board also shows a deficit of about $8,000. Mission work in Cuba will not be resumed until the close of the rebellion. while many of the convention feel that in Henderson was apparent to even the most casual observer.

He grew ter years younger in one t., "Ashton affirmed. "I should he kept a closer watch over everyly know that he was the same fellow, and I actually saw him at the contourned and lose his head, and be good for nothing at business."

"Ashton," said Mr. Sherman, laughing, "was there ever a time when you weren't worried about something? Here you have been fretting because Henderson was so gloomy and wouldn't Henderson began to fancy that and if it ends the same way no will the fovernor said he had talked with many leading men from all over the United States. Almost every man thought Tillman the logical candidate to nominate on a free silver platform. To win the fight for the Democratic party and silver, against McKinley, it will take a man who as there ever a time when you weren't worried about something? Here you have been fretting because the waste with him at work. "I'm no aboy, but I'm blest if I don't feel like one when he is 'round now."

The fraternal delegates present were against McKinley, it will take a man who as who can arouse the enthusiasm of the people in the West. No half-hearted man would stand any showing, the times requiring a man of Tillman's mar of the service with money in the treasury.

The fraternal delegates present were against McKinley, it will take a man would stand any showing, the times requiring a man of Tillman's mar of the service with money in the treasury.

The fraternal delegates present were against McKinley, it will take a man of Tillman's mar of the service with money in the treasury.

The fraternal delegates present were against McKinley, it will take a man of Tillman's mar would stand any showing, the times requiring a man of Tillman's mar of the service with money in the carry the county.

While in Washington, the Governor said he had talked with many leading to mar from all over the United States. Almost every man thought Tillman the logical candidate to nominate on a free sliver platform. To win the fight to n prognosticate evil."

"Well, you know yourself, Mr. Sherman that folks are very apt to go from one extreme to the other."

"No, I don't, not when one has a good level head like Henderson. So otheer up'-cur right hand isn't going to feel us, take my word for it."

Soon after this Roy celebrated his twenty-first birthday, and Henderson for the first time accepted an invitation to Mr. Sherman's house. Roy's delight was unbounded.

"You take to it as naturally as a duck does to water," he whispered exultingly once during the evoning. "What on earth has possessed you to make a Fermit of yourself all these."

"I do not quite understand this."

"Washington, that was all nonsonses."

"I do not quite understand this."

"I do not quite understand this."

"What or aerth has possessed you to make a Fermit of yourself all these."

"I do not quite understand this."

"What or aerth has possessed you to make a Fermit of yourself all these."

"I do not quite understand this."

"What or aerth has possessed you to make a Fermit of yourself all these."

"I do not quite understand this."

Highest of all in Leavening Power.-Latest U.S. Gov't Report

Baking Powder ABSOLUTELY PURE

MARATHON, 490 B. C.—The Persians, under Datis, were defeated by the Athenians, under Miltiades. Free government preserved.

SYRACUSE, 414 B. C .- The Syracusans and their allies, the Spartans, under Gylippus, defeated the Athenians.

ARBELA, 331 B. C .- The Macedonians and Greeks, under Alexander the Great, defeated the Persians. End of the Persian Empire.

METAURUS, 207 B. C .- The Romans, under Caius and Marcus Livius, defeated the Carthagenians under Hasdrubal. PHILIPPI, 42 B. C .-- Brutus and and Antony, and the fate of the Re- Empire. public decided.

WINFIELD-LIPPE, 9 A. D .- Teu- point in our civil war. tonic independance was established by the defeat of the Roman legions, | battle of the Franco-German war. under Varus, by the Germans under | The Housekeeper. Arminius (Hermann.)

CHALONS, 451 A. D.—The confederate armies of Romans and Visigoths defeated the Huns, under Attila called the "Scourge of God."

My grandpa is the strangest man!

Of course I love him dearly;
But really it does seem to me Tours, 732 A. D .- Charles Martel defeated the Saracens and rescued Christendom from Islam. HASTINGS, 1066 A. D .- William the Conqueror defeated the English army commanded by Harold, and a new regime was established in England by the Normans. SIEGE OF ORLEANS, 1429 A. D .-The French, under Joan of Arc, defeated the English. DEFEAT OF THE SPANISH ARMADA 1588 A. D.—England saved from Spanish invasion.

LUTZEN, 1632 A. D.—Gustavus Ado'phus killed, and the religious liberties of Germany decided.

BLENHEIM, 1704 A. D.-The English and their allies, under Marlborough, defeated the French and Bavarians, under Marshal Tallard. PULTOWA, 1709 A. D .- The Russians, under Peter the Great, defeated Charles XII, of Sweden. SARATOGA, 1777 A. D.—Critical battle of the American Revolution. The Americans, under General Gates, defeated the British.

VALMY, 1792 A. D .- The French, under Kellermann, defeated an in-

The Decisive Battles of History. vading army of Austrians, Prussians and Hessians, under the Duke of Brunswick. The first success of the Republic against foreigners.

> TRAFALGAR, 1805 A. D .- The reat naval battle of Trafalgar was fought October 21st, of this year, when the English defeated the French and destroyed Napoleon's to £1,800. hopes of a successful invasion of England.

WATERLOO, 1815 A. D .- The allied armies of Russia, Austria, Prussia and England, under the Duke of Wellington, defeated the French, under Napoleon.

SIEGE OF SEBASTOPOL, 1854-5 A. D. -The Russians succumbed to the beleaguring armies of France, Tur-Cassius were defeated by Octavius layed the expansion of the Russian key and England, and the result de-

GETTYSBURG, July, 1863 A. D .-ACTIUM, 31 B. C .- The fleets of The decisive battle of the war be-Antony and Cleopatra were defeated tween the States. The Union forces by Octavius, and imperialism was under Meade, defeated the Confedestablished in the person of Octavius. erates, under Generel Lee. Turning SEDAN, 1870 A. D.—The decisive

Grandpa's Way.

He looks at things so queerly !

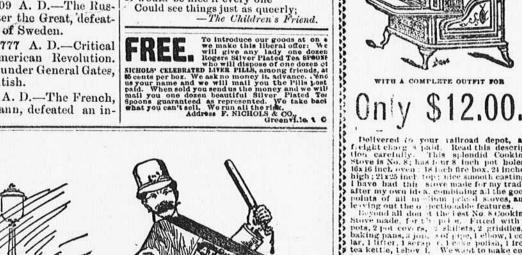

He always thinks that every day Is right, no matter whether t rains or snows, or shines or blows,

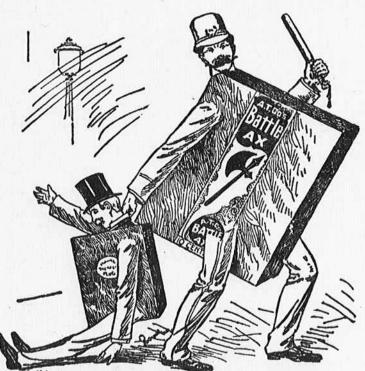

Or what the kind of weather. When outdoor fun is ruined by A heavy shower provoking, He pats my head and says: "You see, The dry earth needs a soaking."

And when I think the day too warm For any kind of pleasure, He says: "The corn has grown an inch-I see without a measure.

And when I fret because the wind Has set my things all whirling, He looks at me and says: "Tut! tut! This close air needs a stirring! He says when d ifts are piling high,

And fence-posts scarcely peeping: 'How warm beneath their blanket white The little flowers are keeping !" Sometimes I think, when on his face His sweet smile shines so clearly, It-would be nice if every one

"One of the Finest."

The largest piece of good tobacco ever sold for io cents and The 5 cent piece is nearly as large as you get of other high grades for 10 cents

Who is Will Whitener?

He is our Fas'nonable Hair Cutter and Shaver, -IN BENDELLA HOTEL .-

In 1891 it was decided that the ap-pointments in the British foreign office should be interchangeable with attache-SOUTHERN RAILWAY. ships in the diplomatic service, and the history of Europe. In 1892 shorthand was added by direction of Lord Rose-bery, then foreign secretary. The exami-Cenuensed Schedule of Passenger Trains. nation in modern languages is of a very Northbound. | Ves. Fat M. No. 12 No. 18 Jan. 5, 1896. | Daily | Daily | E Sun nation fee of £6 is demanded. Attaches receive no salary until they serve two years; then they take the place of third secretaries, with a salary of £150. Second secretaries receive £300 to £500, while commercial attaches get £1,000 to £1,300. The prospects of clerks are excellent, for the diplomatic service comprises 132 members, and £1,000 is by no means an uncommon salary. There are 26 ministers with salaries running from £1,250 to £6,000, while those of embassadors vary from £5,500 to £9,000 a year. It is	"Atlanta, E.T. Norcross Buford Gatnesville Luia. Cornella Mt. Airy Toccos Westininster Sencea Central Greenville Spartanburg Gaffneys Blacksburg King's Mt. Gastonia Ar. Chariotte	1 00 p 3 25 p 4 45 p 6 30 p 6 18 p 7 06 p 8 20 p 12 00 a	12 1.5 A 12 26 A 2 01 A 2 23 A 2 25 A 2 25 A 3 15 A 4 07 A 4 07 A 4 07 A 6 18 A 6 18 A 6 18 A 7 07 A 8 33 A 1 30 P	1 50 a 1 9 58 a 1 10 44 a 11 04 a 11 26 a 11 25 a 11 25 a 12 27 b 12 42 a 12 27 b 12 42 a 12 27 b 12 42 a 11 25 a 12 27 b 12 42 a 11 25 a 12 27 b 12 42 a 12 a 12 a 12 a 12 a 12 a 12 a 1	5 35 p 6 28 5 7 08 p 7 43 p 8 12 p noteworthy that the British embassadors now at Washington and Constantineple respectively commenced their careers as junior clerks in the foreign office.— Chambers' Journal.	Ar. Richmond Ar. Washington Baltim'e. P RR Philadelphia. New York	6 00 a 6 42 a 8 05 a 10 25 a 12 53 u	6 40 p 10 40 p 11 20 p 3 00 a 6 20 a	4 00 a

PIEDMONT AIR LINE.

	Southbound.	Ves. No. 37 Daily	Fat MI No. 35 Daily	No. 11 Fally	No. 17 E Sun
THE LAUR ENS BAR.	Lv. N. Y., P R R . Philadelphia Baltimore Washington	9 20 p	12 15 u 5 50 a 6 22 a 11 15 a
SIMPSON & BARKSDALE, Attorneys at Law, LAURENS, SOUTH CAROLINA Special attention given to the investigation of titles and collection of claims	" Greenville	10 49 a	1 50 a 2 35 a	9 00 a 1 00 a 12 20 p 1 95 p 1 87 p 2 10 p 2 18 p 3 95 p 4 40 p
B. W. BALL. L. W. SIMKINS. W. W. BALL BALL, SIMKINS & BALL, Attorneys at Law, LAURENS, SOUTH CAROLINA. Will practice in all State and United States Court. Special attention given collections.	Westminster Toccoa. Mt. Airy. Corneita. Luia Gainesville Buford. Norcross. Ar. Atlanta, E. T.	3 31 p	3 00 a 3 50 a 4 41 a 4 50 a	6 % p 6 2. p 6 48 p 7 4 p 8 12 p 8 12 p 10 30 p 14. p 10 30 p	7 20 a 7 48 a 8 27 a 9 30 a
J. T. JOHNSON. W. R. RICKEY,		-Washin ed. Th ork and	ngton an rough P New Orl	d fouth	sleepers

ington, Atlanta and Montgomery, and also be-tween New York and Memphis, via Washington, Atlanta and Birmingham. Dining cors. Nos. 35 and 36—United States Fast hail. Pullman sleeping cars between Atlarta, New Orleans and New York. Nos. 11 and 12. Pullman sleeping car between Richmond, Danville and Greensbo v

W. H. GREEN, J. M. CULP, Gen'l Supt., Washington, D. C. Washington, D.

Delivered to your railroad depot, all frieight charg a paid. Read this description carefully. This splendid Cooking stove is No. 8; has four 8 inch pot holes; 16x16 inch oven: 18 i.e.h fire box, 24 inches high; 21x25 inch top; nice smooth casting. I have had this slove made for my trade, after my own idea, combining al the good noilits of all medium peled sloves, and leaving out the o jectionable features.

Leyend all don't the lest No. 8 Cooking Stove made, for the paids. Fixed with 2 Reyona hil don't lie rest No. 8 Cooking Stove made, fort'b pie s. Fitted with 2 Pots, 2 pot cov. rs. 1 Skillets, 2 griddles, 3 baking pans, 3 jon. 8 of rige, 1 ebow, 1 col-lar, 1 lifter, 1 serso r. 1 coke polish, 1 fron tea kettle, 1 show 1. We want to make cus-tomers and friends in everypat of the tomers and friends in every part of the South, for the purpose of introducing our business to new people, and to renew our acquaintance with old it ends.

We will ship this special decoding Stove and the above described water to an eleven all freight charges paid for only $.2.00 when the cash comes with the order This stove is a good one, well made, and will give entire satisfact in Our dinstrated extalogue of Farniance, who as and Baby Carriages mailed free. Address

L. F. PADGETT, Canada and a constant and a constant

ATLANTIC COAST LINE PASSENGER DEPARTMENT.

Wilmington, N. C., April 18th, 1896. FAST LINE

-BETWEEN-Charleston and Columbia and Upper South Carolina, North Carolina, and Athens and Atlanta.

Going W	est.	Joing East
No. 52.		Nov. 53
7 00am*		Ar 5 50pm
831	· · · · · · · Lanes · · · · · ·	7.12
9 43	Sumter	5.58
10 55	Ar Columbia.	Ly 1 10
11 58	···· Prosperity	3.03
12 10pm	Newberry	2.50
12 50	····· Clinton ·····	2.10
1 15	Laurens	1 45
233	Greenwood
3 00	Abbeville
5 10	Athens, Ga
7 45	· · · · · Atlanta · · · · ·
6 05pm	Winnsboro, S. C.,	10 34am
8 20	Charlotte, N. C	8 10
3 16pm	Ar Anderson, S. C I	y 1. (v)an:
4 21	Greeenville	149 (30)
240	Spartanburg	11.28
5 36	Hendersonville N.C.	14 12 3
6 45	Asheville, N. C	8 90

Atlanta. H. M. EMERSON,
Ass't Gen'l Passenger Agt.
J. R. KENLY, T. M. EMERSON,
Gen'l Manager. Traffic Manager. South Carolina and Georgia Railroad Co

THE CHARLESTON LINE.

Schedule in effect March 10, 1895. COLUMBIA DIVISION .- East Bound Ly Columbia. 6 | Ar Branchyille 9 | Ly Branchyille 9 | Ar Charleston 1 | Ly Columbia 4 | Ar Charleston 5 | Ar Charleston

CONNECTION. At Columbia with Southern Railway to and from all points in upper South and North Carolina. Through trains between Charleston and Asheville, N. C.

Any other information, folders, maps, etc. will be furnished on application te

E. S. BOWEN, General Manager, Cclumbia
S. C.

L. A. EMERSON 7 raffic Manager, Charles ton, S. C.

ton, S. C. G. H. PARKS, Traveling Agent, Columbia 8, C.

Leaphart Balentine
White Rock
Chaptain
Little Mountain Slighs Gray's Lane ... Kinard Goldville

Agent at Prosperity

W. B. RYDER, Superintendent, Charlotte
North Carolina.
W. A. TURK,
Gen'l Pass. Ag't,
Washington, D. O.
Stlanta, Gen'l Pass. Ag't, W. A. TURK, S. Gen'l Pass. Ag't, Washington, D. O. SOUTHERN RAILWAY.

Condensed Schedule in Effect

FEBRUARY 23rd, 1894. STATIONS. Ninely-Six. Hodges ... Abbeville Anderson Arconville STATIONS eouville. illiamston. Abbeville Daily Daily No.15 No.13

"P," p. m. "A," a. m. "P," p. m. "A," a. m.

Trains 15 and 16 carry elegan Putturn sleeping cars between Columbia and Ashevil', enroute daily between Jacksonville and Cinetic nati.

Trains leave Spartanburg, A & Svisio i, porthbound, 6:18 a. m., 3:22 p. m., (Vestibule Limited); southbound 1 a. n. p. n., (Vestibule Limited); Southbound 1 a. n. a. m., (Vestibule Limited).

Trains leave Greenville, A. and (. divisio i, northbound, 5:25 a. m., 2:15 p. m. and 5:39 p. n., (Vestibuled Limited); Southbound, 5:30 s. n., (Vestibuled Limited).

Pullman Service.

Pullman Service. Puliman palace sleeping ears on T. Ans 35 and 80, 37 and 38, on A. and C. division.
W. H. GREEN, J. M. CUI P. Gen. Superintendent, Washington, D. C. Washington, D. C. Washington, D. C. Washington, D. C. Ast Gen. 1 St. Agt. Washington, D. C. Ast Gen. 1 St. Agt. Washington, D. C. Ast Gen. 1 St. Agt.

DORT ROYAL & WEST! NCAL. Asheville Short Line." J. B. leveland Receiver. Schedule in effect teb 13th

TO ATHENS, ATLANTA AND POINTS WEST. Ly Greenwood. 5 23 pm Ar Raleigh 1 26 am Norfolk. 700 am schedules, etc., address W. J. CRAIG, Gen. Pass. Agent. Agent, Greenville, S. C.

Columbia, Laurens an I Newberry R. R.

Slighs	6 22
Prosnerity	6 41
Prosnerity	6 41
Newberry	7 98
Jalana	7 375
Gray's Lane	7,17
Kinard	7 57
Goldville	8 10
Dover	8 52

 4 05 pm 6 35 pm 5 00 ans

Close connections at Greenwood for all points on S. A. L. and C. & G. Raisway, and at Spartanburg with Southern Raisway. For information relative to tickets, rates.

F. E. SCHUMPERT,

Lv. Atlanta, C. T. 12 00m | 11 15 p | 7 60 a 4 35 p

Competition In Diplomacy

entrance examinations were then made the same. The limits of age are 19 and 25, and the nomination rests with the foreign secretary. The scheme of examination embraces French, German, Spanish, Portuguese, Russian, Latin and the searching character. Vacancies are few

-about four annually—and an exami-nation fee of £6 is demanded. Attaches

LAURENS, SOUTH CAROLINA Will practice in all State and Uni States Court. Special attention collections. J. T. JOHNSON. JOHNSON & RICHEY, ATTORNEYS AT LAW.

Office .- Fleming's Corner, Northwe

side of Public Square. LAURENS, - SOUTH CAROLINA W. H. MARTIN. Attorney at Law, LAURENS, - SOUTH CAROLINA. Will practice in all Courts of this State Attention given to collections.

NOODCOOL CONTRACTOR OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PRO A $25 COOKING STOVE