

Bill App, who recently lectured both at Clinton and Laurens has written up his visit in a very interesting manner for the Atlanta Constitution. We would like to reproduce the whole, but can only give the following extracts:

"While in Clinton I was the guest of Mr. Bailey, the banker and mill man, a model gentleman of the old school whose maxims are truth and honesty, whose sons and daughters are like olive plants around his table and have never given him a moment's grief or anxiety. And now that they are all grown up and established in their own business, he has adopted several hundred factory children and is delighted every day to visit them in the cotton mill and place his hand kindly and gently upon their heads as he passes them at the spindle or the loom. He has built for them a church and employed a preacher and established a Sunday school and it has awakened in his bosom a new love for his fellow creatures and he is growing young again."

"The traveler is told that a flight of a smoke stack here in Carolina, I am just from the good old town of Laurens, only ten miles away, and they have a mill there with 30,000 spindles and 800 looms. When the every county spins and weaves all the cotton it grows then will the South be truly independent."

JOHN H. SULLIVAN.
The subject of this sketch was born in Greenville county, March 8th 1821. When quite young his parents moved to Tumbling Shoals, in Laurens county, near which place he spent most of his life.

On July 14th, 1844, he was married to Miss Mary L. Curton and together they lived happily for nearly fifty years. Early in life he united himself with the Baptist church and remained a constant member until the time of his death. A few years ago he met with an accident that caused him to remain a cripple. He suffered a great deal of pain, but bore it with a Christian's fortitude. He was unable for several years to attend church, but his pastor and friends were very kind to him and preaching and prayer-meetings were occasionally held at his home and on such occasions he would get full of the Holy Ghost and shout God's praises. Only a few days before his death he called his wife to his bed, and in the most tender words told her that he would soon leave her, but that separation would not be long, and that they would be again united in God's house never to be separated again.

On the morning of July 29th just as the sun rose his soul ascended to God whom he loved and served.

We miss our father and when we look on the dear old homestead our hearts sicken, but when we look up to the blue sky we know that father now rests in our Heavenly Father's hand. Farewell dear father, may thy wife and all thy children meet in heaven and behold thee awaiting thy loved ones.

DAUGHTER.

THE GIRL FROM CHILL.
A continuous series of laughs and shouts marked the initial performance of Fitz and Webster's effervescent farce at the High Street theatre yesterday.

The performance inaugurated a half week's engagement and if the laughter continues for the rest of the week as it began, there will be thousands of sore sides in Columbus by the time the curtain rings down Saturday night. Fitz & Webster are well remembered as the stars of "A Breezy Time," and their comedy company presenting "The Girl From Chill" not only have a breezy time themselves, but they create a cyclone of amusement in the audience.

"The Girl from Chill," is a tangle of ludicrous situations, a conglomeration of odd circumstances and a medley of mirthful mishaps, all rolled into one big dose of laughter.

The skit has a number of bright specialties and has about as much plot as the usual farce.—Columbus, (Ohio) State Journal, Sept. 22nd, 1899.

At the Opera House, Thursday, March 1st. Admission 35, 50 and 75 cents.

A Cotton Mill.

Energetic young men of the city are prospecting to build a cotton mill in the city. There is little reason why they should not succeed. Dr. B. F. Posey and Mr. C. D. Barksdale are energetic, competent gentlemen, worthy of all confidence and if success is reasonably within reach they will win.—These are moving in the matter.

Death of Mrs. Dorothy Moseley.
Died at her home in Altus, Ark., on the 13th inst. Mrs. Dorothy E. Moseley aged about 71 years. The deceased was the relict of the late Thomas Moseley, who went from this county to the West in 1854. She leaves many friends and relatives here as well as friends and two sons and one daughter at her home to mourn her loss.

Washington's Birthday at Cross Hill.
Washington's Birthday was made notable at Cross Hill by a delightful entertainment given by Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Simmons' at their charming and hospitable home. The guests were bidden to come in costume of the George and Martha Washington period and representing some particular character.

The characters were impersonated cleverly and by the pretty girls beautifully while there were also numerous guests in the evening dress of to-day. The guests and some of their impersonations were as follows: Miss Sarah Austin, "Florence Girl"; Miss Lulu Leaman, "Helen of Troy"; Miss Lillie Brown, "Morning Star"; Miss Anderson, "Winter"; Miss Bessie Crisp, "Widow"; Miss Alleine Miller, "Typhoid Maid"; Miss Willie Wardlaw, "Peach Blossom"; Miss Bessie Brown, "Scottish Lassie"; Miss Lizzie Carter, "Summer"; Miss Sarah Beeks, "Snow"; Miss Kittie McGowan, "Red Riding Hood"; Mr. J. B. Willcutt, "Lord Cornwallis"; J. Crisp, "Isaac Man"; Dr. J. M. Owens, "Judge"; J. L. Miller, "Henry Clay"; P. B. Goodman, "Crown"; H. F. McSwain, "Sergeant Jackson"; L. B. Potts, "Count Pulaski"; J. C. Austin, "Countryman"; A. B. Riley, "Uncle Sam."

The Best of All.
Of the many pretty calendars for 1900, the "LITTLE SWEETHEARTS" is the best for the home. Its six sections of bright, pretty children's faces will cheer and gladden any household. There are six beautiful groupings, in water-color designs, by Frances Brundage, the famous painter of children; each group in 12 colors and size 10x12 inches, on fine Whitman paper, bound together at top with silk ribbon, making the greatest and most artistic collection of water-color reproduction ever issued. Each of the six sheets contains two months' dates, fixing a complete calendar for the year 1900. This calendar is sent free to subscribers to Frank Leslie Popular Monthly for 1900, the giant of the one dollar magazines, together with the November and December numbers, 1899, or the January and February issues, 1900. FRANK LESLIE PUBLISHING HOUSE, 141-143 Fifth Ave., N. Y.

CROSS HILL NOTES.
Winter has been very cold. Nothing has been done on the farms, but we trust that spring is near at hand. Washington's birthday was duly observed by our young people with a fancy dress party at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Simmons. The costumes of ladies and gentlemen were unique, interesting, striking and characteristic. We would be glad to go into detail and describe each, but time and space forbid and will only say all were good, some better and some best, but a great deal of taste was shown and some skill and much knowledge in the various costumes.

Dr. J. M. Owens has opened a full line of drugs and sundries. The exercises at our school on Washington's birthday were of an interesting and instructive character, consisting of songs, recitations, etc., all of a national and patriotic character. Our teachers, Prof. Riley and Mrs. McSwain are doing everything in their power to instruct the mind and train the moral's and patriotism of our children.

The Legislature has met and adjourned and much wind has been expended, not much done which is well, and a great deal left undone which is better. Now the political cauldron will begin to boil and with trusts, dispensary, free silver, gold standard, Porto Rico, Philippine, etc., all of a national and patriotic character. Our teachers, Prof. Riley and Mrs. McSwain are doing everything in their power to instruct the mind and train the moral's and patriotism of our children.

The Prohibitionists.
A committee consisting of Joel E. Brunson, Chairman, S. S. Moffatt, E. D. Smith, Jas. A. Hoyt, F. H. Hyatt, W. C. Thompson and Jeremiah Smith have issued an address "To the people of South Carolina." This means that the Prohibitionists will atleast contend for the Governorship, if not to control the Legislature. Several gentlemen are mentioned as standard bearers of the temperance column.

Miss Camp Entertains.
The parlors of the Ben-Della Hotel last Monday afternoon between the hours of four and six was the scene of a delightful gathering of the young people of Laurens, the occasion being a progressive whist party given by Miss Mary Waller Camp to Mrs. Rolfe E. Hughes. About a dozen couples were entertained and the hostess Miss Camp, assisted by her friends Mrs. Hughes and Mrs. E. M. Matthews made the event one of the most genuinely enjoyable of the winter. The Ivy decorations lent a very graceful and artistic effect to the rooms and particularly appetizing refreshments were served.

The winner of the first lady's prize, a pair of silver scissors, was Miss Lattie Jones.

The gentleman's prize, a silver stamp box, was achieved by Mr. Jack Sitzgroves.

Those present were Misses Lattie C. Jones, Emmie Menz, Lill Harris, Amy Nolan, Sara Ball, Perrin Farrow, Mary Waller Camp, Laura Irby, Mrs. Claude Fuller, Mrs. W. E. Lucas, Mrs. T. D. Dargatz, Mrs. J. M. Matthews, Mrs. R. E. Hughes, Messrs. J. W. C. Johnson, Jesse Vance, W. H. Washington, R. V. Irby, E. M. Matthews, Dr. R. E. Hughes and W. W. Ball.

Convocation.
The Episcopal Convocation of the Episcopal church held its winter session with the church of the Epiphany, this city, during last week. There were in attendance the Right Rev. Ellison Capers, Bishop of the Diocese; the Rev. J. D. McCullough, D. D., Archdeacon; the Revs. J. W. C. Johnson, W. P. Witsell, W. T. Capers, S. R. Guignard, J. C. Johns, W. S. Holmes, J. M. Mcgruder, Edward McCready, O. T. Forcher and N. Joyner. Preliminary services were held on Monday evening, continuing during the entire week, the presence of the distinguished Bishop contributing to the deep interest of the occasion. The business meetings and services were largely enjoyed by our Christian people with a large attendance as a rule. A small class was confirmed by the Bishop on the morning of Friday last. On Thursday afternoon the Woman's Auxilliary tendered a reception to the Bishop and visiting clergymen at the Bendella Hotel, which was largely attended and most enjoyable. Light refreshments were served. The body was adjourned Friday evening to meet at Glenn Springs in July next. Rev. W. T. Capers, the brilliant young rector of Anderson, son of the Bishop, remained over and conducted services on Sunday morning and afternoon in the church of the Epiphany and in the evening at the Methuist church. The occasion of the visitation of this brilliant and consecrated body of Christian gentlemen has been greatly enjoyed, and a large and generous hospitality, characteristic of our town, heartily extended them. In leaving appropriate resolutions recognizing the kind hospitality and graceful attentions shown them were passed, with happy expressions from the visiting body.

Spain's Greatest Need.
Mr. R. P. Olivia, of Barcelona, Spain, spends his winter at Aiken, S. C. Weak nerves had caused severe pains in the back of his head. On using Electric Bitters, American Remedy, all pain soon left him.—He says this grand medicine is what his country needs. All America knows that it cures liver and kidney troubles, purifies the blood, tones up the stomach, strengthens the nerves, puts vim, vigor and new life into every muscle, nerve and organ of the body. If weak, tired or ailing, you need it. Every bottle guaranteed, only 50 cents. Sold by The Laurens Drug Co.

Early season actually is sure to break the lines a little. So don't be later than you can help.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer one hundred dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

If You Ever Use Medicine

It is well for you to remember that there is very little use to have a first-class doctor to write your prescription if the medicine is put together by an incompetent or careless pharmacist, or with drugs which have lost their strength. It is just as important to have a good druggist as it is to have a good doctor.

A Man Who Knows

pure drugs from the other kind is in charge of our prescription department, consequently, prescriptions filled by us contain only the purest drugs obtainable. This, together with our care and accuracy, makes every bottle of medicine that goes out of our store absolutely reliable. It contains just what the doctor orders in its purest form, and in just the right proportions.

We keep in stock everything that belongs in a perfect equipped pharmacy, all of which we sell at LOWEST prices. No one under-sells us quality for quality.
