LAURENS, S. C., Oct. 30, 1901.

Nothing in a Name. A rose by any other name would smell as sweet. There is no doubt about this proposition of the great dramatic poet.

Then indeed, all the gentlemen who are accepting office, favors, and dinings and whinnies, and kissing glasses with the Rough Rider, are good, honest fellows—gentlemen. We are speaking now of South Carolinians.

A Hitch in Time. A merchant but the other day wanted to buy ten car loads of corn through a broker in this city. This is a pointer.

Lee County. In the election on 21st inst., Lee, the proposed new county, seems to have won by a big majority.

Grass is a good thing in its place, but you should not let it grow under your feet. The energetic gentlemen having in charge the "Laurens" fight for the proposed new county should be hustling.

The Charleston Evening Post, which leans towards "Commercial Democracy" discourses of Koesters appointment as a "Judge of the Peace." There is no over-estimating the possibilities of our language.

Coolidge, the assassin, was electrocuted yesterday morning at 7 o'clock at Auburn prison, N. Y. Entire privacy was maintained, and as little notoriety as possible given to the wretch.

Spartanburg County will have a building of its own for its exhibit on the Charleston Expositions grounds. Why cannot Laurens have one too?—Oilton Chronicle.

Please, just answer your own question, brother and save trouble.

FOR ABOUT THE PRICE OF ONE. This Paper and the Atlanta Twice-a-Week Journal for $1.50

Here you get the news of the world and all your local news while it is fresh, paying very little more than one paper costs. Either paper is well worth $1.00 but by special arrangement we are enabled to put in both of them, giving three papers a week for this low price.

You cannot equal this anywhere else, and this comes in THE BEST PREMIUM for those who want a great paper and a home paper. Take these and you will keep up with the times.

The Semi-Weekly Journal makes common cause with the farmers and publishes hundreds of letters from them on farm topics, describing their experience in making crops, etc.

This is a paper devoted to the development of the resources of the South and the welfare of its people.

The Journal is the authorized medium for the publication of master relating to the Cotton Growers' Protective Association, and it contributed liberally to the increased price paid for cotton this season.

Besides general news the Twice-a-Week Journal has a special agricultural matter and other articles of great interest to farmers. It has regular contributions by Sam Jones, Mrs. W. H. Eilton, John Temple Graves, Hon. C. H. Jordan and other distinguished writers.

Call at this office and leave your subscriptions for both papers. You can get a sample copy of either paper here on application.

THE BOOKER WASHINGTON INCIDENT.

Its Effect Will be to Put Quietus on McLaurinism.

EDITOR THE ADVERTISER: The President's entertainment of Booker T. Washington, the good negro, at family dinner has out the jugular of the press of the white republican party in South Carolina.

The President's subsequent appointment in South Carolina of an alleged decent white man as a paralyzing blow to the groggy McLaurin party.

But the President, and more notably, the Northern press that sustains him, grossly and absurdly misinterpret the facts. They construe Southern criticism of the black and white dinner party as the outburst of childish prejudice.

The barrier that the white man raises in the South against social intercourse with the negro is merely the expression of the white man's instinct for the purity of his blood.

This profound feeling, call it prejudice if preferred, does not exist generally in the North because the mixture of numbers is absent.

But Southern men had hoped that in this relationship to the negro that embraced and threatened them here, they had the sympathy, the tolerance and hopeful sympathy of the President and the North.

The Washington dinner and its reception in the North explodes this hope. It is well that the President, it is well that the Northern "free press" and the Northern "black and white" press, that social equality is the goal that they wish for the negro.

It is possible that this incident is of only passing significance. We hope that is so. We hope that it does not permanently mean that the appearances of friendliness on the part of the North towards the South made so plain by Mr. McKinley's administration are null.

Grass is a good thing in its place, but you should not let it grow under your feet. The energetic gentlemen having in charge the "Laurens" fight for the proposed new county should be hustling.

Gentlemen of the Grand Jury.

I must confess my surprise at your course of myself before the court after having me before your honorable body in the Grand Jury room, and expressing yourselves as satisfied with my statement of my official conduct.

Too Busy to Change and LOOK OUT for this space next week. Fleming Bros

The undersigned tax payers of Laurens County. Now twelve names appear signed to it. Eight of the twelve are not on the tax books of Laurens County. But one of the twelve live in our county, the other eleven live in Newberry.

This wonderful array of citizenship from Newberry pays taxes to the amount of $11.09 in Laurens county. We have in Laurens county a population of 37,586, as per census 1901, and $5,096,688 of assessed property, and no complaint from these to ensure the Newberry heresy.

Now gentlemen I cannot see your design. But I expect to do my duty as I see it in the interest of every citizen of Laurens county, and will not be driven by any one.

In conclusion I will say to the honorable gentlemen with whom I am here, it seems to be so much interested in the roads of Laurens county, and have not contributed one cent for these betterments, each of you will send me one dollar I will take that as a pressure in making your paths smooth and straight that a way-faring man may not err therein.

Respectfully, J. S. DRUMMOND, Supervisor L. C.

WINE OF CARDUI. The greatest ambition of American men and women is to have homes blessed with children. The woman afflicted with female disease is constantly menaced with becoming a childless wife.

A NEW LAW FIRM. The undersigned have this day entered into a partnership for the practice of law in the Courts of this State, under the name of Simpson & Cooper and will promptly attend to all business entrusted to them.
