AN AGED LADY BURNED TO DEATH

Miss Nancy Robertson Perished in Flames.

SUPPOSED CAUSE.

The House Destroyed by Fire.

Lived Near Gray Court-Occurred at Midnight-Lived Alone-12 Miles from Here.

Miss Naucy Robertson, aged seventy odd years, was burned to death Monday night in the destruction of her home by fire. She lived on a tract of land, in which she had a life estate, which was rented by Mr. Whitley, in a house of aute bellum construction, about one hundred yards from the house occupied by Mr. Whitley and twelve o'clock Monday night by Mr. Zeno Wilson, who was sitting up with turned to her home Monday. a sic's relative. He hastened to the scene and aroused Mr. Whitley. When they reached the burning house they found it entirely 'enveloped in flames It was too late to rescue the lone in mate, or save any of the contents.

The afternoon before, Mrs. Whitley carried Miss Robertson, as was her custom, her evening meal. It seems she was engaged in quilting, having on on hand a large quantty of batting. The lamp she used was without a chimney Besides there was a great deal of other inflammible material in the house The reasonable supposition is that in some way the batting caught from the lamp, and Miss Robertson suffocated before she could escape or give the alarm. It is easily conceived that her clothing may have caught from the First Methodist Church at this place. burning batting, thus preventing her exit from the house.

It is said Miss Robertson's bone were exhumed yesterday. She had lived alone for years.

Mr. John Robertson and Mrs. Dock Armstrong of this county are her nearest relatives.

Get the Best for the Asking.

When you order a sack of patent flour from your grocer, do not tell him flour from your grocer, do not tell him to send you "a sack of good flour," but tell him to send you a sack of "Clifton," because "Clifton" is the best patent. Every sack is sold with this guarantee, and if it does not prove as represented, your money will be refunded. "Clifton" is an all-round flour, and is as good for cake and pastry as light rolls and biscuits.

A startling incident, is narrated by John Oliver, of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters, to my great joy the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed,
