

READ, LISTEN, ACT!

We want to beg you as you Value your own interest that you read every word of this advertisement. There is a good deal of it but nothing short of this great volume of "store news" could do justice to the Grand Outlay of Merchandise we are showing. We want to say further that what we say here is only an intimation of what you will see when you visit us. We can write about the Goods but your eyes must see and your hand feel the quality and your ears hear the prices before you can realize what values we are really offering.
