

J. E. Minter & Bro's

GREAT

BEGINNING AT 8:30 O'CLOCK

Wednesday Morning, January 10th.

We will inaugurate the second great Mill and Factory Sale—this sale that saves the people hundreds of dollars. We have made tremendous preparations for this sale. Goods are being received on every train from the great factories. We cannot attempt to describe in this small circular the many wonderful money-saving values that will be on sale during this sale. You were astonished how cheap we sold goods during our first Mill and Factory Sale last summer, and you will be still more surprised when you see what wonderful bargains we will offer in our January sale. Notwithstanding the tremendous advance in all lines of goods you will be able to buy goods almost as cheap as when cotton was selling at 5 cents per pound. It behooves you, therefore, to take advantage of this wonderful opportunity of supplying your needs at mill and factory prices. It will pay you to come miles to this sale, as it will mean many dollars saved to you on winter goods for winter wear and early spring use.
