Ekorn Locals.
Ekorn, May 14.—On account of so much rain the farmers are just finishing planting cotton. Some of the first planting is now being chopped out. Several from this section went to Wares Shoals fishing last week. Mr. Tom Cooper and daughter of Lanford visited relatives here last week. Mr. E. B. Culbertson of Honea Path visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Y. J. Culbertson a few days ago. Several of our young people attended the picnic at Jones. Mr. Broadus Cooper of the Poplar Springs section spent Saturday night with his father Mr. T. J. Cooper. Mr. T. C. McDaniel is quite sick at this time.

Have you pains in the back, inflammation of any kind, rheumatism, fainting spells, indigestion or constipation. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea makes you well, keeps you well. 35 cents. Ask your druggist.

It will be to your interest to see our line of Felt and Cotton Mattresses before you buy, as we can sell you best quality of Mattresses at prices that you would have to pay for Mattresses made of cheaper quality of material.

STATE BANKERS' ASSOCIATION.

Three Days of Grace on Bank Notes May be Cut Out.

Greenville, May 12.—Having completed the transaction of all business before the convention, the annual meeting of the South Carolina Bankers' association came to an end early yesterday afternoon, but a few still linger in Greenville. By to-morrow evening all the visitors will have left the city. The annual election of officers was the last important act of the convention before adjournment. All nominations were made by committee and the following were chosen by a unanimous ballot on motion of J. H. Thayer: W. J. Roddey, of Rock Hill, president. W. D. Morgan, of Georgetown, vice president. Giles I. Wilson, secretary and treasurer.

Members of the executive committee: D. D. McColl, Bennettsville; J. C. Self, Greenwood; L. C. Harrison, Yorkville. Delegates to the American Bankers' Association—E. P. Grice, Charleston; L. W. Parker, Greenville; W. J. Montgomery, Marion. Attorney for the association—A. Markley Lee, of Charleston. A number of resolutions, some of which were of grave importance to the financial welfare of the State, were introduced by the committee on resolutions yesterday, and duly acted upon by the convention. Wilson G. Harvey, chairman, read the resolutions for the committee.

Perhaps the most important resolution received and adopted was that looking toward the appointment of a commission by the Legislature to examine and audit the books and accounts of all corporations doing business in South Carolina; the idea being to ascertain the true condition, reliability and for the protection of the public. The executive committee will probably make an effort to have such a law framed at the next General Assembly. There was some discussion on the resolution, but no opposition to it. President Montgomery and others pointing out that there had been more than one financial crash within recent years in the State by which many innocent stockholders and the public generally suffered. Such things, he said, could in a measure be prevented by the constant supervision of an auditing commission. It is probable that the time honored rule giving 3 days of grace on bank paper and notes will be abolished in the course of time. According to a resolution adopted yesterday the bankers' association will make an effort to have the Legislature pass such an act at the next session.

"Butting" into the Navy.
"Butting" into business is comparatively easy, "butting" into society is common, but "butting" into the navy is both rare and painful. Paul J. Anderson, who recently was examined at the recruiting office, Minneapolis, was found an eighth of an inch too short for acceptance. He went outside, knocked his head against a substantial building, and came back with an eighth of an inch to spare over the required height. It would have been a shame not to accept a man of this sort.—The Bluejacket.

To Trustees of First Methodist Church. Gentlemen:—

It's sound sense that we tell you. It will cost less dollars to paint your church with L. & M. Paint, because more painting is done with one gallon of L. & M. than with two gallons of other paints, and the L. & M. Zinc hardens the L. & M. White Lead and makes the L. & M. Paint wear like iron. Any church will be given a liberal quantity free whenever you paint 4 gallons L. & M. mixed with 3 gallons Linseed Oil will paint a moderate sized house. L. & M. costs only $1.20 per gallon. J. E. Webb, Painter, Hickory, N. C. writes: "Houses painted with L. & M. 15 years ago have not needed painting since."

Sold by W. L. Boyd, Laurens, S. C. and Clinton Pharmacy, Clinton, S. C.

AT TARGET PRACTICE.

Oh! who would be a landsman And never feel the tide Of fiery exultation And patriotic pride Go bounding through his pulses, And sweeping o'er his soul, When o'er the dark-blue waters The guns begin to roll?

The acrid smell of powder Is heavy on the air, The black and shining muzzles With jets of crimson flare, To every foe of freedom They sound the crack of doom When o'er the tossing ocean The guns begin to boom.

The hurtling shells go singing Above the surging brine A song of naval glory That fires the blood like wine. O, who would be a landsman And walk upon the billows When o'er the foaming billows The guns begin to roar! —Minna Irving, in the Bluejacket.

"Oh, I AM SO TIRED!"

Is heard daily from old and young, rich and poor. Did you ever stop and consider the cause of this remark? We will venture to say nine cases out of ten are caused by improper digestion. This, or other symptoms of indigestion such as nervousness, nausea, heart-burn, sour stomach, flatulency and despondency, should be a warning to you who are in danger of having indigestion, the greatest enemy of American health to-day, fasten its merciless fangs on your health. Remember, "A stitch in time saves nine", and a bottle of the celebrated Kellum's Sure Cure for Indigestion has saved untold misery to people in many parts of this broad land, by curing them permanently of this miserable disease. Yes, not like the pepsin digestives that help for a time, but cures permanently by causing the digestive organs to perform their functions. Nature being such a great rectifier of its own ills, with the assistance of this powerful medicine, gives you a healthy stomach and removes indigestion and its symptoms permanently. Sold on a $5.00 guarantee. 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle at

Laurens Drug Company.
