

NEGRO SAVED FROM LYNCHING.

Prompt Action of Sheriff and Deputy.

A MISERABLE STORY.

Charley Kennedy, a Negro Farm Hand, Accused of Horrible Crime--Taken to State Prison.

Charley Kennedy, a negro of the Pea Ridge section of the county, was saved from his doom at the hands of a posse of white citizens late Saturday afternoon by the prompt action of Sheriff T. J. Duckett and his deputy, Mr. A. R. Sullivan.

The negro, who is about fifty years old, is accused of a most miserable offense, the alleged seduction of a young white woman, whose mind has not been strong for some years. For several weeks there has been considerable excitement in the Pea Ridge section in consequence of the affair becoming known and it is said that plans to take summary action against the negro two weeks ago were thwarted by the escape of the accused from the community. However, the monster was pursued and was captured at Whitmore, Newberry county, last Friday afternoon. Kennedy was brought back to this county and it was understood that he would be put to death Saturday afternoon.

The sheriff got news to this effect and accompanied by Deputy Sullivan, he hurried to the scene. Kennedy was found securely chained in a barn. The officers hastily broke the lock, placed the negro in a buggy and drove him to Clinton in time to catch the mixed train for Columbia. He is now in the State Penitentiary for safe keeping.

PROTRACTED MEETINGS.

Two Very Interesting Meetings at Baptist Churches in County.

Rev. E. C. Watson has arranged two exceptionally interesting series of religious meetings for the members of his charges at Chestnut Ridge and Rabun Creek. Beginning on the fifth Sunday in July Mr. Watson will conduct a meeting to last about a week or ten days at Chestnut Ridge. The music during this meeting will be in charge of Mr. J. C. Curry, which fact is a guarantee that it will be enjoyed.

Beginning on the first Sunday in August a series of meetings will begin at Rabun Creek and the Rev. Dr. L. M. Roper of Spartanburg will preach every day. Dr. Roper is one of the county's most gifted sons and Mr. Watson could not have made a better choice nor one more acceptable to the congregation.

W. O. W. Picnic at Woodville.

Magnolia Camp, No. 156, W. O. W., will have its annual picnic, July 28th, at Woodville. The public will be cordially welcomed and arrangements have been made for a very enjoyable day. The Hon. Jos. A. McCullough of Greenville will make an address in the morning on some subject connected with the order. Those in charge are justly proud of having secured so brilliant a speaker. Mr. McCullough always wins laurels when he makes an address. The ladies may be depended upon to bring full baskets of the best sort of eatables and these will occupy the attention of the crowd in the middle of the day. In the afternoon opportunity will be afforded to hear the candidates for Congress from this district, invitations having been accepted by Hon. Jos. T. Johnson, Hon. G. H. Mahon and Hon. W. C. Irby, Jr.

Davis, Roper & Company.

Davis, Roper & Company's gigantic Mill End sale will continue for a few days more. They have had a wonderful sale, and the hundreds of people seen at their store, and the number of packages wrapped in their paper is all the argument necessary to convince one that the public has confidence in the announcements they make through the papers. If you have not already been to this wonderful sale you should get busy and go at once to their store and see what splendid values they are offering. Davis, Roper & Co. conduct their own mill end sales and they should be very much gratified at their wonderful success. The public expressed its confidence by turning out in crowds to the sales of this enterprising firm.

Rev. H. R. Moseley.

Rev. Hartwell R. Moseley, who has been located in Cuba for the past several years, in charge of the church work being done there by the Northern Baptist Mission Board, spent a short time in the city this week with his brother, Mr. C. All Roads Lead to Laurens.

The new schedule on the C. N. & L. mentioned last week means even more to Laurens than getting a morning paper early, as much as that is appreciated by all. It is really an additional train to and from Newberry, Clinton and Columbia each week day. We once had a schedule something like the present one but it had been discontinued. We now have three trains a day each way to and from Columbia, Spartanburg, Greenville and Greenwood. One of these will be improved by conversion from an accommodation to a first class passenger on Sept. 1st next according to promise of Mr. Lynch, Supt. of C. & W. C. See arrival and departing time of all trains entering the city published elsewhere in this issue and preserve it for future reference.

A Musical Prodigy.

Music lovers are much interested in the concert to be given this evening in the Opera House by Master Beryl Rubenstein, a seven-year-old musician. He is in town as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. Shayer, and was induced to give this recital under the auspices of the Masons of this city. He has played before critics who have bestowed the highest praise on his genius.

A Small Fire on Monday Night.

On Monday night a little after midnight the fire bell alarmed the community. It was found that the blaze came from a small house occupied by an old colored woman on Dr. McCauley's premises. The house burned down, but the flames did not spread. The cause of the fire is unknown.

NATIONAL BANK'S CHARTER EXPIRES.

First Banking Institution Established in Laurens Goes into Liquidation--What It Has Done.

Twenty years ago July 10, the National Bank of Laurens was organized with a capital stock of $63,000. Tuesday its charter expired and Wednesday it went into liquidation.

During the course of its business it has paid to its shareholders in dividends $89,145.00 and has accumulated a surplus of $12,600 and an undivided profit of $465.31, which will be distributed when its affairs are wound up.

This was the first bank to begin operations in this county. It was organized through the instrumentality of Dr. J. A. Barksdale, who was made president and who still holds that position. The first cashier was Maj. W. A. Watts, now the president of the Peoples Loan & Exchange Bank of Laurens, with the late Capt. Albert Dial as president.

Mr. Jno. Aug. Barksdale, Jr., the present cashier of the National Bank of Laurens, was assistant cashier of the bank before his promotion to the cashier's desk.

Previous to the establishment of this bank, Newberry was Laurens' banking town, the National Bank of Newberry having an agency 5th here and at Clinton. The agency, here was managed by Dr. Barksdale and that of Clinton by Mr. J. W. Copeland.

Since the organization of the National Bank of Laurens, three chartered banks have been established in the city of Laurens, one in the city of Clinton and one in Cross Hill, (the last two named less than a year ago) besides a very successful private banking business in Laurens and also one in Clinton, all in this county.

The banks in Laurens have all paid nice dividends to the shareholders and have accumulated an attractive surplus. The last to organize is the National Bank of Clinton, which has been in operation only since last January, but its stock is now selling above par, with nobody anxious to unload.

Annual Basket Picnic at Bab's Meadow.

The annual basket picnic at Bab's Meadow will take place on Friday, August 3rd. Music and speaking will be the order of the day.

DEATH OF MRS. J. R. MINTER.

One of the Most Prominent Ladies of Laurens County Passes Away.

On last Thursday morning just as a new day was beginning the spirit of Mrs. Catherine Minter, wife of Capt. John R. Minter, passed from time to eternity. The community was deeply shocked by her sudden passing away; for although she had been for some years an invalid she failed quite suddenly at the last after seeming for some days better than usual.

She is survived by her husband, two brothers and two sisters, Dr. W. F. Smith and Minor W. Smith, of Glenn Springs, and Mrs. W. F. Frazier of Ninety-Six, and Miss Minnie Smith of Glenn Springs.

Funeral services were held for her in the First Presbyterian Church, conducted by her pastor, the Rev. Dr. Adams, and her body was laid to rest in the city cemetery, at half past ten o'clock Friday morning.

The active pallbearers were: Messrs. S. M. Wilkes, E. H. Wilkes, N. B. Dial, W. R. Richey, C. H. Roper, Thomas Downey, Dr. A. J. Christopher and Col. H. Y. Simpson. Honorary pallbearers: Col. J. W. Ferguson, J. O. C. Fleming, C. W. Tane, J. W. Todd, C. B. Bobo, T. F. Simpson, J. J. Plass and W. L. Boyd.

Mrs. Minter was a woman beloved by all who knew her and held in especial tenderness by her family circle. Their grief is shared by a sympathetic community.

She was Miss Catherine Smith of Glenn Springs, a member of a prominent family, and widely connected. A number of her relatives came to attend her funeral. They were Mr. and Mrs. Minor Smith, Dr. and Mrs. William Smith, Mrs. Eber Smith, and Mr. William Smith, all from Glenn Springs. Mrs. Frazier of Ninety Six, Mrs. George Oetzel and Miss Amy Nicholson of Union, Mrs. Margaret Minter of Anderson, the Rev. W. R. Minter and family of Shelby, N. C., and Mr. J. E. Minter of Sedalia. A sad circumstance was the absence of Miss Josie Minter, the only daughter. She is in Europe and the sad news will be kept from her until her return. When she left home it was with no fear of such a change before her return.

The great bargain sale is still on at The Hub.

PAPER STOVE PIPE IN ACTUAL USE.

A Cooking Specialist to Demonstrate at S. M. & E. H. Wilkes & Co's Store.

Mr. Philip Fischl, a native of Texas, will be in Laurens next week managing the cooking demonstration at S. M. & E. H. Wilkes & Company's store. He will draw a curious crowd to see the paper stove pipe wrapped with cord and with matches placed underneath, which he will use the whole week he will be here.

Mr. Fischl has been traveling for pleasure in Mexico and has promised to bring with him some Mexican curios, and will have them on exhibition.

Biscuits and coffee will be served every day and the cooking demonstrations will doubtless take the form of social functions where you can meet your friends and discuss the servant problem to your heart's content every day.

SHOOTING AFFAIR AT MOUNTVILLE

Negroes Engage in Row at Church When the Handy Pistol is Brought Into Play.

Mountville, July 16.—At the colored Methodist church here Sunday a row occurred in the church yard, in which several shots were fired, and Will Coleman received four wounds, one of which may prove serious, if not fatal. These shots were made by Will Fowler, according to the best information obtainable, though others are implicated.

Both negroes were shooting, and it is said Coleman shot first. Coleman was drinking freely.

Dr. W. E. Goddard, of Cross Hill, was called to the wounded man, and found that one ball had entered the right arm near the elbow. Another struck the breast and lodged outside the chest. A third hit near the top of the head, producing only a flesh wound and passing out. The fourth landed at same place, penetrating the skull, and is lodged somewhere in the upper front portion of the brain. This last is the only serious wound. Three balls are still in the body, but will be removed, perhaps to-day. Coleman is a young married man living on the Dr. Richey place, and his reputation is not at all enviable. Fowler is also married, and in the employ of Mr. Jesse Bryson.

Mrs. R. B. Bell Honors Miss Murray.

Mrs. R. B. Bell entertained on Monday evening in honor of Miss Janie Murray, who is visiting Mrs. F. P. McGowan. The guests drove from town out to Mrs. Bell's lovely country home where they were greeted by Mrs. Bell, Mrs. McGowan and Miss Murray. The house was charming with roses everywhere, and the occasion was marked by the ease which always characterizes Mrs. Bell's entertainments. Various games were played, and delicious refreshments were served during the evening. Those who were honored by Mrs. Bell were Misses Annie Gilkerson, Olythia Jones, Bessie Roland, Willou Gray, Tallulah Caine and Bessie Todd, and Messrs. R. F. Fleming, H. G. Wellborn, James Roland, George Balle, W. B. Sloan, Reuben Pitts and Dr. C. A. Ellett.

NEGROES COMMIT REVOLTING CRIME.

Farmer and Part of Family Murdered.

6 NEGROES ARRESTED.

Barber's Junction, Scene of One of the Most Horrible Tragedies Ever Committed.

On the night of July the thirteenth, a gang of revengeful negroes near Barber's Junction, N. C., crept into the home of a farmer named Isaac Lysterly and killed the farmer, his wife, and two children aged nine and five years. The deed is supposed to have been done in revenge for fancied wrongs. Six negroes were arrested immediately and convincing evidence was obtained of the guilt of some of them.

The particulars are horrible. The Lysterly home was a two story one. In a room on the first floor slept Mr. and Mrs. Lysterly and the two youngest children in one room. The negroes slipped into this room and with an axe murdered the father first, and then the mother and the son. Alice, the daughter, was found alive, but died the next day. After the murders were committed the negroes piled combustibles on the beds, saturated them with kerosene and set fire to them. The other children, three girls, 17, 15, and 12 years were sleeping up stairs. They were not disturbed but left to die in the flames. One of them was awakened after ten o'clock by the smell of burning cloth and went down to warn her father. The sight that greeted her was horrible. She felt her father's face. It was cold. A bureau drawer full of blazing stuff was across her brother's body. She pulled it away and went to tell her sisters.

Those three frail girls went to work, carried the bodies out, drew water and put out the fire, searched the premises and carried their dying sister in their arms to the nearest neighbor's, three quarters of a mile away. They were afraid to go by the road and tore their way through briars and undergrowth.

A half hour after midnight a crowd of stern men were assembled at the place of the crime. Early in the morning the sheriff was on hand with a posse and arrested the suspected negroes, carrying them to the jail at Salisbury. Later for safety he removed them to Charlotte. This proved a wise precaution for a mob attacked the jail and was only satisfied that the prisoners were gone by being allowed to examine the jail.

In Memoriam.

After an illness of three weeks, little Rolfe Allen Templeton, son of A. T. and Ethel Templeton, sweetly fell asleep on Monday, July 16th, at eleven-thirty o'clock; age one year and eight months.

Although his suffering was intense, he bore it patiently.

It is with aching hearts that we bid little Rolfe good-bye. But trusting to Him who doeth all things well, we bow submissively to His will and say "Thy will be done."
