CO. D. HAS RETURNED

Members of the Traynham Guards had a Splendid Trip to the Exposition

The Traynham Guards returned from amestown Friday afternoon at 6:30. They were in camp a little over a week at the Exposition with the First Regiment, South Carolina National Guards. and all speak in the highest terms of the trip, the encampment and the offiers of the First, especially Col. W. W. Lewis and Maj. E. M. Blythe.

Camp was broken at the Exposition Thursday and the journey homeward was commenced shortly after noon, The return trip was made without incident or accident. All the members of Company D. kept well and all returned with the company except two or three who decided to make some side trips. Upon reaching Laurens they were narched to the Armory and after placing their equipments in proper place, Capt. O. W. Babb made a very happy little speech to the boys congratulating them upon their excellent conduct and fine showing made during the encampnent. He assured them that he was proud of their record and trusted that each and every man would continue oyal to the Company. When he had Will Hudgens was among the finished, three cheers for the handsome Captain was proposed and given with a will, followed by a similar demonstration in honor of Lieutenants W. ## BANK BUILDING DOWN.

FROM JAMESTOWN. Telephone Exchange Removed to Fleming Bros. Building.

The old Enterprise Bank building was turned over to the contractor Monday morning and preperations for tearing down immediately began. Mr. Richey had not been able to get ready to remove the Telephone Exchange but the contractors were here with their force of workmen and all that could be done on the outside preparatory to getting ready for the new building had been the inconvenience to Mr. Richey the contractor had to proceed to tear away he old building Tuesday morning.

Mr. Richey secured a large force of ands and his removal went on at the same time as rapidly as possible. The Telephone Exchange was the last thing removed and the "hello girls" kept their places until the roof of the building was entirely removed. Then every patron was called up and told "good-
