

A GREAT COOKING EXHIBITION

Of the Great Majestic Malleable and Charcoal Iron Range at Our Store

ONE WEEK | SEPTEMBER 23 to 28 | ONE WEEK

FREE!

$7.50

Set of Ware

With every Majestic Range sold during this Cooking Exhibition, we will give absolutely FREE one handsome set of ware as shown. This ware is worth $7.50 if it is worth a cent. It is the best that can be bought. We don't add $7.50 to the price of the range and tell you you are getting the ware free, but sell all Majestic Ranges at the regular price. You get the ware free. Remember this is for exhibition week only. Ware will not be given after this week. This ware is on exhibition at our store and must be seen to be appreciated.

Come in any day during the week. Make our store your headquarters. Have coffee and biscuits with us. Come if you intend to buy or not; the information gained will serve you in the future.

Facts About The Great Majestic Range.

It is the only range in the world made of Malleable and Charcoal Iron.

It has, beyond any question of a doubt, the largest and best reservoir.

It uses about half the fuel used on other ranges, and does better work by far.

The Majestic All Copper Nickeled Reservoir heats the water quicker and hotter than any other. It is the only reservoir with a removable frame.

The Charcoal Iron Body of the Great Majestic Range lasts three times as long as a steel body.

Being made of non-breakable material, there is practically no expense for repairing the Majestic.

As for baking, it is perfection, not only for a few months, but for all times to come.

A GREAT MAJESTIC RANGE lasts three times as long as a cheap range, but it don't cost three times as much.

PROOF—We don't ask you to take our word for any of the above statements, but if you will call at our store, a man from the factory, where Majestic ranges are made, will prove to your satisfaction, that these are absolute facts, and will show you many more reasons why the Great Majestic Range is absolutely the best that money can buy.

LABOR CONTRACT REMEDY POSSIBLE.

Mr. Featherstone, at Request of Many Farmers, Goes Into Details of his Proposed Contract Regulation.

Under recent date the local correspondent of The News and Courier sent that paper the following letter and interview which we reproduce:

The interview with Mr. C. C. Featherstone, published in The News and Courier some weeks ago, has caused much discussion among the people of this community and the ideas advanced have not been fully comprehended in some instances. Acting upon these suggestions The News and Courier correspondent called upon Mr. Featherstone at his office and asked that he offer the people some definite suggestions as to the remedies he proposes. In this connection Mr. Featherstone says:

"Since giving you the interview relating to the labor contract law I have received a great many messages from farmers, in different sections, assuring me that they think that my suggestions were along the right line, but asking that I go somewhat into detail as to the remedy suggested in my former interview.

"It will be remembered that I suggested that the remedy was to punish the men who employ the laborers violating their contracts, and the men who induce laborers to violate their contract, and thus force laborers to remain in the employment of those with whom they have contracted.

"If such a plan is practical and legal it meets the whole situation—for the laborer must have employment, and if he knows that he cannot get it, after violating his contract, the inducement for him to violate is gone.

"In the great majority of cases laborers are induced to violate their contracts by direct or indirect persuasion on the part of others, or by a knowledge of the fact that they will have no difficulty, after leaving one man, to get employment with another. If they were let alone, or if they knew that they could not get employment elsewhere, the majority of them would stick.

"Punish the man who interferes or who employs them after the violation and you strike at the root of the difficulty.

"Our criminal statute already provides punishment for the man who entices a laborer from the employment of another, or who harbors one after notice that he has violated his contract with another.

The trouble is to prove that he had notice of the first contract. The violation of the contract is not going to notify him, and the man who is mean enough to deprive his neighbor of the laborer, is not apt to admit knowledge.

"The difficulty, therefore, in the enforcement of this statute, has always been the inability to prove notice.

"How can this difficulty be removed? In my judgment it can be done very easily.

"Require all contracts between land-lord and laborer to be in writing. Then require all those who want to be protected to index their contracts in the office of the Clerk of Court. Make the indexing of such contracts conclusive notice to the public, so that if a employer a laborer, after B has indexed his contract with said laborer, and fails to release him, upon demand, then make A liable both civilly and criminally.

"And not only make him liable, but fix a minimum amount of damages for which he is liable, say not less than Five Hundred Dollars. And on the criminal side of the court, make the penalty a heavy one, and let it be imprisonment and not a fine.

"One great trouble about the enforcement of most laws is that men can get off by the payment of a fine. The average man cares little about paying a fine. If the offenders were sent to the chain gang, violations of law would decrease, and that too at a rapid rate.

"The law that I have suggested can be passed and, in my judgment, will stand the test of the courts.

"It may cost the land-lord a little something to index their contracts, but the expenses will be little compared with the good results to be derived therefrom."

What Our Reporter Saw in New York. A recent visit to one of largest paint factories in the world, disclosed machinery that was producing 10,000 gallons of Paint, and doing it better and in less time than 100 gallons could be made by hand mixing.

This was the celebrated L. & M. Paint. The L. & M. Zinc hardens L. & M. White Lead and makes L. & M. Paint wear like iron for 10 to 15 years. 4 gallons L. & M. mixed with 3 gallons Linseed Oil makes 7 gallons of paint at a cost of less than $1.25 per gallon.

If any defect exists in L. & M. Paint, will reprint house for nothing. Donations of L. & M. made to churches. Sold by J. H. & M. L. Nash, Laurens, Clinton Pharmacy, Clinton.

Immortality is Charged. Martin B. Poole of Seuilletown township, one of the largest land owners in the county, is under bond in the sum of $350 for his appearance at Court, charged with immortality. Helen Hunter, a negro who lives on Poole's premises is held under an identical charge, her bond being the same. The warrants were issued by the Magistrate of Laurens township and were served Friday morning. These cases will not come up in Court until the succeeding session.

Attack of Diarrhoea Cured by One Dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I was so weak from an attack of diarrhoea that I could scarcely attend to my duties, when I took a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It cured me entirely and I had been taking other medicines for nine days without relief. I heartily recommend this remedy as being the best to my knowledge for bowel complaints.—R. G. Stewart, of the firm of Stewart & Bro., Greenville, Ala. For Sale by Laurens Drug Co.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. Roland Willis was here Thursday from Gray Court.

Mr. Guy Garratt and children have returned from Virginia.

Mr. J. Adams spent a few days in Atlanta last week.

Mr. M. H. Burdine was in town last Saturday looking hale as usual.

Mr. W. P. Harris of Youngs township was in the city Wednesday.

Dr. J. R. Fowler of Warrior Creek was in the city Saturday on business.

Mr. J. A. Roland, Misses Hattie and Ella Roland have returned from Norfolk.

When you sell a bale of cotton remember that we need money to run the paper.

Mr. Wyatt Workman an old Laurens county boy but now of Charlotte was in the city last week.

Judge R. C. Watts who is holding Court at Union, spent Saturday and Sunday with his family here.

Hon. Geo. B. Cromer, a distinguished citizen and prominent lawyer of Newberry, was in the city Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Ben Taylor of Greenwood were in the city Monday returning from a visit to relatives at Princeton.

Mr. A. C. Watson, a former citizen of Laurens, was in the city for a few days last week from Greenwood, his adopted home.

Mr. John Peterson and his sister, Miss Mary Peterson of Newberry, were the guests of Mrs. J. W. Peterson and family on Sunday.

Miss Annie Drummond of Lanford, spent several days of last week with her sisters, Mrs. Willie Henderson and Mrs. Lewis Anderson.

We don't know that the Chamber of Commerce is responsible for it but there were more people in Laurens Saturday afternoon than in a long time.

Misses Ethel and Wyona McDaniel of Ekorn and Miss McDaniel of Due West spent last week in the city as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. G. McDaniel and other friends.

Highland County Election. Columbia, Sept. 5.—Gov. Ansel today ordered the election on the new Highland county proposition to be held November 12th. The proposed county is to be composed of sections taken from Greenville and Spartanburg counties, giving it an area of 405 square miles, with Groer as the county seat. Should the county be formed it would leave Spartanburg county an area of 611 square miles and Greenville 546.

The Labor Problem.

We reproduce in this issue of THE ADVERTISER an interview of Mr. C. C. Featherstone in the News and Courier. We will not discuss it further than to say that to us it appears sound. We wish other sound thinking men in Laurens would write something for THE ADVERTISER on this, or any other subject. THE ADVERTISER is not going to undertake to solve the labor question but we have some ideas nevertheless.

We believe that the Southern white man is largely responsible for the labor conditions of the South not as an individual but as a class.

Recently we have observed different "squads" of hands at work under what we supposed to be competent "bosses." In every instance we have observed some of the hands to turn off a good deal less work than others. They seem to be experts only in the art of "beating time." Yet the same price is paid for all. This rather encourages the best hands to become sorry as the sorry man's earning capacity is as great as his own. Every employer of labor should have a scale of wages and the good hands should get the highest prices.

Then again a higher scale of living should be encouraged among the negroes. So long as they are satisfied with a mere existence and wages are high, they will not put in full time. They should be educated up to living better and more respectably and that would require more money and more work.

A great many negroes from the South go North and engage in service. In almost all instances they receive higher wages than are paid here but the service required of them there is much better than is required here. It is only the most competent class that remain away, those that can and are willing to make good; just the class we should encourage to remain here. The incompetent find their way back sooner or later because they soon learn that living is easiest in the South.

Taking into consideration the service rendered the Southern whites pay more on the average than is paid anywhere else in the world.

The loaders of the negro are like, wise largely responsible for those conditions. They will advise the ordinary laborer that he should not work for less than $1.00 a day. The white employer knows that some are not worth so much but he wants to push his work along and complete it, so he takes all and relies on making his profits out of the better ones. He wants to make his average about right, just as the cotton buyer does when he pays the same price for a good middling and a low middling bale of cotton. It is the same thing to the cotton buyer but if the practice is persisted in, it will eventually banish the good grades from the market. It is not to the interest of the South that wages be lowered, it would be better if they were higher still, provided that the carriers be educated to a higher plan of living and taught to put in six days of the week in work.

Rounded up Gamblers.

Saturday afternoon Special Constable Owens and Deputy Sheriff Sullivan, with the aid of two assistants, rounded up a bunch of negro gamblers just beyond the city limits. Several of the party made their escape but seven were marched to the sheriff's office, and later to Magistrate Hudgen's chambers where they were given a preliminary. Five of the coons, some of whom are old offenders, pleaded guilty and were promptly fined $20 each. The other two were committed to jail for a hearing in the higher Court.
