

MR. E. Y. McQUOWN'S VISIT TO BROTHER.

Laurens was honored Monday by a visit from Mr. E. Y. McQuown, of Clinton, who has just returned from a trip to see his brother, Mr. J. M. McQuown, in Columbus, Miss. This was the first time the brothers have met in twenty-two years; Mr. J. M. McQuown having visited here then. Numbers of people in Laurens county enjoy the friendship of or acquaintance with Mr. McQuown, especially the readers of The Advertiser, for many years he being a regular contributor to the columns of this paper under the pen name of "Slocum Gilson." While in the city Monday he talked very interestingly of his trip to Mississippi and the genuine pleasure of the visit to his brother.

"It was the greatest time of my life," said he. "To say that I enjoyed myself does not express it at all; it was simply grand and I was happy every minute of my time. My brother and I were both in the war, although not in the same company or even the same regiment, he enlisting in Company K, 19th Mississippi, at Baldwin, while I was a member of Company F, 14th South Carolina. He moved to his present home just forty-two years ago and engaged in the manufacture of wagons, buggies, etc., in which business he has made quite a success and is now well fixed so far as this world's goods is concerned. Needless to say that he did all a man could do to make me enjoy my stay with him; he was a host royal."

Continuing the narration of his visit, Mr. McQuown said that the greatest day of his life was Thursday, the 13th of August, when he witnessed a sham battle between parts of the United States troops, then in camp near the city of Columbus. "But," said he, "the battle was not the greatest feature of the day; it was the banquet tendered the old Confederate soldiers at 2 o'clock after the battle was over. There were ninety-four of us old soldiers there and I have never in my life sat down to such a spread as was ours that day; but the best of all was that we were served by the officers of the United States army. They waited on us. I shall never forget that day so long as I live."

Mr. McQuown says that the crops out in Mississippi are not very promising, the corn being quite poor and the cotton suffering from the extremely wet weather. The writer was much interested in the conversation with Mr. McQuown even when it turned to politics and the plain-spoken, honest old veteran differed widely with him on some questions and even censured him for some of his views. But the difference of opinion did not prevent them becoming friends and will not likely destroy the pleasant acquaintance newly made. Mr. McQuown is a reader and a strong friend of The Advertiser; he did not take his departure before speaking in glowing terms of Col. W. W. Ball, now of Charleston.

Thinks it Saved His Life.

Lester M. Nelson, of Naples, Maine, says in a recent letter: "I have used Dr. King's New Discovery many years for coughs and colds and I think it saved my life. I have found it a reliable remedy for throat and lung complaints and would no more be without a bottle than I would be without food." For nearly forty years New Discovery has stood at the head of throat and lung remedies. As a preventive of pneumonia and healer of weak lungs it has no equal. Sold under guarantee at Laurens Drug Co.'s and Palmetto Drug Co.'s drug stores. 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free.
