

Cross Hill News Notes.
 Cross Hill, Jan. 25.—Mr. M. T. Simpson attended United States court in Columbia last week as a juror.
 Miss Annie Childs of Troy is visiting Mrs. Anna Watts.
 Mrs. Arthur Leaman driving in town last Tuesday, the horse became unmanageable and she and her little girl were thrown from the buggy. Mrs. Leaman's suffered a dislocated knee, and other bruises. She is doing as well as could be expected, and was taken to her home Saturday. The child was not hurt.

Senator Wharton's Bill.
 Columbia, Jan. 22.—Senator Wharton's bill to prescribe the punishment for attempt to ravish was passed to third reading today, with amendments. As the bill now stands the provisions are: 1. Attempts to ravish are placed upon the same plane as actual commission of the crime, in so far as the death penalty is provided. 2. It is left to the discretion of the trial judge to commute sentence to life imprisonment. 3. The victim shall be allowed to testify before the Court stenographer and attorneys, the same to be read to the jury in open Court.
