MUSIC RECITALS

Pupils of Miss Annie C. Burgess and of Mrs. W. H. Young Delight Large Audiences.

Clinton, May 24th.—Last Saturday, May 15th, the remains of Mr. Richard Blalock were buried at Sardis Methodist church near here. Mr. Blalock had been in good health up to the day of his death and took part in memorial exercises two days before it. He died suddenly Friday morning at the home of his son, Mr. Thomas J. Blalock, on the Musgrove road, in the eighty-second year of his age.

The music pupils of Miss Annie C. Burgess gave a very enjoyable piano and sight-singing recital Friday evening in the Carolina Memorial chapel. Quite a number of their friends were present in spite of the inclement weather. The following program was rendered most creditably:

1. Marche Militaire... Engelman Misses Margaret Durant and Miriam Jennings.
2. Flying the Kite... Salome Miss Agnes White.
3. What the Swallow Sang... Bohm Miss Ennie Robertson.
4. God Save the King... Dr. Harthan Misses Virginia and Nancy Owens.

The Newberry Civic League was to have visited Clinton last Friday afternoon but owing to the extremely unfavorable weather the trip was postponed. This is the second time that circumstances have thwarted this plan. Col. Childs suggested the trip and placed a car at the disposal of the Newberry ladies. The Clinton ladies had prepared to give the Newberry ladies a pleasant afternoon and it was a great disappointment to them that the rain continued. It would have been entirely impossible for them to carry out their plans in the rain, a lawn fete and a drive over the town.

Miss Lou Ma McMillan gave a large and delightful reception at Friday evening. This was the first time the young people had been entertained in Mr. McMillan's lovely new home, and its attractiveness was generally commented on.

The Baraca class of Clinton was most charmingly entertained in Newberry Friday night, May 15th, by the Baraca class of that town. All who went to Newberry from here had a delightful time.
