LAURENS, S. C. MARCH 30, 1910.

THE RURAL POLICE LAW.

The act providing for the two special police officers for Laurens county, as passed by the general assembly this year, is given in its entirety in another part of this issue. It would be very well for all citizens having the best interests of the county at heart and desirous of the proper enforcement of the law, to familiarize themselves with the new act. That it may not be a dead letter, the officers appointed to work in this county under its provisions will need the support of the law abiding element in every community.

Messrs Sullivan and Lowe are officers with many years of experience. They are considered capable and discreet. They will at once enter upon the discharge of their new duties. In carrying out the letter as well as the spirit of the act they will travel over all parts of the county and they are empowered to arrest law-breakers of whatever nature without warrant, to offer security and protection to remote sections as well as those thickly populated. In other words these men will act in the same capacity as related to rural districts as the police department operates in the towns and cities.

In several counties the rural police system has been adopted and it is working admirably. The people are pleased with the plan.

With the new law in effect, the office of "special dispensary constable" is abolished. As provided in the conduct of the officers operating according to that law, the sheriff will have general control and direction of the rural policeman. It will not be understood that blind tigers can pursue their nefarious business unmolested. On the other hand it is expected that the new system will be more effective in minimizing if not altogether breaking up the practice in Laurens county.

It is confidently believed that Messrs Sullivan and Lowe will give good accounts of their work and that the enforcement of law and order will be given a new impetus.

ENTHUSIASTIC YOUNG FARMER.

It is always refreshing and inspiring to come in contact with one who is enthusiastic about his work, whether it be business, trade or profession. He can be counted a success, as a rule, though he may fail to achieve special distinction or greatness as regarded by the busy world about him.

There was in the city a few days ago a young farmer from a certain section in the county especially noted for its progressiveness. Our young friend, be it understood, is a small farmer, that is he farms on a small scale but secures large results, comparatively speaking. He produces everything needed for home consumption and has something to sell besides the staple crop. Since the first of January he has sold $75 worth of meat. The "high cost of living" is not worrying him. He does not intend that it shall embarrass or handicap him. It is this incentive combined with enthusiasm that makes for his certain success. He was reared on the farm and learned economy. As a wage earner in a manufacturing enterprise he did his work well and enthusiastically. After a few years of town life the call "back to the soil" could no longer be resisted. With earnestness of purpose and a determination to do his best he returned to the farm. What he is doing there has been told. Of course it is not to be supposed that his is an exceptional case in Laurens county. There are hundreds, perhaps, as deserving of praise and encouragement, and we like to dwell upon the possibilities of such young fellows.

That the great Pee Dee section will unite with the Piedmont and all other contiguous South Carolina political territory in rolling up a majority for the logical candidate for governor, and that means Featherstone, is now as it has been for some time one of the assured scheduled events this summer.

Claude Ferguson and Jim Davis, whose bloody work Saturday night stirred the country side and marked them as a pair of the worst criminals unpunished in Laurens, are mighty dangerous characters to be at large another day. They cannot escape apprehension sooner or later, but no time whatever should be lost in running them down. Members of their race can assist in this; the officers are following every possible trace of the fugitives, but the murderers have had three days of liberty and doubtless they have made good use of it.

Yes, faithful reader, the names of Speaker Joe Cannon and Secretary John Wood have graced the columns of quite a number of newspapers right recently.

Good morning, have you bought that house or lot yet?

And it comes to pass that the cotton-tots have adopted Good Friday.

"The News? Well, I have no news, but here's a prediction: Laurens is going to do her part this year in reducing the high cost of living. What do you think of that?" Good Mr. Farmer, good.

A new candidate for mayor announces that his platform is for the women with big hats to sit on one side of the church and the men who chew tobacco to sit in the basement.

Tumbling Shoals, March 26.—Dr. R. B. Glickerson purchased the real estate of his father last year. Monday he sold one tract of 130 acres of this land to Mr. Cox of Greenville city at $19.00 per acre. Also sold to Jno. M. Wood 36 acres at $22.50 per acre which gave him sufficient funds to remove all encumbrance off these lands and leave him the homestead clear profit. Well done, doctor.

Deafness Cannot be Cured.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound of imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c.

Stonewall Jackson's Way.

Come, stack arms, men; pile the rails; Stir up the campfire bright! No growling if the canteen falls; We'll make a roaring night.

Here Shenandoah brows along, Here burly Blue Ridge echoes song, To swell the brigade's rousing song Of Stonewall Jackson's way.

We see him now—the queer slouch hat

Cocked o'er his eye askew; The shrewd, dry smile; the speech so pat;

So calm, so blunt, so true, The Blue Light Elder knows 'em well Says he, "That's Banks; he's fond of shell."

Lord save his soul! we'll give him —well,

That's Stonewall Jackson's way, That's Stonewall Jackson's way.

Silence! Ground arms! Kneel all! Caps off!

Old Massa's going to pray, Strangle the fool that dares to scoff Attention! It's his way, Appealing from his native sod, In forma pauperis to God.

"Lay bare Thine arm! Stretch forth Thy rod!

Amen." That's Stonewall's way, He's in the saddle now, Fall in, Steady the whole brigade!

Hill's at the ford, cut off; we'll win His way out, ball and blade, What matter if our shoes are worn? What matter if our feet are torn Quick step! We're with him before morn—

That's Stonewall Jackson's way, The sun's bright lances rout the mists

Of morning; and, by George, Here's Longstreet struggling in the lists, Hemmed in an ugly gorge, Pope and his Dutchmen! whipped before,

"Bay'nets and grape!" hear Stonewall roar, Charge, Stuart! Pay off Ashby's score

In Stonewall Jackson's way, Ah, maiden, wait and watch and yearn

For news of Stonewall's band, Ah, widow, read with eyes that burn That ring upon thy hand,

Ah, wife sew on, pray on, hope on; Thy life shall not be all forlorn; The foe had better ne'er been born That gets in Stonewall's way,

—Dr. John Williamson Palmer.

CITY SCHOOL NOTES. (Communicated)

The Laurens Graded schools were given a holiday on last Friday. On account of this the monthly examinations were held on Thursday.

For the last few weeks the pupils have been taking a great deal of interest in the school grounds. Trees and flowers have been planted in various parts of the grounds. The purpose is to make our school campus second to none in beauty in the state.

A game of base ball was played between the ninth grade and a team selected from the rest of the school on Thursday. The score was six to four in favor of the ninth grade.

Much interest is being shown in the preliminary contest to be held Friday night in the school auditorium. A medal will be given to the best speaker. The winner in this contest will represent our school in the county contest to be held April 22. All are cordially invited to be present.
