

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

The children and many of the grandchildren of Mrs. Isabel Brooks joined with her last Saturday at her home in Dial township in celebrating her twenty-third birthday. Mr. John Brooks and Mrs. B. A. Sullivan of Laurens were present on this happy occasion.

Laurens Girls Abroad.
Mr. and Mrs. William Boyd and Mr. I. B. Dial were pleased Saturday to get letters from Miss Willou Boyd and Miss Wessilee Dial who left some two weeks ago for a European trip with Prof. and Mrs. Libby of Converse college. Miss Boyd writes that their party landed at Gibraltar after a nine days' voyage, very delightful with the exception of seasickness which only a few of the party escaped. Their ship was the Berlin and carried three thousand five hundred souls. Their next stop will be at Tangiers on the coast of Africa.

Echoes from Civic League's Musical.
The operetta given under the auspices of the civic league Friday evening was a very enjoyable event. The beautifully trained choruses showed the untiring efforts of the ladies who labored with the assistance of Mr. Armistead to prepare the young people and children for this occasion and a large audience showed appreciation of their efforts and their desire to aid in the cause. The choruses were taken from popular operas. The chorus "Ole Man Moon," was sung with little Caroline Rankin taking the leading part. "Slumberland" with Jacqueline Cooper of Columbia, and the "Glow Worm" with Miss Jennie Shealey, the "Little Milliners" was sung by the chorus and Miss Annie Richey. "You and I" a duet was sung by Miss Annie Richey and Mr. Clyde Franks. The chorus "Silver Heels" was led by little Sarah Bolt. "Lo-Lo Maid" was sung by Miss Jennie Shealey and the chorus. A violin solo by Mr. Menzel, and "Scarf Fantasies" by nine young ladies were attractive numbers. Miss Annie Richey and Mr. Ford Franks sang a duet. "Looking for a Sweetheart," Little Phoebe Featherstone and Henry Bennett as burnt cork artists were fine in "Quit Dat Ticklin'." The Japanese choruses and songs were very effective in scenery as well as music. Miss Edna Stigroaves sang with the chorus in "Chinese Honeymoon." Mrs. H. K. Alken was accompanist.

Thanks From Civic League.
The members of the Civic League desire to thank all those who cooperated and assisted them in making "Musical Echoes" on Friday night last, a success both financially and artistically. Nothing but praise has been heard regarding it, some even venturing to assert that it was the best amateur performance ever give here. The children in the cast did exceptionally well and the ladies of the League are under many obligations to them and their parents. The fund for the drinking fountain is increased by about $60 as the net proceeds of the attraction. Mr. E. O. Armistead who staged the production, is excellent in his line, and impressed favorably all who met him in a business way. He left early Saturday morning for Hickory, N. C. Other communities desirous of putting on something new, novel and pleasing will do well to secure "Musical Echoes."

Bagwell-Simpson.
On Wednesday evening, at the home of the bride's father, Mr. W. H. Bagwell, at Belton, Miss Olivia Bagwell and Mr. Roscoe Simpson were quietly married. The marriage was a very quiet one, only a few intimate friends of the young people were present and no formal invitations were sent out. Rev. N. G. Wright performed the ceremony.

Mrs. Simpson is a daughter of Mr. W. H. Bagwell and a sister of Mr. J. P. Bagwell, the superintendent of the Belton mills. She is a very popular young lady and one that is held in high esteem by all who know her. Mr. Simpson is a young man of good business ability.—Anderson Mail.

Mrs. W. A. Shands and Mrs. W. J. Copeland of Clinton spent Tuesday in the city as the guest of Mrs. M. L. Copeland.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bailey Mrs. J. D. Jacobs and Master Cyrus Bailey of Clinton passed through the city Monday enroute to Greenville.

Mrs. F. P. McGowan entertained a few friends at dinner Thursday evening in honor of Mrs. M. F. Ansel.

Misses Mary and Hetty Lake entertained a large party of young people Thursday evening in honor of Miss Ruth Harris of Spartanburg.

Miss Mattie Mae Neville of Clinton is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. H. K. Alken.

Bolt-Tatum.
The marriage of Miss Jessie Bolt and Mr. Frank Pierce Tatum which was solemnized last Wednesday evening was one of the prettiest weddings ever witnessed in Laurens. The ceremony was performed at the First Methodist church by the pastor, Rev. L. P. McGee, before a large crowd of friends and relatives. Before the hour for the wedding there was an organ recital by Prof. Uermohlen of the Columbia Female college who played the wedding march, and vocal solos by Mr. H. M. Franks of Charleston and Miss Simsie McMichael of Orangeburg. The church was beautifully decorated with trailing vines and white flowers and ribbons, the altar rail was in white with smylax and ivy twined about it. Down the middle aisle a tiny gate of white with green vines was opened by two little children to let the bridal party pass up to the altar.

The bridesmaids were Miss Julia Tatum of McColi, Miss Atlanta Gibson, Miss Ella Brady, Dillon; Miss Jessie Dillard, Clinton; Miss Tacea Caine, Miss Mamie Crews, Miss Sadie

Sullivan, Miss Annie Richey and Miss Elizabeth Richey. The maid of honor was Miss Alma Large of Columbia, and the dames of honor were the sister of the bride, Mrs. W. R. Richey, Jr., and the sister of the groom, Mrs. F. B. Moore of McColi. The groomsmen were John W. Crews, Columbia, Tom Bolt, J. L. Bridger, Wilmington, N. C.; W. D. Burnett, Spartanburg; Julia Calhoun, Spartanburg; Giles Patterson, Chester; A. J. Stanton, Tatum, Tom Breeden, Bennettsville; Kirk and Gibson, McColi; F. B. Moore, McColi. Two little lads who opened the gates for the bridal party were Warren Bolt and Clarence Babb. The ushers were Henry Yeargin, Sara Bolt, Oswald Anderson, and Calhoun McGowan. The bride entered on the arm of her father and was preceded to the altar by two little flower girls and a ring bearer. She was beautiful in a bridal dress of white chiffon over satin with pearl trimmings and a touch of lace, she carried an exquisite shower bouquet of bride roses. The bride was met at the altar by the groom and his best man Mr. W. G. Tatum.

The bridal party and relatives were entertained at a beautiful reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Bolt, and later Mr. and Mrs. Tatum left in his automobile for Clinton where they took the train for a northern trip.

The Misses Gilkerson gave a very pretty morning party Tuesday in honor of their visitors Miss Connor and Miss Glenn and the Misses Sherard of Greenwood. There were about thirty-five young ladies present and the amusement was an interesting guessing contest, the "Festival of Flowers." A delightful fruit and ice course was served.
