MEMOIRS OF JOHNSON HAGOOD

terest and instruction, the work entitled "Memoirs of the War of Secession" or "Hagood's Brigade".

While having no personal knowlwith what I have since learned, has taught me to associate the name of Hagood's Brigade with the very first brilliant array, of the famous sons of ments must live forever, the name of Hagood must be awarded a place in the foremost ranks.

of troops under command of General in a nations eyes. Johnson Hagood for a long period in render of the armies of the Confeder-

This work, embracing in full, memoirs by General Hagood himself, is comes from him touching the story of the great sectional strife, it is replete with historic fact, and graphic ers." discription of events in the field and on the firing line.

his father and his father's friends bore in the war; and with instructions at any time to show them to those descendants.

The time has not come, and may

I have been reading with both in | not come for fifty years, when justice can be done to the losing party in a bitter civil war. Should, then, this manuscript fall into the hands of an Eistorian who approaches his task with the intent "to nothing extenuate, edge of the service of this splendid or ought set down in malice", he may command, nor of its distinguished use the limited material it contains -commander, my recollections of those for what it is worth. "He will have days and of the famous actors in the the assurance of one, then long passed great drama of the 60's, together to his final account, of its accuracy so far as his knowledge and belief extends. This work is a most valuable conplace in the great struggle for South- tribution to the history of the men orn independence, and that in that and times of which a famous South-South Carolina, who as types of the the war, said, "You of the North have brave men whose magnificent achieve- had drawn for you with a master's have the cicture of your returning arriles, you have bland now the early back to you marching with proud and This work covers the operations victorious tread, reading their glories

"Will you bear with me while I tell the operations around Charleston, you of another army that sought its and of greatly distinguished service home at the close of the late warin the defense of Richmond and Pe- an army that marched home in detersburg in 1864 and on to the sur- feat, and not in victory, in pothos and not in splendor, but in glory that equaled yours, and to hears as loving as ever welcomed herces home."

"He finds his home in ruins, his edited by the old war horse, W. H. slaves free, his stock killed, his barns Brooks, and like everything that empty, his trade destroyed, his money worthless, his comrades slain, and the burdens of other heavy on his should-

"What does he do-this hero in gray with a heart of gold? Does he In closing, in 1871, General Hagood sit down in sulleness and despair said, "These memoirs are not prepared Not for a day. Surely God, who has for the printer, nor will they, or any stripped him in his prosperity, has inpart of them, while I control them, spired him in his adversity. As ruin be made public. I bequeath them to was never so overwhelming, never my son that he may know what part was restoration swifter. The soldier stepped from the trenches into the furrow; horses that charged Federal guns marched before the plow, and whose record they give, or to their fields that ran with blood in April were green with the harvest in June." O. G. Thompson.

GADSDEN PLEADS FOR ABSOLUTION

Prominent Charleston Attorney Asks Supreme Court to Investigate Into His Conduct of Lawrence Will Case. Phillip H. Gadsden, one of the most prominent men in the State, appeared before the bar of the supreme court of South Carolina, Wednesday and, through his attorneys, pleaded for a hearing in the appeal from the decission of Judge Robert Aldrich in the Lawrence case. In that decision Judge Aldrich referred caustically to the conduct of Mr. Gadsden as an attor-

The supreme court ordered that an investigation be held before the court on January 20. Attorney General Lyon is requested to conduct the investigation.

A Notable Case.

This is one of the most notable cases in the history of the courts of this State, on account of the prominence of the persons concerned. The Lawrence case was the suit of the heirs of a sister against a widow for president of the company first operating an electric street railway in Charleston. Dr. Lawrence's wife and his half sister had never met and knew nothing of each other personally.

It was alleged that Mr Gadsden, as attorney for the widow, got the sister of Dr. Lawrence, a woman of limited intellectual capacity, to sign away her rights under the will. It was further alleged that Mr. Gaddsden was guilty of unprofessional conduct in several ways. Judge Aldrich, in deciding the case in favor of Miss Lawrence, used very plain and indeed caustic language in speaking of the conduct of Mr. Gadsden.

Settled by Compromise.

An appeal was taken. While the case was pending in the supreme court, Mrs. Lawrence and the heirs of Miss Lawrence effected a compromise. However, in this compromise was no vindication of the professional conduct of Mr. Gadsden. Therefore he appealed to the supreme court not to dismiss the appeal until his personal honor should be absolved or the accomplaint in the suit by Miss Lawrence and the criticism of Mr. Gads-and liver trouble," wrote A. K. Smith, a war veteran at Erie, Pa., "but Dr. King's New Life Pills fixed me all right. They're simply great." Try them for any stomasch, liver or kidney trouble. Only 25c at Laurens Drug Co. and Palmetto Drug Co.

FALSE REPORTS CORRECTED. Editor of Laurens Advertiser:

Having received a number of letters of inquiry from various parts of the country concerning reports now being circulated as to my church relations etc. and feeling that it is due to the cause of truth, as well as to my own personal reputation, I seek this opportunity of making correc-

One report is, that since publishing my recent booklet entitled, The Bible Mode of Baptism, a Baptist preacher has taken me to task in a three nights debate, and that on the third night he convinced me of my "error" and that I made confession of the same before the public, joined the Baptist church and was immersed.

I wish to say that any such report is absolutely false and utterly without any foundation. I have never had a debate with any one on the subject of Baptism,-not three nights nor three seconds, nor have I ever retracted a single word published in the booklet. Being unable to meet the argument in any other way, this heirs of a sister against a widow for alleged rights under a will of Dr. I can learn, in order to counteract its influence. The $500.00 offer is still open, and yet no attempt has been made to correct the assertion which it challenges.

Another report is to the effect that no such person (as Mahaffey) is known to any one in Clinton. To this I wish to say that I am now serving the third year of my second pastorate of the Methodist church in this place, having served the same church four years about twenty years ago, and if desired, I can furnish references to scores of bankers, merchants, minis ters and college professors throughout the State. It is amazing to think that any one, even in desperation to brace up a pet theory, will resort to the manufacture of such fabrication. With kindest wishes for all, I am yours sincerely, J. E. Mahaffey

Clinton, S. C., Dec. 30, 1910.

$100 Reward, $100. The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has honor should be absolved or the ac-curacy of Judge Aldrich's decree should be established. The original complaint in the suit by Miss Lawbeing a constitution disease, requires a constitutional treatment. den by Judge Aldrich are quoted fully in Mr. Gadsden's plea to the supreme court.

Old Soldier Tertured.

"For years, I suffered unspeakable torture from indigestion, constipation and liver trouble," wrote A. K. Smith, offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.
Address: F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo,

Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for Con-

Visit The

Central Cafe

For Ladies and Gentlemen.

Our Long Experience has taught us how to serve you Neatly, Quickly and Agreeably.

Central Cafe

Laurens, S. C.

Open Until Midnight.

METAL SHINGLES

repairs. Think of it!

What other roofing will last as long and look as well? They're fireproof, stormproof, and very easily laid.

They can be laid right over wood shingles, if necessary, without creing dirt or inconvenience.

For page and other detailed information apply to

Local Dealer or

AUCUON

In the Town of

Gray Court, S. C. Jan. 12th, at 2 p

Will be sold to the Highest Bidder

Beautiful Residence Lots

-Business Lots-

These beautiful residence lots are fronting on Church Street, nicely located and in one hundred yards of the business portion of the town. are well elevated.

This is the most desirable residence property that will be offered in the town of Gray Court.

Also 6 business lots on Main Street, in the most desirable portion of the business part of the town.

Now is the time for you to secure a lot in this beautiful country town that is making rapid progress and where real estate is increasing in value every day:

Dont forget the Date and be on hand January 12, 1911 at 2 p

Terms of Sale Made Easy.

J. N. LEAK

"THE LAND MAN"