Today at one o'clock Miss Marie Gray, daughter of Mr. Hugh E. Gray, will be married to Mr. E. L. Swain of Charlotte, N. C. The marriage will be solemnized at the home of the bride's father, and the ceremony will be performed by the Rev. L. P. McGee, pastor of the First Methodist church. After luncheon has been served the bridal couple will leave at 2:30 for a wedding trip. Mr. Swain, the groom-to-be, is vice president of the Charlotte College of Telegraphy in which institution Miss Gray was a student last fall, having returned to her home Christmas when announcement of her engagement was made. She is the third daughter of Mr. Gray, and is an accomplished and popular young lady.

On Friday Mrs. W. E. Lucas entertained at an eight-course luncheon in honor of Mrs. C. E. Gray who is soon to give up her residence in Laurens for Georgetown. The Lucas home was beautifully decorated for the occasion, and the luncheon was a very delightful affair. The place cards were pretty pen and ink sketches, and each guest read a toast to the guest of honor. Including the hostess herself, there were present ten guests and the occasion was one of the most charming of the week's society events.

At her home on West Main street, Saturday morning, Mrs. H. K. Aiken gave a lovely reception in compliment to Mrs. Gray, the entertainment proving one of the most enjoyable of the series tendered Mrs. Gray on the eve of her departure from the city.

In celebration of his 51st birthday, Mr. Harvey Terry, a popular citizen and business man of the city, entertained 22 members of his family at a turkey dinner at the Terry Home Sunday, January 15. The members of the Wednesday Club were charmingly entertained by Mrs. Brooks Swygert at her home on Irby avenue Wednesday afternoon, it being the occasion of the regular semi-monthly meeting of the club. At the conclusion of the program of the afternoon, delicious refreshments were served.

PILES BRING DESPAIR.

Take Courage! Internal Treatment Will Cure.

Piles make life unhappy and ruin the best disposition. Most sufferers have been bitterly disappointed by many failures to find a cure. A medicine in tablet form, taken internally, that avoids the unpleasant features of ointments, suppositories, and operations, and cures thoroughly by removing the inside cause, is surely worth trying, especially as Laurens Drug Co. and druggists everywhere guarantee it.
