

MADDEEN NEWS

Madden, Aug. 28.—There was an especially interesting service at Prospect Sunday. The always solemn ordinance of baptism was administered to ten candidates by the pastor, Rev. Jodie Martin. Five of these however will unite with Beaverdam church. It was a beautiful scene and impressive. Two of the candidates were young boys both just merging into manhood, seven lovely young girls and one dear Christian mother, who came to us from another denomination. May they, like the Master of Old, "Go about doing good."

As it was a union service, we were glad to welcome many friends from other churches. We noted among the large congregation Mr. and Mrs. Edd Milam, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Madden, of Lisbon, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin, Mr. and Mrs. Will Teague, Mr. Tom Coleman, and nearly all the prominent members of Beaverdam congregation. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fowler of Mt. Pleasant and Mr. and Mrs. Bobb, Boyd of Ekum were among those who worshipped with us.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Montjoy of Clinton came over Sunday for the Baptist service.

Among the comers and goers recently in our midst we note the genial face of Mr. Haste Stuart and wife of Clinton who were the guests recently of Mr. P. H. Martin, Mrs. Stuart's brother. Miss Hallie Culbertson of Ekum was the pleasant guest of her uncle, Mr. J. D. Culbertson last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fowler, of Mt. Pleasant were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Culbertson Sunday.

Mrs. Mollie Teague has returned from a delightful family reunion at the home of her son, Mr. Edd Teague of Spartanburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Culbertson were guests recently of Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Finley.

Mr. Arthur Madden, Jr., of Columbia has been the guest for the past two weeks of his little cousin, Malra Madden.

Mrs. Pat Madden of Cross Hill spent last week with his brother, Mr. Jno. A. Madden.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Burts were over for the baptizing Sunday. While here they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bee Culbertson.

Mr. J. D. Culbertson is giving his store a thorough over-hauling on the inside. Messrs. Add Martin and Douglas Bryson are the workmen.

The machinery for the glunery has arrived. The gentleman sent out by the company is now here placing same, and the gin will be in operation at an early date.

Several changes in real estate has taken place. Mrs. M. T. Allison has sold her farm to Messrs. Clyde Martin and John L. Finley. Mr. Finley will begin to build at once on his part.

Mr. Pitts Henry has sold his home place to The Laurens Trust Company. We hope this farm will be subdivided and sold to small farmers. It is a most desirably located place.

Mr. Jimmie Benjamin of Beaverdam will also come among us. He is soon to erect a house near his father-in-law, Mr. Alonzo Culbertson.

Mr. Elisha Watkins has rented the place locally known as the Watt Finley place. With the influx of all these good people our community will necessarily receive a new impetus.

School time is with us again. Mrs. J. E. McFadden of Clinton will teach for us this year. Prof. B. Y. Culbertson, who for so many years did good service here, stepped out and up to the editor's chair in the sanctum of The Herald.

The rains have come and we are all serene and happy, save those alack, who have their fodder and corn tops down.

First Dose Ends Indigestion, Heartburn or Gas on Stomach.

The question as to how long you are going to continue a sufferer from indigestion, dyspepsia or out-of-order stomach is merely a matter of how soon you begin taking Bloodine.

If your stomach is lacking in digestive power, why not help the stomach to do its work, not with drastic drugs, but as re-enforcement of digestive agents, such as are naturally at work in the stomach.

People with weak stomachs should take a little Bloodine occasionally, and there will be no more indigestion, no feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach, no heartburn sour risings, gas on stomach, or belching of undigested food, headaches, dizziness or sick stomach; and besides, what you eat will not ferment and poison your breath with nauseous odors. All these symptoms resulting from a sour out-of-order stomach and dyspepsia are generally relieved five minutes after taking a little Bloodine.

Go to your druggist and get a 50-cent bottle of Bloodine now and you will always go to the table with a hearty appetite, and what you eat will taste good, because your stomach and intestines will be clean and fresh, and you will know there are not going to be any more bad nights and miserable days for you. Bloodine will refreshen you and make you feel like life is worth living.

Bloodine costs but 50 cents a bottle. Mail orders filled. The Bloodine Corporation, Boston, Mass.

DISASTROUS STORM

VISITS CHARLESTON

blow to both industries.

The fertilizer mills also were damaged badly.

In the city, the damage is largely in the unroofing of houses, blowing down of fences, toppling over of chimneys, etc. The flooding of premises and goods, with the unroofing of the buildings added to the property losses. The water front has suffered as it has not done since the cyclone of 1855, when great havoc was wrought. A half dozen wharves have been knocked away in whole or part and shipping has suffered a good deal.

Islanders Rescued.

Great anxiety felt for the safety of the people marooned on Sullivan's Island was relieved early in the afternoon with the arrival of the Consolidated company's steamer. The steamer tied up late yesterday at Mount Pleasant terminal, where it remained until this afternoon.

Harrowing experiences were told by some of the passengers. When the storm reached its highest the island was completely inundated. Houses were flooded. Splendid work in rescuing individuals and families was done by the soldiers from Fort Moultrie, the rescued being taken care of at the government reservation.

Along the water front great havoc was wrought to shipping. Two wharves were completely wrecked, while two pier heads of the Clyde Steamship company were badly damaged. Eight or ten schooners and small steamers were either sunk or damaged. The schooner Edwina has nine feet of water in her hold; a few boards tell the story of all that is left of the pilot boat Sophia Amelia; the dredge Sewes was sunk. The schooner Laura Hall is ashore on a mud flat up the Cooper river. The schooner Humarock sustained serious damage by pounding.

The naval reserves also suffered some loss.

High Tides at Wrightsville.

Wilmington, N. C., Aug. 28.—Except for very high tides at Wrightsville Beach, a summer resort nine miles east of this city, and the consequent scurrying of a number of residents and hotel guests to this city, Wilmington and this section felt very little effect of the severe storm that raged along the South Carolina coast Sunday and today. The British steamer Katherine Inward bound from Huelva, Spain, with cargo of pyrites, was struck by a rain squall some distance down the Cape Fear river and the pilot, having lost sight of the range lights the vessel ran ashore but was floated subsequently without damage and proceeded to this port.

Damage at Savannah.

Augusta, Ga., Aug. 28.—Passengers who have just arrived from Savannah, and crews of the Central of Georgia train, say the damage from the storm was not so great in that city as was first feared. The greatest injury to the city is in being completely cut off from all wire communication. No loss of life has been reported, though the wreckage among houses along the water front has been extensive. The streets are littered with debris and all today business was at a complete standstill.

The electric lighting plant and power house was seriously damaged last night and the city is in total darkness. No street cars are in operation and it is reported that they can't be in operation again before Wednesday morning or possibly later.

Trains are forced to proceed cautiously on account of the leaning telegraph poles and uprooted trees along the right of way. The greatest damage was in Tybee Island, which Conductor Harmon reports was practically inundated but reports from other sources is that the railroad from the island succeeded in operating trains up to 10:30 last night and practically all the people had gotten off the island to the mainland. It is also reported that there have been several coast wrecks.

Early Morning Report.

Summerville, Tuesday, Aug. 29.—The gale that has been sweeping over the South Carolina and Georgia coast for the past 36 hours was completely subsided last night at 11:30 o'clock, according to passengers reaching Summerville this morning at an early hour.

The loss is estimated at from $1,000,000 to $1,500,000. The death list of seven has not been increased although a diligent search of the city and outlying districts has been made.

Trains last night entered the union station. The water which was three feet deep in the station early in the afternoon has completely subsided. The city is in complete darkness and no street cars are being operated. Charleston police stated at a late hour last night that no vandalism had been reported.

Many of the summer visitors on the islands near the city left on the late afternoon train.

Reports reaching here from Sullivan's Island say there was no loss of life there, although the loss to property was great.
