MORE INFORMATION ABOUT OUR SUNDAY SCHOOL QUESTIONS

We again call attention to our Local Club in connection with the I. P. B. Q. C. We are safe in saying that nothing in the line of Bible study has so profoundly impressed the people of Laurens as the "Suggestive Questions" which we print today for the ninth week. If any of our readers do not read these question they had better commence, or they will soon begin to feel lonesome.

If you are already a subscriber to The Advertiser, can you spend $1.00 better than by ordering this paper for 56 weeks, or to the end of this contest, for some worthy young person, that he or she may take up the course of reading and compete for the prizes. Only one person can use one paper, as there is only one coupon in each, and that is sufficient only for one person to certify that the reading has been done. Now is the time to put the Advertiser into the hands of all who should take up the study of these "Suggestive Questions," so as to be in good trim to start when the contest commences in five weeks from now. If you can induce any person, young or old, to take up this easy course of study, you will do him or her more good than you can ever estimate. Now is the time to come into line yourself and induce others to do so. Use the attached coupon for your order.

Send The Advertiser from now to December 10, 1912, the close of the Bible Question Club Contest, for the price of $1.00 enclosed. Count me a member of the Local Club.

Esther Fleeing for Her People. Esther iv:1-3.

Golden Text—The Lord preserveth all them that love him. Ps. cxlv:20.

(1.) Verses 1-3—In what city did the events of this lesson occur?

(2.) What were the circumstances which caused Mordecai to rend his clothes and put on sackcloth?

(3.) Why would it ever or never be right, no matter how awful the calamity, for a man of God in these days to experience or show such great grief as Mordecai and the Jews did?

(4.) What are the benefits of prayer and fasting, in the presence of an impending calamity?

(5.) How did the actions of Mordecai suggest that we should never give up trying to the utmost, to prevent any impending calamity?

(6.) Verses 4-9—Who was Esther, and how came she to be the wife of this Persian King?

(7.) Is grief as necessary as joy in the life of every person? Why or why not?

(8.) Is it always right for us "to weep with them that weep?"

(9.) What in substance was the decree which had been issued against the Jews?

(10.) From the actions of Haman, what would you say is the strongest passion which makes men cruel and vindictive?

(11.) Verses 10-11—What were Esther's reasons for not wanting to go in unto the king, with the request to save her people?

(12.) What were probably the reasons for attaching the death penalty to all who would enter the king's inner court unbidden by him?

(13.) What if any reason is there to suppose that, as Esther had not been called by the king for thirty days, Haman had been working some scheme to keep them apart?

(14.) Verses 13-14—Why was it probable if there had been no interference with Haman's plans, that Esther would have been slain with the rest of the Jews?

(15.) In carrying out his purpose has God generally more than one plan with which to do it? If so, give an example.

(16.) Was it true that Esther had been, in the providence of God, placed upon the throne for this crisis, and is it also true that God has a special purpose in life for every person? Give your reasons.

(17.) Verses 15-17—In what respect did Esther show the spirit of a heroine, a martyr and a wise woman?

(18.) Are such noble qualities as Esther possessed possible for everybody? Give your reasons.

(19.) What is the benefit of getting others to join us in fasting and prayer, when we anticipate a great calamity? (This is one of the questions that may be answered in writing by members of the club.)

(20.) Chap. v:1-3 What is the difference between a coward and a brave man?

(21.) Does God ever disappoint a courageous man?

Lesson for Sunday, Nov. 12th, 1911. World's Temperance Sunday. Belshazzar's Feast and Fate. Dan. v.

TRY THIS.

Overnight Cure for Cold in Head or Chest.

Get a bowl three quarters full of boiling water, and a towel. Pour into the water a scant teaspoonful of HYOMEI (pronounce High-o-me.)

Put your head over the bowl and cover head and bowl with towel. Breathe the vapor that arises for a few minutes, and presto! your head is as clear as a bell, and the tightness in the chest is gone.

It's a pleasant cure. You'll enjoy breathing HYOMEI. You'll feel at once its soothing, healing and beneficial effects as it passes over the inflamed and irritated membrane. 50 cents a bottle, at druggists everywhere Ask the Laurens Drug Co. for extra bottle HYOMEI Inhalent.

PREACHER KICKED OUT.

Following Brisk Melee, Members of Denver Congregation Ejected Rev. Rudolph With Some Violence.

Denver, Oct. 25.—The Rev. W. S. Rudolph is nursing cuts and bruises, and a number of other members of the Union Presbyterian church are using soothing lotions today because of ten minutes of lively fistcuffs over church affairs. During the melee the pastor was thrown through a window.

Dr. Rudolph with a number of his friends were sitting in the rear of the church, while trustees and others severely arraigned the pastor for attempting to retain possession of the church after he had resigned from the board of governors.

Then a motion was carried to go into executive session in a room adjoining the church. Dr. Rudolph led his cohorts to a back door and entered the room. A fight at once became general.

Women in hysterics bolted into the open, while a dozen or more men punched at each other in grim earnestness, several of the becoming engaged while attempting to act as peacemakers.

Dr. Rudolph and his church are prominent, and the affair has caused a great stir.

EXZEMA.

Don't close the pores of the skin and drive it in. Persons afflicted with eczema, scrofula, psoriasis, ulcers, pimples, etc., frequently have recourse to strong astringent, external remedies to dry up and close the pores of the skin in order to get temporary relief, forgetting in their anxiety, that by so doing they are forcing the poisonous germs back into the blood to reassert itself in a month after, in the old disease area, or some other part of the body, in a more malignant form. How much better to help the blood throw off the impurities which cause these diseases and get permanent relief. Blood is the most important constituent of the human body, and when impure is the underlying cause of most of our ailments, particularly skin diseases. Take Bloodine to purify the blood and apply Bloodine Ointment to the skin and you will cure the cause of this most dreaded disease. Guaranteed to cure by Laurens Drug Co. Mail orders filled by the Bloodine Corporation, Boston, Mass.

One plug of PENN'S CAMPION and SQUARE DEAL bought from Todd & Simpson will convince you that they are the best 10 cent plugs on earth.

Wedding Commencement OR Birthday Gifts
