

LOCAL AND PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. W. W. Jones returned from Newberry last week.

Mr. Allison Lockwood, of Clinton, was in the city yesterday on business.

Mr. A. K. Hughes, of the Mt. Bethel section, was in the city on business Saturday.

Miss Bessie Roland has gone to Cheraw, where she will visit her sister, Mrs. McLeod.

Miss Willie Dorroh, who is teaching at the New Harmony school, spent the week-end at home.

Miss Lallah Mae Dial went to Greenwood yesterday to attend a dance given in that city last night.

Misses Ruth and Ethel Langston left Monday for Clinton where they will visit relatives for a few days.

Mrs. H. W. Cosby, Mrs. Dabney Cosby and Miss Grace Cocke of Virginia are the guests of Mrs. R. E. Hughes.

Mrs. J. Y. Wallace, who has been spending some time in Augusta with her husband, has returned to the city.

Miss Lottie Young, who teaches the Copeland school, came into the city Monday evening to see "Paid in Full".

Messrs. D. A. Davis and W. H. Anderson will leave today for the northern markets, where they will purchase spring goods for Davis-Roper Co.

Mrs. W. R. Richey, Jr., and little Sarah Richey, have returned home after a pleasant visit in Jacksonville, Fla.

Messrs. Charles and Henry Winn, of Clinton, spent Sunday in the city as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Murph.

Mrs. J. C. Smith, of Waterloo, and her sister, Mrs. Babb, of the Rabun section, were in the city shopping Thursday.

Mrs. L. P. McGee returned home yesterday evening, after having been treated for several weeks at a Columbia hospital.

Mr. G. Pope Irby, who has been in the city for a few days, returned yesterday to the University of North Carolina to resume his studies.

Laurens Girl Entertains.
Jonesboro, Tenn., Feb. 9.—Miss Corrine Putnam entertained with progressive heart dice at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Geigler Saturday evening, complimentary to Mrs. E. E. Putnam, of Virginia Intermont college, Bristol, Va. The guest of honor wore a gown of cream embroidered chiffon over messaline. The hostess was gowned in lavender crepe de chine with pearl trimmings. Mrs. Geigler assisted in receiving and wore a handsome blue messaline. Miss Sara Thomas won the prize, a box of candy, which she gracefully presented to the guest of honor. The "booby prize," a bag of assafoetida enclosed in a beautiful satin-lined box, was awarded to George Thomas. After the games, Mrs. Putnam, who is very talented in voice and piano, rendered several selections which were much enjoyed. The guest list included Misses Grace and Sara Thomas, Margaret Hoss, Nelle Mathes, Phyllis Deaderick, Carrie Smith, Mrs. Putnam; Messrs. Fred Britton, George G. Thomas, Paul Fink, Leon Smith, Henry Anderson, Jno. D. Cox, Jno. R. Anderson.—(Knoxville Sentinel).

Notice School Trustees.
To school trustees and teachers in Laurens county in need of blackboards
We have a quantity of Hylolplate black-boards 4 ft. wide in 5 and 6 ft. lengths in a slightly damaged condition which we will sell at a sacrifice. It cost our school from $2.50 to $3.50 a piece. We will sell it from 50 cents to $1.00 a piece as long as it lasts. Some of it is in as good condition as that we are now using. It is a bargain to schools in need of blackboards and are contemplating buying.
