MADDEEN NEWS

Madden, July 2.—How quickly time speeds by! Another "glorious fourth" is almost with us. We trust no serious accident will mar the day.

Mr. Wesley Madden, a farmer of the Lisbon neighborhood had the misfortune to get his leg broken Saturday afternoon while on his way home from Laurens. When near Boyd's Cross Roads, his shafts in some way became loose or broken and as he was driving a horse that kicked, it immediately began to kick, with the result that Mr. Madden's leg was broken and he in the buggy.

Mrs. Tom Shaw fortunately came up just then in her car, and soon had the injured man on his way to the hospital where he was cared for.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Finley, who have both been sick, are up now and enjoying their usual health.

Little Misses Elizabeth Martin and Blanche Cox of Ora were recent visitors to their cousins, Kathleen and Winona Martin.

Misses Sude Langston and Juanita Martin, accompanied by Mr. Claude Finley attended the Union Meeting at Mt. Pleasant Sunday and took dinner with the pleasant family of Mr. Evans McDaniel, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Langston went up to the Union at the First Baptist church, Laurens, Sunday and while there were the guests of their son, W. H. Hudgens.

The friends of Mrs. Luther Finley will be pleased to hear that she was able to leave the hospital on Friday last and is now at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. Nelson.

Was it not the esteemed Cross Hill correspondent that suggested all correspondents sign their names? Please don't! How could some of us face our cognomen weekly! Let us be duly thankful that we have made progress since the days of "Rosebud" and "Bonnie Bell". Let us be content just now over our simple dignified point of vantage, "esteemed correspondent"! Perhaps the real names will come later.

News has just reached here of an approaching marriage that will be of interest to the large family connection and hosts of friends of the bridegroom.

Miss Carrie Williams of Greenville, and Dr. J. J. Langston, formerly of Laurens, but now pastor of Baptist church of Conway, will be married in Greenville some time in July.

Dr. Jno. D. Pitts, of Blackville will assist Rev. Jodie Martin in a series of meetings at Prospect, beginning the fourth Sunday in July.

RED IRON RACKET.

Big Laurens Store Has Just Completed a Thorough Over-Hauling.

Red Iron Racket, known in every corner of the Piedmont as the House That Sells Same Goods For Less Money and likewise known for many other customer-winning, hustling traits, has just finished a complete over-hauling of its big Laurens store-room. The two rooms that they formerly occupied have been changed into one large apartment and it now looks like it could—and really does contain most every variety of articles from sewing machines on down to a stock of good old peppermint candy. An annex has been placed on the west side, which contains the office of that hustling hustler, Mr. L. E. Burns, the manager. According to him their "dinky-on-the-spot" crew of clerks can now handle more goods in same time and same goods in less time.

These are therefore, to cite and admonish all and singular the kindred and creditors of the said A. M. Given under my hand this 2nd day of July, Anno Domini, 1912. O. G. THOMPSON, Probate Judge.

Eleven to seven! A merchant who knows says that it cost him eleven cents per delivery by horses—and seven by Ford cars. The difference? Due partially to the tremendously increased cost of living for Dobbin—but mainly to the wonderful efficiency of the Ford.

Ford delivery cars cost but $700 f. o. b. Detroit—complete with all equipment. In mechanical construction they are identical with all the seventy-five thousand new Fords we are making and selling this season—a proof of their unequalled worth. Get particulars—and booklet—from Ford Motor Company, Michigan and Fourteenth Street—ordirect from Detroit factory.
