IN BALTIMORE

Superintendent of Orphan Home at Greenville, who Escaped from Prison After Being Arrested for Assault Upon Inmates, Arrested in Baltimore Sunday School. Baltimore, Sept. 22 .- T. U. Vaughn, ertwhile superintendent of the South Carolina I, O. O. F. Orphanage at Greenville, who sawed his way to liberty from the jail there on the night of June 26th, where he had been confined on charges of criminal misconduct toward inmates of the orphanage, was arrested today in a Baltimore

Sunday school. Vaughn's arrest was brought about by Mr. R. E. Allen, Jr., young son of Mr. H. W. Allen, of Greenville. Mr. Allen, who came to Baltimore a few days ago to accept a position in a bank here, detected Vaughn as both were on their way to Sunday school. Following Vaughn until he entered the church, Mr. Allen then turned and called detectives. Several minutes after the detectives received the message, thy arrived on the scene and walking up to Vaughn Detective Armstrong said: "Hello Vaughn, what are you doing in Baltimore?" A hunted look crept into the man's eyes and he made a movement as if to escape. The other detective grabbed him by the arm and he was taken to the headquarters office, where he denied to the captain of detectives that he was the man wanted in Greenville.

Later when confronted with a pic ture of himself, Vaughn broke down and admitted that he was the man wanted. He was searched and in a wallet in his side pocket was found $445. Several newspaper clippings, taken from

The Greenville News relating to his escape from jail were also found. Since his arrival in this city several weeks ago. Vaughn has been a student at the Baltimore medical college where he was taking a course in When interviewed tomedicine. night in the central police station where he is being held, Vaughn refused to tell anything of his where abouts since he left Greenville except that he spent a week or two in Norfolk. He appears to take his arrest coolly and stated that he was coming back to Greenville in January to fight the charges against him. Asked who helped him to escape from jail, Vaughn stated "Lots of friends in Greenville," who would be willing to spend a lot of money and time to free him of the charges against him. He asked to be placed in a cell in the upper room of the station house but as the police are taking no chances of his escaping he was placed on the lower floor. R. E. Allen, when interviewed at Central Y. M. C. A., of this city tonight said: "I was walking on Eutaw street with several friends when I noticed a man on the opposite side of the street, who it seemed that I knew. 186 Other pets, such as cats, squir- I walked over and was very much surprised to see that the man was Vaughn. I followed him and saw him enter the church. Iasked one of my friends to telephone the police and I entered the church and watched him until the officers arrived. He was placed under arrest and as the police were leading him away, the man turned to me and stated that he would get even." Mr. Allen stated that he telegraphed to his father last night to claim the reward which is offered, and tonight Mr. Allen received a telegram from his father which stated that Governor Blease had been teregraphed and the reward would be paid to his son. Marshal of Police Farnan also received a telegram from Sheriff Poole who stated that he would leave Greenville tonight for Baltimore.

Misses Irene and Mabel Goodwin Mon-Vaughn is willing to return to South Carolina without extradition papers.

> Hyman Endel, president of Mountain Lodge No. 15 Independent Order of Odd Fellows of Greenville, who is stopping in this city called at the station house tonight to see Vaughn. What the conversation was Endel refused to say,

"It don't take more'n a gill uv ef-fort to git folks into a peck of trou-ble," and a little neglect of constipa-tion billowerses trailection to tion, billousness, indigestion or other
