OCTOBER WEDDINGS OF INTEREST HERE

Burney-Cunningham.

The wedding in Summerville Thursday evening of Miss Florida Cunningham to William Melton Burney of this city was an affair of state-wide interest, both young people being prominently and widely connected, and having a host of friends. The groom's father and Mrs. W. B. Burney, his sisters, Miss Addie and little Miss Dorothy Burney, attended the wedding together with George Sparkman, who acted as best man, Edward McCrany of the university, who was one of the groomsmen, and little Miss Lillian Evans, who with little Dorothy Burney were the flower girls, and Miss Burney was one of the three bridesmaids who attended the lovely bride.

Miss Cunningham and her aunt, Miss Florida Cunningham, Sr., with whom she lives, have been spending part of the summer months in Summerville and the wedding took place there rather than at the old family home, "Rosemont," in Laurens county, for the convenience of the many relatives of the bride in Charleston and the low country.

The ceremony at the church was followed by a reception at the house for relatives and intimate friends. There, as in the church, pink and green were carried out in all the decorations. A pretty courtesy to the bride as the grand niece of Miss Ann Pamela Cunningham, who originated the plan for the preservation of Mt. Vernon, George Washington's home, was tendered her by the Mt. Vernon association in the form of a beautiful bouquet of pink roses sent to her from the gardens of Mt. Vernon. These were carried at the wedding by Miss Cunningham, Sr., who gave the bride in marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Burney have gone North on their wedding trip and on their return will be with Dr. and Mrs. Burney on the university campus for several months, probably through the winter.

In Columbia a cordial welcome will be accorded the lovely young bride by the many friends and admirers she has won for herself on the occasion of several visits here. Attractive in person and in manner, she will be counted a decided acquisition to the congenial society set which she will enter.—The State.

Glenn-Austin.

Miss Lillian Glenn of Newberry and Mr. Nat Austin of Laurens county were married on Thursday, the 10th, in Columbia, at the home of Mrs. Jenkins. The bride is a daughter of the late Jas. F. Glenn of Newberry. She has lived in Newberry, where she has a host of friends, since her childhood, except for the past few years, when she has been the principal of the school at the Connie Maxwell orphanage, Greenwood. Mr. Austin is a prosperous farmer, his home being three miles from the city of Laurens. The marriage took place at 10 o'clock a. m., the couple leaving Columbia by the midday C. N. & L. train for their home.

Barksdale-McGee.

A marriage of great interest to a large number of people here as well as in other parts of the state will take place in Greenville this evening, when Miss Susan Olivia McGee will become the wife of Mr. Alfred D. L. Barksdale. Miss McGee is the daughter of Mrs. James Martin McGee, of Greenville, and is a popular and admired young lady. Mr. Barksdale is well known and universally liked in this country, being the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Barksdale, of this county. Since graduation from Furman University he has been connected with the Southeastern Life Insurance Company, of Greenville, where he has made a reputation for himself as a live and progressive business man. The young couple will make their home in Greenville.

Taylor-Norris.

A beautiful home wedding was celebrated on Thursday afternoon, Oct. 3rd, at 2 o'clock, when at their home in Fountain Inn, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Taylor gave in marriage their daughter, Ida Mae, to Mr. Albert S. Norris, of Columbus, Georgia. The bride is a highly accomplished young lady, who is well and favorably known throughout the entire section, having for a number of years been one of Laurens county's most successful teachers.

The groom is a successful young business man of Columbus, where he holds a responsible position in the U. S. postal service.

The young couple never looked more handsome than on this afternoon. The bride was beautifully gowned in white messaline with crystal trimmings.

Rev. P. F. Kilgo, presiding elder of Greenville district, performed in an unusually impressive manner the ceremony which made them man and wife.

The numerous beautiful presents received testify to the esteem in which the young couple is held. Mr. and Mrs. Norris leave for Columbus, Ga., their future home on Oct. 10th, carrying with them the best wishes of their many friends for their future happiness and success in their new life.

Stevens-Wilkes.

(Camden Chronicle.)

One of the most beautiful and brilliant weddings ever witnessed in Camden was solemnized at the Presbyterian church Wednesday evening, when Miss Lillier Stevens, of this city became the bride of Mr. Samuel M. Wilkes, of Laurens. Long before the appointed hour the church was filled with interested friends, who were charmingly entertained with several beautiful selections on the organ by Miss Alberta Team. The church decorations were in white and green, the altar draped in white net, over which green smilax was gracefully fastened and white candles gleamed everywhere. The aisles were carpeted in white and the long white satin ribbons untied at the door and brought down to the altar, by the little people, Master John Stevens Davidson, and Miss Katherine Stevens, formed a beautiful "white-way" for the bridal party to pass. Miss Team played the wedding march, and as the party slowly entered, and advanced to their places, they presented a striking tableau around the altar. The ushers were, Messrs. W. L. DePass and Leroy Davidson, of this city and Mr. W. G. Stevens, Rock Hill, Mr. W. M. Stevens, Lancaster. The bridesmaids were Misses Edna Sitgreaves and Imogene Wilkes, Laurens, Marion Satterwhite, Sumter, and Harriet Shannon, Camden. They were beautifully dressed, two in white, carrying yellow flowers, two in yellow, with huge bouquets of white flowers. The attractive groomsmen were Messrs. Earl Wilson, Vance Irby and Mr. Wasson, of Laurens, and Mr. Tom Wilkes, of Norfolk, Va., Miss Hallie Carrison as maid of honor was charming in yellow satin, and carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums. Mrs. Leroy Davidson and Mrs. H. S. McKay, sisters of the bride were dames of honor, and were indeed handsome in white chiuon over soft white satin, with pearl trimmings, and white flowers tied with yellow ribbons. The bride entered with her brother, Mr. John Stevens, of Kershaw, by whom she was given in marriage. Her striking beauty, which marks her as one of the stately types of Southern womanhood, was enhanced by her beautiful gowns of shimmering white chammoise, draped in costly Brussels lace, and effectively trimmed with clusters of valley-hilles and crystal drops. Her airy veil fell gracefully and was caught by clusters of pearls and diamonds. A cluster of diamonds at her throat was the gift of the groom. She carried an exquisite bouquet of bride's roses showered with lilies of the valley. The groom, with his best man, Mr. R. F. Fleming, of Laurens, awaited her at the altar. Master Leroy S. Davidson was the handsome ring bearer, and they were united in marriage by Rev. J. P. Marion, of Sumter, assisted by Rev. Jesse Cowan, of this city.

The reception which followed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Davidson was indeed a brilliant function. The rooms of this handsome home were elaborately and beautifully decorated, a color-harmony of green, white and yellow being carried out in everything, the rooms on the first floor being thrown into one, and converted into a bower of Southern smilax and au-turn flowers. Electricity, the queen of illuminants, threw her radiance everywhere, but her brilliant lights were softened by dainty flower shades of sunny yellow. Delicious refreshments were served in the dining room, and here the decorations were particularly pleasing. The brides table in the center, beneath the smilax entwined chandelier was all in white and yellow. It was charmingly individual in arrangement and artistic in effect. The bride and her maids gathered around and cut the cakes, the usual fate emblems falling to the different members of the party. The wedding presents numbering up into the hundreds, and offering an unusually handsome collection, were displayed in one of the halls. On the porch from a crystal bowl, embedded in ferns, Miss Louise Blakeney, of Kershaw and Miss Toccoa Cain, of Laurens, served champagne punch. These young ladies instilled enough of their own bright and sparkling personality into its ruby depths to make the spot alluring in more ways than one.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilkes left on the southbound Seaboard for Cuba. After a wedding trip in this summer land they will be at home in Laurens.

Among the out of town guests were: Mrs. Anna C. Stevens, Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Stevens, Mrs. W. B. Wilson, of Rock Hill; Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Stevens and little daughter, Katherine, Messrs. Leroy Springs and J. H. Witherspoon, of Lancaster; Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Blakeney and Misses Louise and Katherine Blakeney, Dr. Will Twitty, Mr. R. B. Neely, of Kershaw, Misses Mary, Juanita and Lella Wilkes, Mrs. A. D. Gray, Miss Toccoa Cain, Messrs. Earl Wilson, R. F. Fleming, Vance Irby, Eugene Wilkes, and Misses Edna Sitgreaves and Imogene Wilkes, Mrs. Homer Blackwell, of Laurens, Miss Marion Satterwhite, Mr. and Mrs. Ossteen, Mrs. Moise, and Mr. Scott of Sumter; Mrs. D. S. Pope of Columbia; Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Wilkes, of Norfolk, Va., and others.

Caine-Fleming.

A marriage which came as a surprise to their friends in this city and elsewhere was solemnized at Wilmington, Del. Friday evening, when Miss Jennie T. Fleming became the wife of Mr. Frank H. Caine. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Carrie Fleming, of this city, and the groom is the son of Mrs. Rosa I. Caine, also of Laurens. Both of the young people are very popular here.

The couple were at school, the bride being in Washington and Mr. Caine in a business school in Wilmington. They decided to get married Friday evening and being unable to secure a license in Washington went to Wilmington, where they were married at about 11 o'clock, a search for a minister having been successful. The young couple will make their home in Wilmington, N. C., where Mr. Caine goes into the offices of the A. C. L. Railroad.

Put "Rest" in Restaurant.

About five months ago one Lee Summers came here from Clinton and opened a restaurant in Main street, near the lower end. He was accompanied by his wife and a young lady, Friday Chief Lominaek, with a search warrant went through the place and was the man who put rest in restaurant, for he found ten quarts of whiskey in a new suit case and broke up the house work. Chief got the whiskey, but Summers failed to appear for trial Saturday, having left. Chief Lominaek has given the woman and the girl until Wednesday to leave town.—Newberry Herald and News.

This tribute to an article advertised in this paper comes to us from Spartanburg, S. C. Mr. T. G. Rely of that town writes: "A few days ago I stepped off the train down at Union and another travelling man whom I had never seen before walked along with me to the hotel. He asked me what I was selling and as usual, I said LUZIANNA COFFEE. He says, 'Well, well, I am glad to know you, I have been using Luzianne for nine years. I live in Atlanta, and a few months ago moved to another part of the city. The grocer I began trading with in this new part of town did not sell Luzianne. He sent us a high priced bulk roasted coffee that he ground in his store. My wife called my attention to the fact that our coffee bill had run up three times as heavy as when we used Luzianne. I told him to buy Luzianne, or lose a coffee customer. He bought it on my warning and today is selling Luzianne regularly.'

THE GREATEST HIT IN YEARS

Prices 50 cents to $1.00

Will You Spend ONE DOLLAR to Elect Wilson President?

How deep is your conviction that this government ought to be in new hands, in clean hands?

How much are you in favor of a clean slate from Wilson and Marshall clear down the line to the very smallest offices in your locality?

The Democratic National Committee has every reason to believe that every progressive voter is willing to spend a dollar to elect Wilson and Marshall and their ticket.

And that thousands are anxious to contribute to the Wilson Campaign Fund in amounts of $2, $5, $10 and $20.

To such we make our appeal. To such we must look for victory.

Time An Important Factor

This is another case where time is money. The enemy have their funds—supplied instantly by the interests.

We have only a few days and contributions to be effective must be received at once.

There is no question of the money of the People being able to defeat the money of the Trusts.

Because it is greater even in volume and will be used in straightforward telling ways.

But to be effective it must be received and used within the next few days.

Quick action is absolutely necessary. Let us have your contribution or the list you make up from your friends and co-workers today if possible, tomorrow sure.

How Your Money Will Be Spent

Woodrow Wilson, our standard bearer, has never had the time or disposition to talk about himself.

He has never used spectacular methods to place himself in the spotlight.

His greatest work has been done without ostentation, in the most expeditious, dignified manner.

The great mass of voters do not know what a really great man Wilson is. They do not know all he has done. They do not understand all the features of his platform. We must tell them.

To educate this great nation of voters, especially the clear thinking Independent Democrats, Republicans and Progressives who choose their leader on his merits, means the expenditure of a vast amount of money.

We propose to use your dollars in just this way—judiciously, and without a penny frittered away for an unnecessary item.

We know you have confidence we will do this thing—and successfully.

Why the Dollar Counts

In this campaign the issues lie between the forces of Representative Government and Popular Government.

In Representative Government only a part of the people have influence—those with no political faith, who spend fortunes in any direction where their own ends are furthered for money.

In Popular Government all the people have influence, because their executives and legislators do not dare to thwart the expressed will of the people.

Representative Government, as ever, this year is being supported by the money of the interests. It is being spent lavishly to give the voters a wrong impression of Wilson.

Popular Government, this year, to win, must depend on the truth being told about Wilson. We must publish his record and platform broadcast so that no one can controvert it.

Your $1, your $2, your $5, your $10 or $20 will count and count to win if spent in this work.
