Bad Spells

"I suffered, during girlhood, from womanly weakness," writes Mrs. Mollie Navy, of Walnut, N. C. "At last, I was almost bed-ridden, and had to give up. We had three doctors. All the time, I was getting worse. I had bad spells, that lasted from 7 to 28 days. In one week, after I gave Cardui a trial, I could eat, sleep, and joke, as well as anybody. In 8 weeks, I was well. I had been an invalid for 5 weary years! Cardui relieved me, when everything else failed."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

If you are weak and ailing, think what it would mean, to you, to recover as quickly as Mrs. Navy did. For more than 50 years, this purely vegetable, tonic remedy, for women, has been used by thousands of weak and ailing sufferers. They found it of real value in relieving their aches and pains. Why suffer longer? A remedy that has relieved and helped so many, is ready, at the nearest drug store, for use, at once, by you. Try it, today.

PLEASE PAROLE POPE HAVIRD.

Saluda Man Under 5-Year Sentence Gets Liberty.

Columbia, Oct. 26.—Pope B. Havird, of Saluda County, serving a five-year term for assault and battery of a high and aggravated nature, was today paroled by the governor during good behavior and upon the further condition that "if he violates any of the criminal laws of this state and be convicted thereafter that he shall be returned to the State penitentiary to serve the remainder of the sentence in the case for which this parole is granted."

Havird, a prominent white planter, of Saluda, was charged with having attempted to run down in the public road, Miss Mitchell, a young school teacher, about twenty years of age. Havird, according to testimony at the trial, was driving a mule when he came upon Miss Mitchell and attempted to run her down, so frightening her that she had to remain away from school for several days. It was said that the trouble arose over Miss Mitchell having attempted to discipline a child of Havird's at school.

In passing sentence on Havird at the time of his conviction Judge Sease sentenced him to five years and told him he would suspend it at the end of two years. However, it has been decided that a judge cannot suspend sentence and Judge Sease joined in asking the governor to extend clemency to Havird. Records in the governor's office show that a strong and numerously signed petition was filed in behalf of Havird by the people of Saluda. Havird has only one arm.

Offense Charged Against Havird.

Saluda, Oct. 26.—Pope B. Havird, paroled today by the governor, was convicted of assault and battery of a high and aggravated nature at the March term, 1911, court of Saluda county, and sentenced by Judge Sease to five years on the county chain gang. The particular charge for which Havird was convicted was an effort to drive his mule and buggy over Miss Carrie Mitchell, a young lady teacher. Havird being incensed because she had whipped one of his children. The trial excited considerable attention and some parts of the testimony was sensational. Havird's attorney endeavored to get a change of venue to Edgefield county, contending an impartial trial could not be had in Saluda county. Upon the showing made Judge Sease promptly refused the motion. The action of the governor in granting a parole will probably meet with general approval in this county, as those who know Havird best believe the lesson he has learned will prove a valuable one for him.—News and Courier.

Womans' Missionary Union.

To the missionary workers in the churches of the second division of the W. M. U. of Laurens county:

Dear Sisters: Perhaps most of you know that the W. M. U. of Laurens county, at our last annual meeting, was sub-divided into three divisions in order that we might be enabled to hold quarterly meetings through the year and thus be brought in closer touch with, and be more helpful to, each other. The second division of which I was selected president, is composed of the churches named below.

I was disappointed in not being able to go to the association at Quaker, for I felt sure so many members of our division would be there. Mrs. Bobo writes me that, at an informal meeting there, an invitation was received from the society of Chestnut Ridge to hold our first quarterly meeting with them. I therefore appoint this committee on time and they can let us know when the meeting will be held: Mrs. Clara Watts, Mrs. R. A. Cooper and Mrs. Lena Brown. All of these good ladies have telephones so, though they are not close together, yet it will be very easy for them to arrange, the time, I would like to suggest this, however, that it be on Saturday and some time in December; on Saturday because that will enable our members who are teachers to be with us, and also some mothers, whose older children are at school but who are at home on Saturdays and in December, as that will give us all of November to work on the program.

These are the churches composing hope that each womans' society and young people's society and Y. W. A. will be represented and meet with us in our quarterly meeting at Chestnut Ridge: Princeton, Rabun Creek, Chestnut Ridge, First Laurens, Lucas Ave., Mt. Gallagher, Mt. Olive, Poplar Springs, Union, and New Prospect. Next week the program for the meeting and the exact time will be published. We trust that each member, who is appointed on the program, will feel that it is her duty and call for higher service and will give us her best thoughts. We desire to have our first meeting worthy of the cause we represent.

Sincerely,

Cleo C. Wofford,
Madden, S. C. President.

Morning Sickness

Many women suffer this misery. It makes its appearance so regularly that they learn to expect it and arrange their household work accordingly. Few women think of seeking medical help to get rid of it for good. If women only knew of the power and effectiveness of Dr. Simmons Squaw Vine Wine they would not be without it a moment longer than it would take to get it from the drug store. It is a splendid remedy for all nausea or sickness of the stomach. The first dose settles the stomach and makes the patient feel better. Additional doses act on the female generative system, strengthening weakened organs, regulating the habits, restoring tone and strength in every part of the body. It is essentially a woman's remedy prepared expressly to meet the need of women who suffer from the ailments common to their sex.
