A SOUTHERN MAN.

"The Mother of Presidents" Contributes one more of Her Sons to the Nation as "The Leading Citizen."

For the first time in sixty five years, since Zachary Taylor was elected in 1847, a southern man has been elected to the presidential chair. A southern man has served as president since Taylor, Andrew Johnson, of Tennessee having filled out the unexpired term of Abraham Lincoln, but Woodrow Wilson is the first southerner chosen by the people. Although Wilson has spent the few latter years of his life in New Jersey, his early boyhood and young manhood was spent in the south, Columbia, Augusta, Davidson college, Savannah and other places, laying a claim to him as a "favorite" son. His real boyhood days, from thirteen years of age until he was twenty one, Wilson spent in Columbia, where his aunt, Mrs. James Woodrow, affectionately known as "Aunt Felle," now lives.

Woodrow Wilson is the eighth president born in Virginia, Ohio coming next with six.

The following are a few facts on his life:

Born, Staunton, Va., December 28, 1856.

Lived in Columbia, S. C., 1869 to 1875.

Went to Davidson College, North Carolina, in 1873.

Entered Princeton University in 1875; graduated in 1879.

Studied law at the University of Virginia in 1880.

Practiced law in Atlanta, Ga., 1882-1883.

Married Helen Louise Axson, of Savannah, Ga., June 24, 1885.

Associate professor of history and political economy, Bryn Mawr College, 1885-8.

Professor of history and political economy, Wesleyan University, 1881-90.

Professor of jurisprudence and politics, Princeton University, 1890-1902, president, August 1, 1902 to October 20, 1910.

Became governor of New Jersey January 17, 1911.

Nominated for president of the United States on democratic ticket at Baltimore, July 3, 1912.

Elected president of the United States November 5, 1912; will take oath of office March 4, 1913.

REV. MARLER ORDAINED.

Rev. John A. Marler Ordained to the Ministry of the Baptist Church at Lucas Avenue Church Tuesday.

The following account of the ordination services at Lucas Avenue Baptist church Tuesday, when Rev. J. A. Marler was ordained, was sent to The Advertiser:

The Lucas Avenue Baptist church of Laurens having called for and arranged for the ordination of Bro. Marler invited the following brethren as a presbytery, viz: Rev. W. E. Thayer, Rev. J. Dawson Bowen, Rev. J. M. Trogdon, and the deacons of the church, to assemble on Nov. 5, 1912, for the purpose of examining and setting apart Bro. Marler to the full work of the Gospel ministry.

Organization resulted in the election of Rev. J. M. Trogdon for moderator, and Rev. J. Dawson Bowen, secretary.

After opening prayer led by Deacon H. C. Godfrey, Bro. Marler was asked to tell of his conversion and call to the ministry, which he proceeded to do before the congregation which had assembled. He told of his experience of Grace and call to preach in a most convincing and satisfactory manner.

Then he was closely examined as to what he understood by Baptism, The Lord's Supper, Regeneration, Repentance, Faith, Atonement, Sanctification, Resurrection, Future punishment of the wicked, Life everlasting, and inspiration of the Bible.

Bro. Marler showed that he was familiar with the Bible by the comprehensive way in which he handled each doctrine.

It was a most pleasing examination and the candidate passed it very satisfactorily, not only to the presbytery, but to the congregation before whom it was conducted.

The presbytery retired and after a short deliberation unanimously voted to recommend to the church the ordination of Bro. Marler.

Bro. J. M. Trogdon, moderator, and the candidate's pastor, stated the recommendation to the church. The church unanimously voted for the ordination.

Bro. W. E. Thayer in a few well chosen words and in his characteristic happy manner delivered the charge (which was the best we remember to have ever heard).

Then Bro. J. Dawson Bowen presented the Bible and delivered the ordination prayer, after which the presbytery laid on their hands, and in behalf of the ministerial brotherhood, Bro. Thayer gave the right-hand of fellowship.

Bro. Marler dismissed the congregation with a most earnest prayer. God's unlimited blessings be upon our young brother!

J. Dawson Bowen, Sec'y.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

HARMONY NEWS.

Harmony, Nov. 8.—The sad news of the departure of Mrs. Eleanor Siebert will be received by many sorrowing friends. The death angel visited the home of Mr. J. H. Carlisle last Monday evening, Nov. 4th, and carried the spirit of this good woman into the great beyond. She was nearly 76 years old at the time of her death. Her maiden name was Aull, born and raised in the city of Laurens. When quite a little girl she gave her heart to God and attached herself to the Methodist Episcopal church and she always loved her church and did what she could to supply her pastor's needs. She took a delight in visiting the sick and ministering to the wants of the needy.

Mrs. Siebert at the age of 18, was married to Mr. Robert Siebert and they remained in Laurens until 1870 when they bought land here where she has lived ever since. She leaves nine children to mourn the loss of a sainted, good mother: Mrs. Mamie O'Dell, Mrs. Freddie Carlisle, Mrs. Eloise Compton, Mrs. Eleanor Grant, Mrs. Lucia Bobbit, Mr. William and George Siebert, of this community and Mrs. Saida Siebert of New York, and Mrs. Carrie Cogdill, of Marlboro county. Her funeral services were conducted at Mt. Bethel by her pastor, R. W. Dubose on Tuesday evening, after which her body was laid to rest by the side of her husband who had preceded her to the grave about 25 years. Her death was not a surprise as she has been badly afflicted for ten years or more, having had a stroke of paralysis that long ago. The family have the sympathy of the entire community.

This writer made a pleasant visit to Cross Anchor not long since.

Mrs. Jesse Wood is very sick at this writing. Her friends hope she will soon be well again.

Mr. and Mrs. Blake, of Williamston, are visiting Mrs. Blake's brother, Mr. Jesse Wood.

Mr. G. B. Taylor has done some good repairing on his dwelling.

Mr. J. B. Cook has rented Mr. James Simpson's home place for another year and has moved to it. When asked why he moved so soon he said "To take advantage of this pretty weather as he has about finished gathering and had not much to do."

Why Not "Elmore" County?

An agitation is in progress for the formation of a new county out of parts of Laurens, Union and Spartanburg and its advocates would have it called "Musgrove," because the little battle of Musgrove Mill in the Revolution was fought on Enoree River within the territory of the proposed county.

Whether or not the county be created is not a question with which we are concerned but, if it be created, why call it "Musgrove"? Does not the battlefield commemorate itself, or, if it does not, will not the Daughters of the Revolution erect a stone so that the spot shall not be forgotten? There was no prominent colonial family named "Musgrove." Perhaps the "Mary Musgrove" of Kennedy's novel once lived, but "Mary Musgrove," the heroine, is a creation of the novelist's fancy.

The district to be included in the proposed county gave birth to one of the most distinguished of South Carolinians, certainly the most distinguished man that Laurens county has produced, Senator Franklin H. Elmore. Senator Elmore was born on a plantation, in Jacks township and to name a county in his honor would be wise and appropriate. Of the 44 counties in South Carolina not more than half a dozen, if so many, perpetuate the names of eminent South Carolinians.
