

The Laurens Advertiser.

16 PAGES; PART 2, PAGES 9 TO 16

VOLUME XXVIII.

LAURENS, SOUTH CAROLINA, WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 11, 1912.

NUMBER 20

INTERESTING ITEMS FROM THE COUNTY

News Letters From Many Sections.

CORRESPONDENTS
GIVE LOCAL NEWS

Happenings of Interest to Many People all over the County and to Those Who Have Left the Family Hearthstone and gone to Other States.

Dials, Dec. 9.—Rev. J. P. Attaway preached his last sermon at Dials Sunday morning. He leaves Tuesday for Oswego, his new charge. Mr. Attaway has only been here two years, and his removal came as a surprise. Notwithstanding our regret in losing him, as loyal Methodists, Mr. Munnerlyn and family will receive a cordial welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Owings and children, of Fountain Inn, spent Sunday with Mr. H. Y. Simmons and family.

Miss Addie Curry of Greenville, spent the week-end with homefolks here.

Mr. W. L. Brooks visited Mr. Ernest Harris Sunday.

Rev. J. P. Attaway and son, and Mr. and Mrs. Alec McCall were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Curry Sunday.

Mr. Wellie Abercrombie of Hendersonville was the guest of Mr. D. D. Brownlee, Sunday.

Mrs. Isabella Brooks, has returned from a visit to relatives in Laurens. Miss Nell McCall, was the Sunday guest of Miss Jewel Curry.

Jones, Dec. 9.—We recently met the following friends, Messrs Joseph Moore of Ekum, Joe Haddon and Brise Clinkscales of Due West and Mr. John Bagwell of Princeton.

Mrs. T. J. Beacham and Mrs. J. R. McInch attended the Methodist conference at Anderson.

Those in need of carpenter work will find it to their interest to call upon J. H. Oulla and Joe Beasley.

Messrs. Beacham and Riley stored a large lot of cotton at Ware Shoals, recently.

Mr. G. L. Graham recently visited Abbeville.

We cordially welcome Mr. Jas. Daventport, who has moved into our midst.

Rev. Hower Owens, a returned missionary from China preached yesterday at Turkey Creek church. He was reared in this section and was a pupil of the Jones high school when Prof. W. P. Culbertson taught. His friends wish him success in his ministerial work.

We were pained to hear of the recent death of Mrs. Wm. Dodson and tenderly sympathize with the bereaved family.

Mr. W. R. Cothran has repainted his house.

We will have a Christmas tree on Christmas day and everybody is cordially invited to attend.

Madden, Dec. 10.—Well, we trust that from now on the weather will be steady cold. Last week was exceedingly trying on the well and also the sick.

We regret to report the very serious illness of our friend and neighbor, Mr. Thad Martin. He is exceedingly low today and all hope of his recovery has been abandoned.

Mr. Herman Boyd was called home last week on account of the sickness and death of his younger brother. Herman has made many friends here who sympathize with him in the death of his brother.

Mr. John W. Finley is able to be out now, after his recent sickness.

Mr. J. A. Wofford left for Spartanburg Sunday to resume his work again.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wright and Mr. Dr. Martin of Enoree and Miss Jessie Martin of Clinton, were the guests of their grandmother, Mrs. M. T. Allison Saturday night and Sunday.

Mr. W. H. Hudgens and daughters, were the guests of the family of Mr. T. L. Langston Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Allison, Mrs. J. A. Wofford and Miss Susie Langston attended and enjoyed the quarterly meeting of the W. M. U. at Chestnut Ridge.

Mr. Orvin Watkins was the week-end guest of his nephew, Mr. Bee Culbertson and brother Mr. Elisha Watkins.

Miss Ida Turner, our progressive teacher, attended the teachers' meeting at Laurens Saturday. She was accompanied by several of her pupils who helped select the pictures for the new school house and those who were on the honor roll went to the moving picture show. The children of this generation surely have better opportunities than we! What would we have thought of a picture in our school-house?

Mr. Henry Madden of Greenville was the guest recently of his brother, Mr. Lee Madden.

Relatives of Rev. W. J. Langston, of Conway, expected that he would stop over on his way from the convention at Abbeville. He however, could not stop, but will be up for the holidays.

Princeton, Dec. 8.—Misses Estelle Taylor, Sara and Susan Britt spent last week-end in Laurens, with Mrs. T. Lane Monroe.

Mrs. John Bagwell and Miss Lydie made a business trip to Honea Path Saturday.

Rev. Mr. Copeland of Belton filled the appointment at Columbia church Sunday morning, for Rev. Mr. Foster of Greenville, who was kept away on account of sickness in his family.

Rev. R. M. DuBose and family expect to leave Wednesday for their new home in Pinewood, where they were sent by the conference for the coming year. Mr. DuBose will be succeeded by Rev. Mr. Morris of Turberville.

Mr. Cleveland Knight of Gray Court, was a Sunday visitor here.

Mr. M. M. Arnold, of Belton, spent a few days here last week with his father, B. F. Arnold.

Dr. J. B. Britt made a flying trip to Belton Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jno. M. Wood are real sick here with pneumonia. Their many friends wish them a speedy recovery.

The Princeton high school pupils will give for the benefit of the school, on the night of Dec. 20, "Christmas at the Cross Roads." An admission fee of 10 and 15 cents will be charged. Refreshments will be sold after the play.

Eden, Dec. 9.—The farmers of this section are about through gathering their cotton.

Mrs. Mammie Allen, spent several days last week with relatives in Eden.

Mr. C. V. Hipp and little son, Gray, spent Friday and Saturday in Mountville.

Mr. H. B. Mahon and wife left Tuesday for Chatanooga, Tenn., where they will make their future home. We regret to see them leave very much as Mr. Mahon was one of our leading merchants. He sold his lot and house to Mr. S. R. Gray who will continue a full line in the same stand.

Mr. Ambrose Holder spent a few days in Greenville last week.

Mr. B. L. Babb and wife were the guests of Mr. M. W. Gray and wife Thursday.

Miss Bess Knight spent last week with Mrs. Ambrose Holder.

Bartley Brooks of Gray Court, spent Saturday night with William Brooks of Eden.

Mrs. Earl Gray returned home Sunday after spending a week in Fountain Inn with her sister.

Mrs. M. W. Gray and son, Booth, were in Laurens Friday.

Miss Sue Gray and Mrs. Author Allens spent Wednesday night with Mrs. J. H. Gray of Fountain Inn.

The health of the community is very good at present.

Watts Mill, Dec. 9.—Fairview camp No. 422 W. O. W. met on last Friday night and elected officers for the coming year. The following were elected: Past Consul Commander, W. W. Griffin; Consul Commander, L. E. Bishop; Adviser Lieut, Rufus Carter; Banker, D. L. Boulware; Escort, W. A. Riddle; Watchman, W. A. Patton; Sentry, John Wise; Physician, Dr. R. R. Walker; Manager, A. T. Wells; Representative to head camp, L. E. Bishop and R. H. Donaldson and D. L. Boulware, alternate. Fairview camp not only has a good set of officers, but is also a hustling camp and still growing in number.

A very good number was out to prayer-meeting Wednesday night. The meeting was conducted by Bro. T. E. Mahaffey.

Quite a large congregation was out Sunday morning to hear Bro. Davis deliver his farewell address, as the

Delight Your Friends This Xmas With Gifts of Jewelry

THERE is a silent language in Gifts of Jewelry which expresses more clearly than tongue can tell the real sentiment which inspired the giver. A Gift of Jewelry is an appreciated gift—a lasting gift—a gift which gives not only immediate pleasure, but one which serves to remind the recipient that the giver both treasured and cherished the friendship which the Gift of Jewelry so feelingly expresses.

A well selected and complete jewelry stock like this affords one the greatest possible opportunity for putting one's own personality into the gift.

Because a gift is an article of jewelry does not necessarily imply that it is expensive. Many really desirable and truly beautiful gifts which are inexpensive and certain to be more greatly appreciated than larger gifts of less intrinsic value, may be selected from our stock.

It matters not what you have allotted yourself to spend for gifts this Christmas, you can spend your allowance to greater advantage in this store.

Suggesting the Variety of Our Stock

La Vallieres, Necklaces, Bracelets, Pendants, Brooch Pins, Vanity Sets, Mesh Purses, Scarf Pins, Silver Dresser Sets, Rings, Cut Glass, Watches, Belt Pins, Fobs.

OPEN EVENINGS UNTIL AFTER CHRISTMAS

William Solomon

The Reliable Jeweler

After Christmas, WHAT?

The yearly transferring of books stares those in the face who do not use loose leaf ledgers. To those who do use them, it is a source of self congratulation to know that they have been businesslike enough to do away with this extra drudgery.

Why continue to make this annual transfer of ledgers when it can be so easily avoided and at no extra expense.

We would be glad to show them and explain them.

Advertiser Printing Co.

Laurens, S. C.

conference has sent him to Camden for the coming year. The people here who had learned to love Bro. Davis regret very much to see him leave, but wish him much success in his future life.

Rev. J. A. Marier preached to a good congregation Sunday night at Lucas Avenue Baptist church.

Tylersville, Dec. 9.—Several from this community went to Bethany last Sunday to hear Rev. J. B. Branch.

Miss Amanda Glenn spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. F. O. Little.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Burnett and Miss Nina Pöbbs of Spartanburg spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Poole and family.

Mrs. S. F. Blakely has returned from a visit over to Due West.

Misses Lydie and Lizzie Sloan of the Pea Ridge section spent Friday with Miss Lucy Donnan.

Miss Mattie Belle Peterson is visiting relatives in Laurens.

Mr. Niles Clark of Clinton visited relatives here Sunday.

Miss Katie Groyllish of Columbia spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dennon and family.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Cooper were in Laurens Saturday.

Miss Ella Peterson and brother, William were in Laurens shopping last Friday.