

SON OF NOVELIST CONDEMNED TO PRISON

Julian Hawthorne Sentenced to United States Prison for Swindling People in a Get-Rich-Quick Scheme.

New York, March 11.—The Hawthorne mining trial which has dragged along nearly four months before a jury in the federal court here came to a close yesterday, with the conviction of three defendants, Julian Hawthorne, Dr. William J. Morton and Albert Freeman, and the acquittal of Josiah Quincy, twice mayor of Boston and assistant secretary of state during the Cleveland administration. Hawthorne, Morton and Freeman were guilty of making fraudulent use of the mails in selling stock in the exploitation of Canadian ore claims. Quincy was exonerated by United States Judge Mayer on all but one of the counts of five indictments before the case reached the jury, was held not guilty on the one remaining indictment of conspiracy in allowing his name to be used in promoting the scheme. The jury was out 27 hours.

Judge Mayer pronounced sentence on the three men whom the jury had found guilty and paroled Quincy until next October, when he is directed to appear in answer to two indictments still pending against him. Freeman, a New York business man of 26 years, was sentenced to five years in the federal penitentiary at Atlanta. Hawthorne, son of Nathaniel Hawthorne the novelist, and himself an author, and Dr. William J. Morton, son of Dr. W. T. G. Morton, the first user of ether in surgical operations, were sentenced to one year and one day at Atlanta. Freeman's prison term is to date from the first of the present year and the terms of Hawthorne and Morton from November 25, the day the trial began.

Of 27 counts against the three men found guilty, Freeman was acquitted of four and Hawthorne and Morton of seven each. Judge Mayer granted a ten day stay to allow an appeal.

Counsel for Hawthorne pleaded for suspension of sentence for the author. "Fault of judgement rather than bad intent," was advanced in Hawthorne's behalf.

"I will ask your honor to consider that the defendant is getting on in years," said counsel. "He is penniless. It is true, too, that the long ordeal which the trial has been to him and the name he had labored so long and so hard to keep clean is sullied, and that is sufficient punishment".

Judge Mayer, in denying this request, declared that the defendants had "the fairest trial possible." They were charged by the government with having obtained about $600,000 from the public in their exploitation of the so-called Hawthorne properties. Hawthorne, Freeman and Morton were locked up in the Tombs.

Think this over

Who gets the Money?
You earn?

Economy looks like an up-hill game when you first begin, and sometimes it IS an up-hill game; but it is the ROAD TO PROSPERITY, and if you can persevere in your small economies you will find this out. Your extravagance does not draw interest. Some day you will pay interest on your present extravagance. If you put that money in the BANK NOW, you can some day afford to buy the luxuries you crave without missing the money.
