MADDEEN NEWS

Madden, June 23.—Rev. Jodie Martin filled his regular appointment at Prospect Saturday and Sunday. It was announced that the protracted meeting would begin as usual on the 4th Sunday in July. Rev. Mr. Lee, the pastor of Waterloo Baptist church will assist Bro. Martin during the series of meetings.

Mrs. J. L. Bass and children of Hartsville, who have been on a visit here to relatives, left Friday for a visit to her sisters, Mrs. Agnew of Greenville and Mrs. Hughes, of Greers.

Mrs. Maggie Martin, who has been with her brother, Mr. Jno. R. Finley for the past months, left Saturday for a visit to her other brother, Mr. T. R. Finley of Honea Path, before returning to her home in far off Texas.

Some of our little ones are sick. Dr. Christopher of Laurens was out Sunday afternoon to see the little boy at Mr. J. D. Culbertson's and Dr. Dial was called to see little Lillian Moore, the same afternoon. We trust both children will soon be better.

Mr. and Mrs. Dobbins, of Caroleen, N. C., and Mr. and Mrs. J. Lee Langston of Laurens formed an automobile party that passed through our little city Sunday afternoon. They were shaking hands with their Langston kin through here. We were glad to see the face of Mrs. Dobbins (she who was Mary Langston), once again and all join in wishing Mr. Lee Langston and his better half "bon voyage" in their wedded life.

Miss Kate Wofford left Tuesday for the Summer School at Rock Hill.

Mrs. Mary Allison has been sick, but her friends will be glad to hear that she is better.
