Couldn't Walk!

"I used to be troubled with a weakness peculiar to women," writes Mrs. Anna Jones, of Kenny, Ill. "For nearly a year, I could not walk, without holding my sides. I tried several different doctors, but I grew worse. Finally, our druggist advised Cardui for my complaint. I was so thin, my weight was 115. Now, I weigh 163, and I am never sick. I ride horseback as good as ever. I am in fine health at 52 years."

CONFERENCE PROGRAM FOR THE COMMON GOOD

The Program is Rapidly Approaching Completion and Some of the Very Best Authorities That Can be Secured will Take Part in Program.

The program of the Conference of the Common Good is rapidly approaching completion, though invitations to discuss some of the topics have not been issued owing to the fact that the committee is endeavoring to find the very best authority for each topic. The committee has just received the acceptance of Mr. W. J. Shuford of Hickory, N. C., who will discuss "The Organization and Work of the Cooperative Creamery" at that place. Mr. Shuford is also engaged in the organization of a rural building and loan association to be conducted along the lines which have recently been discussed in the pre of the late. Mr. Shuford will have a prominent place on the conference programs for Thursday. He will make a brief statement of the organization and method of his cooperative association and will then submit to a cross examination by the farmers and business men of South Carolina who may be seeking information on specific points.

On the same day Mr. Clarence Poe, the editor of the Progressive Farmer, will describe in detail the workings of cooperative associations which he has recently studied in Minnesota.

Rev. W. H. Mills, the pastor of the Fort Hill church at Clemson college, will discuss "The Part of the church in rural development." The committee is planning a conference of ministers for the 7th, at which this important topic will receive further discussion.

Following the address of Dr. P. P. Claxton, United States commissioner of education, on Thursday evening, Dr. H. N. Snyder, president of Wofford college, will speak on "The Majesty of the Law."

On Wednesday evening, which will be devoted to the general topic "Homes of Our People," Rev. E. O. Watson, the president of the Horry Industrial school and secretary of the South Carolina Conference, will discuss "The Relation Between Home Ownership and the Prosperity of the Church."

Thursday morning's meeting will be devoted to "Education and Child Welfare." In addition to those already announced for this program, Supt. S. H. Edmunds will discuss the topic "Building a Teaching Profession in South Carolina."

Mrs. E. S. Mather, president of the Housewives League of Charleston, will discuss a "Home Market for Home Products" from the standpoint of the league.

All these discussions are intended to be merely introductory to the general discussions in which every one will be invited to participate.

In Memory of Mrs. D. F. Balentine.
Oh! why should bitter tears be shed,
In sorrow o'er the mounded sod,
When verily there are no dead
Of all the children of our God?

They who are lost to outward sense
Have but flung off their robes of clay
And clothed in Heavenly radiance,
Attend us on our lonely way.

While sorrow's tears our eyes have wet,
Shed o'er the consecrated dust
Too much our darkened souls forget
The lessons of enduring trust.

Let living faith serenely pour
Her sunlight on our pathway dim,
And death can have no terrors more
But holy joy shall walk with Him.
—Selected.

ELECTROCUTED FOR DOUBLE MURDER

M. L. Garrett, Lee County Man, Killed Son-in-Law and His Father on May 18, is Executed in Two Weeks After Committing Crime.

Columbia, July 14.—For the murder on May 18 of Aaron Campbell, his son-in-law, and J. H. Campbell, the father of Aaron, in Lee county, M. L. Garrett, who has served terms on the chain gang of his county and in the state penitentiary, was this morning electrocuted at the state prison in the presence of some 35 witnesses. In the crowd were several citizens of the neighborhood where the crimes were committed. A brother of Aaron Campbell was present to witness the legal atonement for the death of his brother and father.

Garrett, who during the period of his confinement at the penitentiary has apparently faced death with the greatest fear, this morning walked into the death chamber and sat in the chair with splendid composure, though it was evident in the low tones that he used that he felt deeply the awful seriousness of the moment. His last request was: "Kill me quick and don't hurt me any more than you can help."

Garrett's deed was prompted by a fierce jealousy. Hatred for the man who married his daughter caused him to go to her home and the double killing resulted. Garrett then forced his daughter to accompany him to the woods nearby, where he stayed in hiding for several days. Bloodhounds from the penitentiary trailed the man and finally led to his place of hiding where he was captured without bloodshed.

LISBON LOCALS.

Lisbon, July 14.—The farmers are getting up with their work and "laying-by" time is at hand, but the crops are too small to think about that right now. Rain is needed, especially for up-land corn. Young corn is not suffering as yet, but a good soaking rain would make things look brighter for the farmers and incidentally for those who are in the "supply" business. Speaking of this furnishing business, the farmer has it in his power to remedy this method to a large extent.

We live in a grain county and to go to Laurens on Saturday and other days in the week and see the corn, flour, bacon and hay going out to feed the stock and people when they could raise all this at home, well you can't tell the people who to vote for in our days, much less tell them how to plant corn so they may run their own affairs.

The melons are getting along slow, but when they come in, we want you and your force, Mr. Editor, to come down and have a feast for one time, we might be able to give you chicken, if we can stop them from having the limber neck, however, if we fail to stop the limber neck, we have some very fine hams of our own raising that might go well.

Miss Ida Miller of Islandton, Miss Marie Oliphant of Blacksburg, Mrs. R. B. Watts of Columbia, and Cousin of Knoxville, will visit Mrs. Ballew in a few days.

James McLin, Hayne Taylor, and Frank McGowan visited James, Paul and Reid Holmes on the 4th.

Miss Sara Holmes and others had a delightful picnic on the 4th on Little River. Those who attended report a dandy time.

Misses Julia Macfarland and Janie Brown were the guests of Mrs. Ballew on the 4th of July.

We were pained to learn of the death of our old friend, Mr. Foster Nelson. He was our neighbor once and we are frank to say we never lived by a better man, and peace to his ashes, and may God be with his family to the end.
