WITH THE CORRESPONDENTS

What the People of Laurens County are Doing Worthy of Note--Interesting Items About Those Things Which Affect the Every Day Life of a Sociable People.

Cross Hill, Sept. 22.—Mr. W. H. Leaman was over from Greenwood last week looking after his farm works.

In mentioning those who are off for college last week we failed to mention the name of Miss Hary Hill. She will go to Limestone college.

The rain interfered very much with the cotton picking last week. Very little farm work of any kind was done.

Rev. W. B. Ratchford, after a nice long vacation is at his post again, and preached at his church here Sunday.

The Presbyterians here are making arrangements to entertain Presbytery next week. The meeting will begin Tuesday evening with a sermon by the last Moderator and after the sermon Presbytery will be organized by the election of moderator and assistant clerk. There will be morning, afternoon and evening sessions and probably preaching at 11 a. m. and at the evening service each day. It is hoped that all our people will attend every service. The public is cordially invited to attend. A committee on entertainment will meet the trains on Tuesday and assign all delegates to homes.

Mr. Hassell Miller is at home on the sick list.

Mrs. Rhidona Johnston, after a nice long visit to home folks left for her home at North, S. C., last week.

There was a children's service at the Baptist church Sunday afternoon. Interesting exercises by the little ones and a Bible talk by Miss Kate Austin, on training children in missionary work.

Rev. J. A. Martin preached for Mr. Ratchford at the Presbyterian church Sunday evening. Mr. Ratchford began a meeting at Mountville Sunday evening.

Mr. Latimer Razor of Donalds, was in town today.

Mr. J. D. Witherspoon moved today from the Payne home, south side, to Mr. W. H. Leaman's place on the north side of town. He had a chicken hen sitting. He put her, nest and all in his auto and moved it to his new home. The hen took the ride alright and was not disturbed at all but seemed to enjoy it. The box was not covered or the hen confined at all.

Mr. J. O. Martin has been elected teacher of the Mt. Olive school for the incoming session.

The election recently held to vote on an additional school tax, met with success, and we hope to have a better school and longer term.

Several of our young people have recently left for their respective schools and colleges.

Misses Sarah Cooper and Bertha Bolt left last Saturday for Linwood college, N. C.

Cadet P. M. Washington left Thursday for Clemson college where he will take up another year's work.

Miss Eula Mae Knight has gone to Greenville where she will attend school this session.

Mr. George Cooper spent Sunday with his grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Moore, of Ekum.

Miss Lillie Martin has accepted the position as teacher of the Reedy Grove school for this session.

Mr. Boyce Boland spent Saturday night and Sunday with his uncle, Mr. Mitchell Owings of the Woodrow Wilson section.

Mr. Thos. Ducworth visited his sister near Honea Path, Sunday.

Mrs. J. C. Wells spent last week with her mother at Cross Hill.

Dials, Sept. 22.—We have been having plenty of rain for the last week. The farmers didn't get any cotton picked out.

Mrs. C. V. Hipp and little son, Gray, visited Mr. Will Hipp and family of Mountville, last week.

Dr. J. W. Beason and wife, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Mahaffey and children, visited Mr. M. W. Gray and family Saturday.

Carl Reeves left Tuesday for Waynesboro, Va., where he will teach school again.

Miss Bulah and Annie Mae Armstrong were the guests of Misses Sadie and Virginia Gray Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Babb and Mrs. Emily Woods spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Mahaffey.

Booth Gray left Tuesday for Clemson where he will attend school.

Rev. H. L. Baggott spent Sunday night with Mr. M. W. Gray and family.

Lisbon, Sept. 20.—We have had rain all the week and farm work has been stopped, but the sun came out a few minutes ago. We hope to see some fair weather so we can finish pulling fodder so that we can get to the cotton fields. The crop is going to be a short one, that is a foregone conclusion. The farmers are sowing rye, clover, vetch, barley, oats and wheat and will be all the fall. Some grain is already up, and it looks well. There will be more grain sowed this fall than in years. The farmers know what high price corn means. We very often notice in our rounds and see some very few people who have nice hogs and nice gardens, and we rise to ask the question, why one and all don't have these things that are so much needed to make farm life a success. Would you think that it is real trifling-ness? We know some people who would not milk a cow for the milk and butter.

We are sorry to learn that one of our neighbors, Mr. Calley Jack and family will leave the Dunlap farm. There will be other changes outside of Mr. Jack's.

Mr. and Mrs. Norwood Martin's son, Little Tom, is not improving much. The little fellow has had a tough time of it.

Mr. and Mrs. John Pasley and children of Williston, Fla., are spending a few days with relatives on their way home from Asheville, N. C.

We are glad to know that Richard Dunlap will run his father's farm next year. "Slick" is a fine fellow and is not afraid of work. We have remarked several times during the last few years.

Citizens, we know some boys that will not go to school, but will go to the pool table and play pool all day and let his poor father work hard to make a living for them. If you will notice what the papers say about those boys, both white and black, after the court is over you would not be surprised that boys who do not work are obliged to get their money somewhere. We know some boys who play pool, will work while others will not. What we mean in the outset, those who do not work.

Some of Col. J. H. Wharton's friends are urging him to make the race for congress. Col. Wharton is a good mixer and if he makes up his mind to enter the race there will be something doing.

We are looking forward to see some good man who will come out and say to the farmers "You send me down to the lower house of your government, and I will get a bill through the house, that one farmer cannot hire another farmer's hand and will force him to work his time out or be put on the gang and work it.

Poplar Springs, Sept. 22.—We have had a week of wet weather which is putting the farmers behind with their work and has stopped the cotton from opening. It came too late to be of much benefit to cotton as it is pretty well matured what bolls it has on it, but is fine on peas, potatoes, turnips, and small grain where sown.

Mr. Wilbert Wood left last Tuesday for Furman university.

Messrs. T. T. Wood, Capers Wood, J. A. Simmons and Ernest Dodson went to Greenville this week.

Mr. John R. Elledge whom we reported as being sick last week is able to be up again, but is not able to do any work yet.

Messrs. H. O. Walker, Rufus Bagwell and S. E. Elledge left this morning for Sandy Springs to attend the Laurens County Singing convention. We would be glad if they would have it in this part of the county sometime.

Rev. B. P. Mitchell preached a very fine sermon at Poplar Spring this afternoon on the obligation of the Church to the individual member and announced that he would preach on tomorrow on the obligation of the individual member to the Church.

The Ladies' Missionary society, of Poplar Spring church will serve ice cream and cake at the school house, beginning at 2:30 o'clock Saturday, the 27th. The proceeds to be used for the purpose of purchasing a new carpet for the church. All are invited to come and help in a worthy cause.

Ekum, Sept. 22.—This section has just been visited by a much needed rain which will be a great help to late cotton.

Mr. A. R. Thome's ginney is kept quite busy under the management of T. J. Cooper.

Miss Myrtle Culbertson is rapidly improving after quite a continued spell of fever.

Mrs. J. R. Cooper and son, Roy, of Augusta, Ga., also Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Check, of Laurens, recently visited Mrs. Lou Culbertson, who has been quite sick, but we are glad to report, is some better.

Mr. Charlie Keasly, is also better after a few day's sickness.

Mrs. J. M. Moore and children are improving after a severe attack of something like chickenpox.

Mrs. T. H. Burts spent the week at the home of C. Y. Culbertson.

Mr. J. W. Godfrey and mother visited relatives in Clinton recently.

Miss Emma Elledge left Saturday for a visit to her uncle at Landrum.

Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Cooper have returned home after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Georgia.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Culbertson of Cross Hill were recent visitors in our town.

Mrs. Barbara Culbertson and daughter spent the day with Miss Laurence Culbertson and mother.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Burts, on Sept. 10th, a son.

The friends of Miss Frankie Culbertson will be glad to know she is still improving.

Mountville, Sept. 22.—Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Fellers, of Columbia, are visiting Mr. Feller's mother, Mrs. Mary Fellers.

Miss Sarah Fellers leaves Tuesday for Columbia where she will attend the College for Women.

Uncle John Cluck, an ex-citizen of our town, but now living near Newport, Tenn., is on a visit to his son, Mr. W. J. Cluck.

Mrs. Mary Cluck left last week for Camp Hill, Ala., where she is visiting her sister, Mrs. Irene Langley. She was accompanied by Miss Edith Frazer who is attending school there.

The contract for the erection of the new school building has been awarded to Messrs. Baxter and King, and work is expected to begin at an early date. These contractors have just completed a handsome school building at Chappells.

A series of services were begun at the Presbyterian church Sunday night, conducted by Rev. F. D. Jones, of Clinton, who is an able and forceful speaker.

Mr. T. A. Lynch has purchased from Mrs. Eugenia Teague, the little cottage in the rear of the park and will move his family to town January 1st. We always welcome a good citizen like "Uncle Arch" to our town.

Alsie Fuller wet over to Clinton last Thursday when he matriculated with the P. C. of S. C. "Rats".

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Bryson are at home again after a two months' stay in Mullins.

Jones, Sept. 22.—Messrs. John Robertson of Pelzer, John Culbertson of Tennessee, Jas. Riser of North Carolina and Augustus Brock of Honea Path, were in our midst recently.

Those wishing to purchase, lease or rent homes can be accommodated reasonably.

Misses Jennie and Sara Martin and Isabelle Beacham have returned to Lander college.

Miss Olivia Jones is teaching at Oakton, S. C.

Mr. John Sadler of Hodges, paid us a pleasant call a few days ago.

Born on the 21st inst., to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Martin, a son.

Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Dallas and Miss Margaret have returned from a northern tour.

Miss Wynona Riley resumed teaching in Laurens last week, as proof of her popularity this is her fifth year to teach the school.

Rev. Mr. Morris preached a splendid sermon on the second Sunday night.

Judge B. L. Henderson is visiting his sons, Jas. and Bob at Branchville.

Messrs. Beacham and Riley have installed another gin and have a ginning capacity of 45 bales daily.

Mr. Ed Gaines of Ware Shoals is going to give highest price for cotton and it will be to the interest of the farmers to sell there.

Frank Morrison, Jr., has accepted a position with Ware Shoals Mfg. Co.

Mr. J. C. Gambrell has an extra fine field of cotton that he expects to get two bales per acre.

Mr. and Mrs. Pet Davis of Donalds, visited the latter's parents, Hon. and Mrs. J. F. Morrison yesterday.

Pine Bluff, Sept. 22.—Messrs. Guy Boozer and Nathaniel Davis spent a part of last week in Columbia.

Rev. W. P. Turner and wife (Mrs. Florence) last Thursday attended the Woman's Missionary association which met at New Prospect church Wednesday and Thursday.

Mrs. Turner reports that the meeting was very good and a large crowd was present.

Alice Brown began school in Cross Hill last Monday. Here's wishing much success.

The Sunbeam Band of Bathabara will have "Rally" exercises Sunday morning beginning at ten o'clock and every one is invited to attend.

There will be an address at eleven by some minister. All church members are urged to be present as there is some important business that much be attended to right away.

Mr. Archie Milling of Greenwood visited relatives Sunday night.

Uncle John at Gettysburg.
By Wm. D. S.

I spent three of the happiest days of my life at the reunion at Gettysburg. I was the guest of the 21st Indiana Regiment and they entertained me in royal style. An incident of the fight 50 years ago came into my mind as I stood in front of the Round Top.

Nine of us Confederates were sent out on a scout, and we met eleven mounted men of the Union army. We went right at one another, and soon I was the only one left on our side, and two cavalry men on the Union side.

One of them made at me, and was snapping his pistol right at my head, when I charged him with the bayonet. As I made a thrust his horse reared up and the bayonet went right through his heart, over went horse and rider. With the man pinned under the dead horse. Two of our Confederates, passing near, heard the row, and rushed in and captured the other man, and helped me roll the horse off my man. They wanted to take the watch and pocket book of my prisoner, but I told them they could not rob my man when he had surrendered. I carried my prisoner to headquarters where I was told to take him to a certain officer, who was paroling the prisoners. We could not be numbered with a lot of captured men, being in the enemy's country and we needed every man in the ranks to fight our way out.

A woman was relating the capture of her husband to a crowd, who stood around her on Round Top. Standing below her, I was an attentive listener to her story. When she finished I asked her permission to complete her tale. I am the man that captured your husband and paroled him in the Gettysburg fight. His son rushed down and threw his arms around me and hugged me. His wife and about a thousand Yankee women ran down the hill, and laid hold of me, shook hands and patted me nearly to death. I sure did have a big time!—Uncle John.
