Coroner Hairston passed through town Saturday en route to the home of Mr. Tom Neal, to hold an inquest over the dead body of Isaac Smith. Friday night Mr. Neal missed one of his mules just before retiring and guessed that some one had rode it off. He waited and watched and when this negro, Isaac Smith came in with the mule an altercation occurred and Smith was killed. Mr. Neal went on to Laurens and gave himself up to the sheriff.

Mrs. J. E. Lemman and little boys, Sam and Miller, spent last Saturday and Sunday with relatives in Greenwood.

Misses Anne and Florida Rudd were Greenwood visitors last Saturday.

Messrs Lowe and Madden, rural police, caught eight gamblers Saturday night. One of them is wanted for shooting with intent to kill. They locked him up at Goldville, and arrested two others who had pistols, between Goldville and Renno.

The woman's missionary Presbytery of Enoree will meet here Friday the 10th inst and will be in session until Monday. There will be preaching on Sunday, the 12th by some missionary. Rev. Mr. Little and wife were to be here. Mrs. Little is sick and they cannot come. Rev. Mr. McMillan of Atlanta, is expected to speak Friday evening on Home Missions.

Saturday about 9 o'clock a bale of cotton was seen to be on fire on the platform here. The bale was sold and weighed the day before and a spark of fire must have found its way into it at the ginney. It was fortunate that it did not burn to the surface in the night or there would have been a big fire and many bales of cotton and perhaps several box cars burned. The bale was rolled off the platform and the fire extinguished without much loss.

Meeting of D. A. R.
The Henry Laurens chapter, D. A. R., will meet Friday afternoon at four o'clock, with Mrs. Eugene Hudgens.

Athletics Won First.

The first game of the world series between New York and Philadelphia which was played yesterday in New York was won by the visiting Athletics, with Bender in the box for Philadelphia and Marquard for New York. Marquard was ousted by heavy hitting and was followed by Tesreau, who later gave up in favor of Crandall. New York out hit the visitors, the Giants getting 11 safeties to 10 of the winners. Errors were easy, each making only one. Everything now points to an easy walkaway in the series for the Athletics.

THE COUNTY FAIR JUST TEN DAYS OFF

far distant, being only a little more than a week off. The people of the county are showing an unusual amount of interest in the exhibition this year. It seems from reports coming in, that more interest is being taken this year than ever before and that the exhibits will far out-strip those of previous years. Since the fair association began many of the most progressive farmers have been making preparations to compete in the prize rings and now have about arrived at a point where they can compete successfully with those who were formerly equipped to exhibit to advantage.
Free Stables for Stock.
For fear that some might have overlooked the statement before, it might be well to repeat that the different sales and feed stables of the city have generously offered shelter to stock exhibitors for the night before the fair. By stock is here meant horses and mules, as cattle, sheep, swine, etc., will have to be staked out in the Garlington meadow, where the fair is to be held.
