

MOUNT OLIVE.

Mt. Olive, Oct. 13.—Our farmers are real busy gathering their crops and sowing small grain.
 Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Martin spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Boland.
 Mr. W. E. Washington returned to Salisbury, N. C. Sunday after spending several days at home.
 Mr. Osgood Martin and family spent Sunday with Mr. Geo. Culbertson.
 Mrs. J. W. Washington of Belton, and son, Mr. Jones Washington, of Pelzer, visited relatives here last Sunday.
 Miss Bessie Cooper was accidentally shot, at the home of her father, Mr. W. L. Cooper Saturday afternoon. It seems that Jim Culbertson, a neighbor's boy, who had come to go hunting with Miss Cooper's brother, laid his gun on the porch of an outhouse and as he did so it was accidentally discharged, part of the load taking effect in her face and shoulder. She was sitting near a door in their residence several yards away. Though she is very painfully injured it is hoped that she will soon recover.
 Same hats for less money at J. C. Burns & Co. Everybody knows it.

WATTS MILLS

Watts Mills, Oct. 13.—Your correspondent together with the Watts Mill choir had the pleasure of attending the singing which was held at the Second Laurens Baptist church Sunday. It was enjoyed very much by all who were present.
 We were very glad to see your old correspondent at Watts Mill last week. He had returned for the purpose of moving his family to Greenville.
 On last Saturday night the good people of Watts mill gave their pastor, Rev. G. C. Hedgepeth, a nice pounding.
 Mr. J. W. Word and family visited Mr. C. E. Nord near Laurens mill Saturday and Sunday.
 Mrs. R. H. Donaldson, who has been suffering for a long while from a very sore foot, is well again.
 Mr. J. M. Moore and family visited at the home of G. E. Moore Saturday and Sunday.
 Mr. Epps, who has been time keeper here for a number of years, has resigned his position and moved to Laurens mill.
 Mr. John Heaton and wife are happy parents this morning of a girl.

Resolutions.

Whereas, it has pleased our Heavenly Father in His Infinite wisdom to remove from our midst our beloved brother and co-worker, Brother W. L. Ferguson, we the members of Campbell Lodge No. 44 offer the following resolutions:
 First, That in the death of our departed brother our lodge has lost a useful and efficient member and one who will be greatly missed among us.
 Second, That we bow in humble submission to our Heavenly Father, who doeth all things well. That we accept this stroke of his hand as an admonition to be ready when He comes and to submit ourselves always to Him.
 Third, That we extend to the family our sincere sympathy in their bereavement and pray God may sustain them in this sorrow.
 Fourth, That these resolutions be inscribed to his memory in the minute book of the lodge and copies be sent to the family and to the town papers for publication.

GAME WARDENS TO MEET.

To Hold Session during the State Fair at Columbia, Attorney General Peoples to Speak.
 Columbia, Oct. 13.—According to an announcement made from the Chief Game Warden's office, Mr. A. A. Richardson is making plans for a meeting of the game wardens of the State on Thursday of Fair Week in Columbia, in the auditorium at the fair grounds. Hon. Ben F. Taylor, secretary of the Audubon society, will speak on that occasion and Attorney General Peoples will speak on the legal side of the game laws of the State. There are several other speakers of State wide prominence invited and will probably make an address at the meeting which is to start at 10 o'clock on the morning of the 30th. This will be the 1st annual meeting of this kind and Chief Game Warden Richardson hopes this meeting will have the effect of better interpretation and enforcement of the game laws, and that his 63 game wardens will after conferring with one another be better fitted for attending to their duties on a higher and better basis.
