

LOCAL AND PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. L. W. C. Blablock, of Goldville, was in the city on business Saturday.

Mrs. Robert Quillen, of Fountain Inn, was a visitor in the city yesterday.

Mr. T. F. Bishop, of Gray Court, Rt. 1, was a business visitor in the city Saturday.

Mr. J. Wade Culbertson, of the vicinity of Ware Shoals, was a visitor in the city yesterday.

Mrs. W. R. Richey, Jr., is spending this week in Columbia as the guest of Mrs. Bland Hammond.

Mrs. H. G. Hartzog, of Greenwood, spent several days in the city last week visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. H. Counts.

Miss Will Lou Gray is spending the week in Columbia where she will be in charge of the Laurens County Tomato Club exhibits.

Miss Corrie Hart and Mrs. Markley Babb have gone to Columbia, where they will spend fair week as the guest of Col. and Mrs. O. W. Babb.

Mr. Will Hollingsworth and Miss Ruth Workman of Cross Hill spent Sunday with Miss Genie Aiken at the home of Mr. J. H. Powers near Madden Station.

Mr. R. G. Ivey, of Wallace, N. C., arrived in the city yesterday to look over the city preparatory to opening up a moving picture show in the old post office building.

Hon. Samuel C. Garlington, of Augusta, was in the city last week to attend the funeral of Mr. Stobo D. Garlington, and to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Garlington.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Cartledge have returned from their honeymoon spent in Kentucky and Tennessee and are temporarily at home with Mrs. Cartledge's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Aug. Huff.

After a visit of about three weeks with relatives in Georgia, Rev. M. L. Lawson returned to the city Thursday and occupied his pulpit at the First Baptist church at the morning and evening services Sunday.

Mr. John McCrady of Charleston is spending a few weeks in the city looking after the business of the engineering firm of McCrady Bros. & Cheves. Mr. Cheves, who has been here in North Carolina superintending some work there.

TYLERSVILLE DOTS.

Tylersville, Oct. 27.—We are all glad to see the sunshine after so much rain. The farmers are anxious to get the cotton picked while they can get a good price, for our crops are short in this neighborhood.

Rev. B. P. Mitchell preached at Langston Sunday to a fine congregation.

Mr. Tom Poole was in Cross Anchor Monday, on business.

Rev. W. B. Justus was visiting in this community last week.

Mr. Marvin Sanders was in Laurens Saturday.

Several of our young men attended the box supper at Balleys school house Saturday night.

They Make You Feel Good.

The pleasant purgative effect produced by Chamberlain's Tablets and the healthy condition of body and mind which they create make one feel joyful. For sale by all dealers.

Statement of the Condition of the BANK OF MOUNTVILLE, Located at Mountville, S. C., at the Close of Business Oct. 21, 1913.

RESOURCES:
Loans and Discounts .. .	$ 36,814.48
Overdrafts .. .	13.55
Furniture and Fixtures .. .	1,554.08
Banking House .. .	2,158.40
Due from Banks and Bankers .. .	9,554.80
Currency .. .	1,050.00
Silver and other Coin .. .	435.96
Checks and Cash Items .. .	599.25
Total .. .	$ 52,180.61
LIABILITIES:
Capital Stock Paid In .. .	$ 20,250.00
Surplus Fund .. .	1,050.00
Undivided Profits, less Current Expenses and Taxes Paid .. .	327.93
Individual Deposits Subject to Check .. .	26,715.51
Time Certificates of Deposit .. .	2,837.22
Cashier's Checks .. .	19.95
Total .. .	$ 52,180.61
State of South Carolina, County of Laurens, ss. Before me came C. M. Fuller, Cashier of the above named bank, who, being duly sworn, says that the above and foregoing statement is a true condition of said bank, as shown by the books of said bank.
C. M. FULLER, Sworn to and subscribed before me this 27th day of October, 1913.
W. E. Crisp, Notary Public for S. C. Correct Attest: J. M. Simmons, W. J. Cluck, T. W. Boyd, Directors.

Have you tried Rice Meal for fattening hogs? Better and cheaper than shorts. Dixie Flour and Grain Co., have it in stock.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Mr. John H. Petersen with his bride, who was Miss Olive Pauline Kelly, daughter of J. H. Kelly, a prominent citizen of Darlington, arrived in the city last week and spent several days with his parents here. The marriage, which was a quiet home affair, was attended only by the immediate relatives and the announcement of the happy event came as a surprise to a large number of his friends here. The wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents last Tuesday.

Edwards-Garlington.

Hendersonville, N. C., Oct. 24.—Beautiful and brilliant was the marriage last evening at 7 o'clock of Miss Amy Edwards and Gordon Garlington. The large and stately Edwards home on Washington street was elaborately decorated for the occasion. Mrs. Grace Westall, of Asheville, sang "Because," and immediately after pealed forth Mendelssohn's wedding march from the skilled touch of Orme Edwards, of Jacksonville, Fla., brother of the bride and a pianist of much note, and the bridal party descended the stairs. First to enter the drawing room were little Elizabeth Peaman and Martha Dixon, nieces of the bride who carried white ribbons, which formed an aisle. Then came singly, the bridesmaids, Misses Nona Edwards and Brownie Morris, gowned in shadow lace over pink satin and carrying Killarney roses tied with pink tulle. These were followed by the maid of honor, Miss Alma Edwards, gowned in pink chiffon over pink satin and carrying pink roses tied with pink tulle. The groomsmen were Frank and Albert Edwards, who entered singly from another door, followed by the groom and his best man, John Wells Todd, Jr., of Laurens, S. C., who approached the improvised altar and awaited the bride, who entered leaning upon the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. She was a vision of loveliness in her soft white bridal robe of Charmeuse, en train, trimmed in Dutchess lace and pearl trimmings and carrying bride's roses and white tulle. Her veil was held in place with a diamond and pearl pin, the gift of the groom. Rev. A. L. Stanford, of the Methodist church, performed the beautiful and impressive ring ceremony, while Mr. Edwards softly played "Meditation."

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held. Receiving with the bride and groom were Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Edwards, parents of the bride; Mrs. Conway Garlington, of Ens, sister and brother of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Spratt, of Laurens, sister and brother of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Spier, Charlotte, and Mrs. Ben Barnes, of Rock Hill, relatives of the bride. In the dining room, which was lovely in a color scheme of pink and white, Misses Mary St. John, Dell Davis, Lillian Waldrop, May Clark, of Danville, Va., and Mesdames Stewart and Clark, of Jacksonville, Fla., served delightful refreshments. Mrs. Lewis Emmett Fisher and Miss Floride Morris presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Horald Peaman, of Chicago, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Lila Ripley Barnwell, led the way to the gift room, where a handsome array of presents told of love and popularity. Notable among the presents were gifts from family servants of both the bride and groom. The Arleton orchestra rendered lovely music throughout the reception.

At 8 o'clock the bride donned a blue cloth suit with accessories to match and the happy couple left for a two weeks' bridal tour of eastern cities.

Mrs. Garlington is the daughter of one of the oldest and most prominent families of Hendersonville and is well known for her beauty and personality. Mr. Garlington is from a well known and prominent South Carolina family. His father, the late Conway Garlington, was the founder and first editor of the Spartanburg Herald. Mr. Garlington has made Hendersonville his home for the last four years and is closely identified with the business and social life, being one of the members of the Mutual Printing company and joint editor of the Western Carolina Democrat.

One of the largest and most beautiful affairs of the season was the reception given on Saturday afternoon by Mrs. W. E. Lucas in honor of Mrs. Carlos Moseley and Miss Lella I. Thompson. Mrs. Lucas was assisted in receiving and entertaining the guests by Mrs. Guignaird, Mrs. Aiken, Mrs. Mason Copeland, Miss Mayme Ferguson, Miss Josephine Fuller, Miss Emmie Meng and the Misses Simpson. The large drawing room was beautifully decorated in autumn leaves and ferns. In the dining room the color scheme of pink and white was artistically carried out in the decorations

Furniture That Will Last Life-Time

You can have that kind at no greater cost if you come to S. M. & E. H. Wilkes & Co., for your home furnishings. We have ready for your inspection--

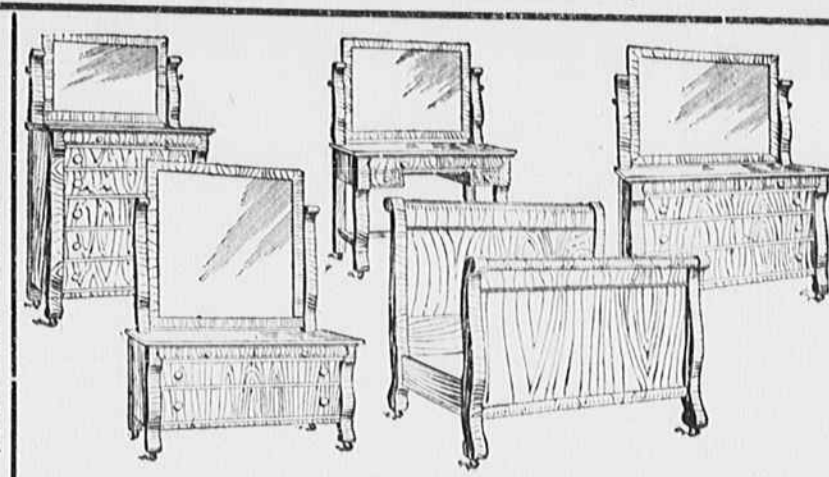

A Strong Clean Cut Line, Well Made Inside and Outside, Faultless Designs, Finest Finishes, Quality Workmanship and Dozens of Other Distinctive Features are to be Seen in Our Line of.

Reasonably Priced Quality Furniture.

Only $15.75

Beautifully Finished Solid Oak, Medium Size

Only $49.50

Real Mohogany Three Piece Bed Room Suit. Bed, Dresser and Washstand.

$1.75

Solid Oak, Large Size, Very Strong and Comfortable.

Only $14.90
Genuine Quarter-Sawed Oak.

Only $18.50
Full Size Quartered Oak Davenport, upholstered in fine chase leather.

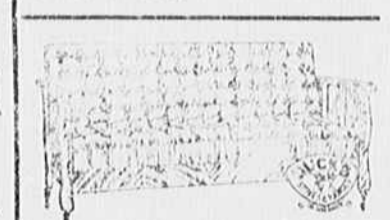

See Our Display of Fine Odd Dressers

We are Showing a Dandy Line of Organs.

$21.50
Beautiful Quartered Oak Chiffonobe.

Extra Large Mohogany Frame Davenport, beautifully upholstered in best chase leather.

Come to us with your Furniture Wants, you will be pleased with our Goods, our Prices and our Service.

S. M. & E. H. WILKES & CO.

Laurens, South Carolina

and refreshments. Quantities of pink and white carnations and pink roses were used.

Mrs. Lucas is a most charming and gracious hostess and during the season her home is the scene of many delightful affairs.

Johnstone-Rountree.

The following invitations have been received in Laurens, where the bride-elect is well and popularly known and where she has numerous friends:

Mr. and Mrs. Alan Johnstone requests the honour of your presence at the marriage of their daughter

Adeline
to
Mr. Walter Jefferson Rountree
on the evening of Tuesday
the 11th of November
at seven o'clock
Aveleigh Presbyterian Church
Newberry, South Carolina.

Todd-Owen.

The marriage of Miss Jessie Todd to Mr. Walter Carl Owen, in Greenwood Saturday, is of interest to quite a number of people in this city and county where the bride is known. She formerly lived in Waterloo and has a wide relationship in this county. The following account of the wedding appeared in the Greenwood Daily Journal Monday afternoon:

"Of interest to their many friends was the marriage of Miss Jessie Todd to Mr. Walter Carl Owen which took place Saturday at noon at the residence of Mrs. H. B. Reynolds. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. B. Green.

"Miss Todd has a wide circle of friends in this city where she has made her home for a number of years.

"Mr. Owen is a progressive and substantial young business man. He is a member of the firm of Owen Bros. Marble Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen left Saturday for Gainesville, Ga., where they will spend some time with relatives of the groom before returning to Greenwood where they will make their future home."

The Wednesday study club held its regular meeting last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. L. P. McGee. The pre-arranged program was carried out and proved a very interesting one. Mrs. McGee made the hours pass very delightfully and added to the enjoyment by serving a tempting salad course.

Miss Lila Hart was hostess to the bridge club Saturday morning, when several hours were spent playing auction bridge. After several very exciting games were played, a delightful luncheon was served. The meeting of the club proved to be a most delightful occasion.

The following invitations have been received in Laurens, where Mr. Fleming lives and where Miss Brown is known and has numerous friends:

Mr. William Mardonald Brown desires the pleasure of your company at the marriage of his daughter

Florence
to
Mr. Robert Franklin Fleming, Jr.
on the evening of Wednesday
the 5th of November
at six o'clock
at his home
Lancaster, South Carolina

Enclosed with the invitations were cards, as follows:
At Home
after the fifteenth of November
Laurens, South Carolina.

Today at noon a quiet wedding will be solemnized at the Drummond home on South Harper street when Miss Marie Drummond will become the wife of Mr. Thomas Everett Babb. The ceremony will be attended only by the immediate relatives and friends of the young couple. After a short wedding trip they will return to Laurens to make their home. Both of the young people are well known in Laurens, the bride-elect being a young lady of many personal charms. Mr. Babb is a member of the firm of Minister Company and is a prominent young business man of the city.

Mrs. H. R. Aiken charmingly entertained the social club Wednesday in honor of her sister, Mrs. Moore, of Charleston. Eight or nine tables were prepared for the game of Forty Two and a very pleasant afternoon was spent in playing. Mrs. Aiken was assisted by Mesdames J. N. Hudsons, G. C. Albright, J. H. Teague, C. M. Clarke and E. H. Wilkes. During the afternoon a delicious salad course with coffee was served.

You can't dodge the malaria germ while your liver is torpid. It makes you an easy mark for the disease. DR. M. A. SIMMONS' LIVER MEDICINE is the best protection. It puts the liver in sound, healthy condition and purifies the stomach and bowels. Price 25 cents per package. Sold by Laurens Drug Co.

Merchants can save the freight and get fresh stuff by buying produce from Dixie Flour and Grain Co.