"GETS-IT" A SUBE-SHOT FOR ALL CORNS

Use Two Drops—and They Vanish. When corns make you almost die with your boots on, when you try to walk on the edge of your shoes to try to get away from your corns, you're way behind time if you have not used "GETS-IT". It's the corn cure of the century, the new way, the sure, painless, simply way. It makes a fellow really feel foolish after he's used teocating salves, corn-biting ointments,

"Murder! Everybody Tries to Step on My Corn!" Use "GETS-IT" and You'll Have No Corns to Be Stepped On. toe-bundling bandages, blood-bringing razors, knives, files, scissors, jubbars and what-nots, when he uses just 2 drops of "GETS-IT" and sees his corn vanish. The difference is divine. Just try it. You won't wince when you put on your shoes in the morning. "GETS-IT" is sure, "gets" any corn, callus, wart or bunion. "GETS-IT" is sold by druggists everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago. Sold in Laurens and is recommended as the world's only real corn cure by Laurens Drug Co. and Rays Pharmacy

Re-union of the Wharton Family.

Years ago, good Mr. William Wharton and his gentle wife, Mrs. Leana Wharton, passed home to the reward, promised for lives well spent, so the reunion of the Wharton family was held, July 22 at the colonial homestead of their granddaughter, Mrs. Rufus Dunlap, 3 miles from the progressive little town of Mountville. For this most delightful occasion, 82 of the Wharton descendants were present; sons and daughters, with their wives, children and grandchildren, together with the close neighbors and some friends from Laurens; among this number was Rev. Mr. Rankin, J. N. Wright and Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Pluss. The weather was ideal and the morning passed in social pleasure by the older people, recalling many happy days gone by; whilst fishing in the nearby river and games made glad the young folks. Mr. and Mrs. Wharton raised 8 children, all of whom married in early life and most of whom raised large families. William and Walter died several years ago,—still surviving are Mrs. Thomas Langston, Mrs. James M. Hudgens, Mrs. Frank M. Fuler Mrs. Athens Ballew, Col. J. H., Bee W. and Melmoth Wharton. From Greenwood, Woodruff, Clinton, Cross Hill, Waterloo and other places their descendants gathered to do honor to this occasion. Mrs. James Hudgens lives in Knoxville, Tenn.

The Dunlap homestead, now the property of Rufus T. Dunlap, has been in the family for five generations; the first Dunlap receiving his title to the land from the King of England. The original residence, added to and repaired, is still in good condition; a fine old land mark of colonial days. "One of the Guests."

EASY WAY TO MAKE HAIR ATTRACTIVE

Ladies who find trouble in properly or attractively arranging and dressing their hair should try using a little Parisian Sage twice daily for awhile and note the remarkable improvement. Parisian Sage, which can be obtained from Laurens Drug Co., or any drug counter, makes the hair soft, lustrous, fluffy and wavy, takes out the dull, lifeless appearance, dissolves the dandruff and stimulates the hair roots into healthy normal action. Instead of merely sprinkling the hair, it should be rubbed right into the scalp with the finger tips. Parisian Sage is a delightful treatment for both hair and scalp, cannot possibly injure the hair and is very inexpensive.

Our Fashion Service.

Last week The Advertiser began a series of illustrated fashion articles, for the particular benefit, of course, of our women readers. We have often considered doing this, but the opportunity had not heretofore presented itself to us to give the quality of service which we desired. We have always been able to get a fashion service of a kind, but we did not care to fill our columns with misleading information on a subject that must be up-to-date if it is to be at all valuable. We have mit that we do not know anything about women's fashions, but we have confidence in the firm from which these articles are secured and we assure even the most fastidious that they may be relied upon. We would like to have our readers compare them with the latest style books and let us know the value of the service.

COOPER MAY RUN.

Anderson Daily Mail Gives Interview With R. A. Cooper of This City. Whether or not R. A. Cooper, of this city, candidate in the last primary for the nomination for governor, would run again next year has been a subject for discussion for many months. According to The Anderson Daily Mail, Mr. Cooper "practically declared" Saturday that he would be in the race. The following was the report of the Anderson paper as to Mr. Cooper's statement: "Hon. Robert A. Cooper of Laurens practically declared Saturday morning that he will be a candidate for governor of South Carolina next summer. He and Mr. J. S. Machen arrived in their automobile from Laurens Friday night and remained in Anderson until this morning when they departed for Iva. Mr. Cooper addressed the Iva Chautauqua this morning on the subject of education. "Mr. Cooper, will you be a candidate for governor next summer?" asked a representative of The Daily Mail. "I will be a candidate for governor if certain conditions exist," he replied quickly. And the smile that followed this remark strongly indicated that he had received assurances that those "conditions exist now and will continue to exist. Mr. Cooper has received many assurances of support from people who never supported him in the last election if he will enter the race next summer. While the representative of this newspaper was talking with him several Anderson men came up and grasped his hand and said they did not vote for or support him last summer, but they would certainly do both in the coming election. A Cooper sentiment seems to have developed in all sections of the state during the past few weeks. By many he is considered the strongest of all the candidates who may be in the race. Everybody knows what Mr. Cooper meant when he said he would be a candidate "if certain conditions exist," and now since the public will be informed that he is available no doubt strong pressure will be brought to bear on him from all sections of the state to have him announce his candidacy. And the general opinion is that he will announce himself in due time."

A Good Woman Gone.

On the morning of the 15th of July 1915, the death angel came and carried away the spirit of one of the best women we have ever known, Mrs. Frances Hodze. She was the daughter of the late Rev. J. B. Davenport. She was married three times, her first husband was M. John Crofford. From this union six children survive her, two boys, M. Thad S. and Lee Crofford, and four daughters, Mrs. Chesley Brown, Mrs. Irvin Madden, Mrs. John Gambrell, Mrs. Wofford Wren. No children by the last two marriages. She leaves to mourn her departure, a devoted husband, M. L. E. Hodge, of Union, S. C. Mrs. Hodge was a member of Mt. Olive Baptist church, and was loved and respected by all who knew her. She had a sweet disposition, and a loving heart, and was devoted to her husband and children. Truly a good woman has gone. A ready sympathy for all was hers, and she did what she could for all who came within her touch or influence; human sympathy is sweet, and we feel the Master knows and cares; we can only watch and wait, live over again the old days, hold each tender memory close to the soul, and look forward to a reunion in the land of eternal rest. Mrs. Hodze was at the time of her death, sixty-three years old and had been living in Union, S. C., since her last marriage. Her remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at Mt. Olive church, in Laurens county on July 19. A large gathering of relatives and friends came to see this good woman for the last time on earth. God bless the sorrowing ones. A Friend.
